I would like to thank my wife and two wonderful boys for playing along with daddy's weird conspiracy ideas and being my constant joy and stability. This is all about our little slice of heaven next to the seaside, you are my life.

I would also like to thank Keith Fenny for all of the wonderful chats about these topics we have had over the years and the love you have always shown me. Thank you to Christine for our Sunday roast and unconditional love.

I would like to thank my mum and sisters for sticking by me through the years and patiently listening whilst I tell them about the latest conspiracy theories I have. Thanks to Steve and Gary for being incredible friends and brothers over the decades, and taking care of me when I could not take care of myself.

Lastly, I would like to dedicate this book to my dad, Barry Willett, I love you, I miss you and I will see you again sometime, someday, when we can laugh at all of this madness over a beer and a game of pool.

About the Author

JUST A SECOND OF YOUR TIME

I am sitting here in my office in a sleepy town right next to the coast in England. One of our cats AJ is in a mood because I think he lost a fight the other day and my eyes are still a bit sore from the hay fever battering they have taken over the past three summer months (turns out I have blepharitis) which is fun.

I guess there's no normal place to sit down and right a book about a global death cult that is on a quest to discover the keys to immortality and with that, attempt to attach what is left of humanity to an A.I infused quantum computer that will monitor their every move via a Neuralink connected smart grid. Yes it's all a bit mental, but isn't that the nature of a cult? This death cult has infiltrated all areas of society, from politics, banking, medicine, police, media and technology. As well as hijacking and inverting most religions, especially the Abrahamic's. Members of this death cult have embedded themselves in global politics, semi-secret and secret societies, royalty and nobility. How do we know this? because if you know what you are looking for it is utterly blatant and in your face. This book will teach you how to spot the manipulation of this death cult so that you are impervious to their scams, whilst mapping out the main points of their global agenda as we go. One of the first things I need to make clear is that you and I do not have to believe in any of this stuff for it to have very real and often drastic consequences on our lives. What I do know is that the combination of extreme ideologies, malevolent personality types and absurd wealth is a toxic concoction that can have a very real and highly destructive impact on our lives. This is the truth about what we are dealing with, take away the magical thinking, the extreme ideologies and beliefs, what we are left with is a group of very rich and influential psychopaths who have convinced us to hand over our agency.

They communicate through signs, symbols, numbers and colours because they understand the base nature of reality, this is what my good friend and fellow researcher Wayne McRoy calls "synchronistic metadata". This information is the birth right of each and everyone of us, yet somewhere along the way the mystery schools were taken over by these parasites and they have taken this knowledge for themselves. One example is the rainbow, this symbol was used by the cult controllers who were manipulating the Covid 19 scam. Children across the UK were encouraged to draw rainbow pictures with the NHS logo to take home and put in their windows as a way of showing support for the NHS Staff who were given the narrative of "working class heroes", battling this "deadly" virus on the frontlines. What these children did not know was that the rainbow has a deep esoteric meaning to the occultist who ran the scam. I will go into detail about the symbolic meanings of the rainbow later in this book, but for now I will just say that it is a symbol of the visible light spectrum and what you will come to know as the 7 Noahide Laws. This symbol was placed in the kitchen and living room windows of families all over the country, little did they know that they were actually showing a symbol of worship to a cult who want to bring about a new world order which they call Olam-Haba. What was even more sickening was that when many of the NHS staff refused to take the experimental gene therapy that was the mRNA "Vaccine", they were fired by the very service they were deemed heroes for only a few months prior, my wife included. Now years later we can see the devastating effect of those experimental jabs. Did I say it was a death cult?...

As insane as it sounds, this death cult can be traced back thousands of years through the Holy Roman empire to Babylon, Sumer and Mesopotamia. The cult has no borders, no national allegiance, no true religious belief. They worship death and chaos, whilst being terrified of death at the same time. This book seeks to expose the agenda of a global death cult and how they are using you to make it happen. In fact they are not only using you to make it happen, the need you to make it happen for them, which is something we must all remember. They want to become immortal Demi-Gods of this 'New Earth' and according to their own timeline, they are seriously up against it. From the ancient flood mythologies of Gilgamesh to the 9/11 attacks and today's artificial intelligence roll out, it is all connected. This book aims to set out this agenda in an easy to follow narrative arch, and all we have to do is take a look at the biblical "prophecies" to lay down the framework for what these nutters are doing. These are not "prophecies" these are well thought out plans that require the manipulation of your energies to make them happen. Whoever or whatever you believe is behind this, whether entities from parallel dimension just outside our visible light spectrum (rainbow) or just a gaggle of nutters following a 2,000 year old script, that is down to you. What I do know is that as of today 19,000 children have been murdered in Gaza since October 7th 2023 and they deserve someone to speak out for them and uncover the insane agenda that led to their death. Thank you for taking the time to be with me, the following is the truth as far as my 15 years of research has taken me, ultimately it is up to you to make your own mind up. But remember, you don't have to believe in this shit to know that these deeply depraved cult assets do. The worrying thing is, this cult includes some of the biggest names in global politics, media, religion and technology on the world stage today. They want a new world where they can literally live forever and they want to control everyone and everything that is birthed into that world from their first breath onwards.

These lunatics are afraid of two things, death and being found out. And together we can expose these cowards for who they truly are.

P.S: In this book I will be revealing many truths, many possibilities, many theories and most importantly I will be asking many questions. Quantum physics shows us that reality is made up of particles of possibility. What the future holds has not been set in stone, in fact nothing ever is for everything is in a process of change. We are the creators of our next 'now' and will be forever. So this book is my best attempt right now to quantify the probable outcomes that this death cult seek to achieve.

WHAT'S TO FEAR?

In the documentary 'I Am Immortal' that accompanies this book, available on Iconic.com, I start the film by describing a scenario that I used to play out when I was a child back in the late 1980's. I would have been around six or seven years of age and was going through that 'afraid of the dark in my own room' stage. I clearly remember laying in bed and picturing all the superhero characters I could think of all lined up at the foot of my door, guarding the threshold to my room as I slept. I must have been afraid of the things in this reality, perhaps someone breaking in? because I know that I was not afraid of one thing, and that was death. I used to say to myself 'what's the worst that can happen? I could die' and for some reason I just wasn't afraid to die. Perhaps this was because I had already officially popped my clogs a couple of times by then. I was born with something called an oesophageal atresia which means the pipe that carries food to your stomach was detached, so I couldn't eat anything which was a bit of a problem. It was my dad that saved my life one time, pulling what resembled a rope of congealed milk out of my surgically repaired oesophagus. He told me that he actually heard the voice of his nan in his head, who he was very close to and who had passed a few years earlier. She told him to put his fingers down my throat and pull the string of milk out...it worked!

THE PURPOSE of telling you that, other than to put you off your lunch, is that I had already had a couple of visits over to the "other side" and although I cannot remember that incident, I came back entirely unafraid of death. Another time I was on the operating table at Great Ormond Street and I clearly remember looking down on myself on the operating table and becoming aware of everything that was being said outside of the operating theatre, as if the voices were in my head. I remember seeing what I perceived as television monitors showing what was happening in different locations in the hospital at the same time. I have no idea how old I was there, but I think I might have been around 10 years old which was when I had all the operations done a second time to help with my digestion. So by now I had been to the "other side" and come back a couple of times and it left me with no fear of death. So why are the members of this global death cult, that I believe to included the likes of Donald Trump, Vladimir Putin and Benjamin Netanyahu, so afraid of death? so much so that they are working on technology that has the sole aim of becoming immortal. I know this sounds insane, but it is very real. Only a few days ago as of this writing Vladimir Putin was caught on a hot mic telling the General Secretary of the Chinese Communist Party Xi Jinping, about his research into biotechnologies and their ability to achieve immortality. Elon Musk is famous for his views on combining the human body with artificial intelligence and robotics.

ON THE 4TH June 2016 Elon Tweeted "creating a neural lace is the thing that really matters for humanity to achieve symbiosis with machines"(1). This tweet was posted alongside an image of two robotic hands making a heart shape for the 2022 A.I Day celebration. In reality this shape is symbolic of the two headed snake of the caduceus, which is the staff of Hermes (Mercury in Roman myth). The caduceus represents mediation between two alchemical principles. The cult are alchemists at their core, and this is the knowledge of the nature of reality that they have stolen and hidden away from the general public. Researcher and author David Icke exposes how Elon Musk is simply a sales rep for the cult, and his role is provide the "soft sell" of the transhumanist agenda. They are offering you the illusion of choice between what they call "Human Enhancement" and "Human Plus" (2.0). What they are not telling you is that this choice comes beyond the event horizon of excepting that transhumanism is inevitable. We will come back to Elon Musk many more times during the course of this book, but for now it's enough to say that he has some interesting business deals with the likes of the Saudi Royals Kingdom Holdings Company and the Qatar Sovereign Wealth Fund. Elon was photographed at a football match in Qatar with Donald Trumps son in law Jared Kushner. Kushner is a follower of Chabad Lubavitch, who are a messianic sect of Orthodox mystical Judaism that will feature heavily in this information in the coming chapters. So we have established that they afraid of death, but let's examine the evidence for this ,which they reveal to us in their signs, symbols and mythologies. Like any phantom it needs to personify a character in a narrative for it to be an effective "bad guy". This bad guy is the one phantom that even a death cult cannot escape, in fact it has been given the name "Death" itself.

OLD FATHER TIME

You will Likely have heard the saying "Father Time catches up with us all" and so shall it with the death cult, unless they managed to achieve their ultimately goal of "Olam-Haba" before their time is up. Olam-Haba is a Hebrew term that means "World to Come" and it refers to the new world that this cult seek to build. To be clear this is not a Jewish plot, this cult use all areas of society to hide within, invert and manipulate. Those of the Jewish faith have been the victims of this cult perhaps more than any other group in history. Old Father Time has been classically portrayed as an elderly man with white hair and a long white beard. He is often depicted holding a scythe and an hour glass whilst he wanders the lands harvesting souls. There are so many variations of this character that it is truly amazing to see. We have Saturn who is known as Cronus the leader and youngest of the Titans, he was the son of Gaia who was known as the earth. In the gnostics texts Cronus relates to their evil creator god the Demiurge (Yaldabaoth) who was the illegitimate son (virgin born) of Sophia who is the personification of wisdom. Another version of the same archetype of Old Father Time is the Architect of the Matrix movies. He is based on the Great (Grand) Architect of the Freemasons who are today's Knights Templar at their uppermost levels. This is backed up by the fact that the Freemasons' are obsessed with rebuilding the Temple of Solomon which is a central theme to the death cults agenda. Speak to most Christians and they will tell you that Gnosticism is "a great heresy" and an evil train of thought. I personally do not see this world as a trap as the gnostics did, but what they tell you in the their writings makes sense on so many levels. The Matrix movies are based on these Gnostic teachings, yet these teachings go further back to the likes of Plato and the library of Alexandria. The teachings are just information that triggers awareness, it is what you do with them and your own intentions that make them malevolent or benevolent. To frame it any other way is just the cults abuse of religion to make you feel like you have no control over what you think, say and do. It's all bollocks, you are in control of what effect you have on this reality, they just want you to think you are powerless so that they can use your creative energy for their own desires.

ANOTHER VERSION of Old Father Time is Saturn who was the Roman god of wealth and agriculture and the father of Jupiter. The Greek name for Saturn is Cronus who was a cruel yet cowardly character who devoured his own children in fear of them killing him and taking his crown. It was Cronus/Saturn that ruled during the pervious "Golden Age" when the world is said to have lived in peace and prosperity. I am guessing that's because everyone had a digital ID score and we're too scared shitless to break the "rules" in case Cronus ate them. In fact Elon Musk proudly displays the Black Saturn hole as his logo for his artificial intelligence company Grok, which means "to understand". Understanding is Binah on the Kabbalah Tree of Life which again relates back to Saturn. A Black Saturn is a tiny black hole that some believe are being made inside the Large Hadron Collider at CERN in Switzerland. What in the parallel world of hell are Elon and his transhumanist mates letting in through these black holes which are essentially doorways to other realities?. A Black Saturn is a hypothetical, stable configuration of a black hole surrounded by a black ring, which can exist in theory in higher dimensions of spacetime. This system remains balanced because the spinning black ring prevents the black hole from collapsing, with the rotation of the ring also causing the central black hole to spin. This ties into Elon Musk's use of the X-symbol that replaced the blue bird of Twitter. The symbolism of replacing the blue bird with the X relates to the blue bird flying over the rainbow (visible light spectrum) and onto the new world. This was in reference to the song "Somewhere over the rainbow" the lyrics being:

Somewhere over the rainbow
Blue birds fly
Birds fly over the rainbow
Why, then, oh, why can't I? (2)

X IS A WELL known symbol for Saturn and the X logo has one of the lines thickened across its centre point. I believe this represents the tilt of the ring that surrounds the black Saturn, which keeps the portal door open. The increased thickness of the line in the latest X Logo may represent the technocrats increased ability to keep the door/portal open for longer? A more blatant example of Saturn symbology is President Donald Trump's use of the term "Golden Age". On the 3rd May 2025 the Guardian newspaper reported that Donald Trump had promised a golden age for the US economy (3). This wasn't the first time Trump used Saturn symbology to signal to his fellow occultists that he was in the club and staying on page and it wouldn't be the last. This is what researcher and author Wayne McRoy calls "twilight language" or the "language of the birds" which is a form of communication and some believe black magic. Twilight language is a wonderful way of putting it, because this cult wants to live in something called the "shimmering darkness". This is when the dark absorbs all the light and the two become one. Going deeper into the symbology, this is the collapse of all matter into the singularity, a term used by scientists for the centre of a black hole, and what would be seen as the great reset of the World Economic Forum. You see how quickly you can fall down the symbology rabbit hole when you start to connect all of this together. This is because it is a language, and this is the language of those who want to rule the new world and symbolically block out the present day Sun, which to them represent Egypt and their prime god Ra. This shimmering darkness/twilight connects to the vampire stories such as Dracula, and would you believe it, the current King of England King Charles III is a descendant of Vlad The Impaler. Vlad was the psychopathic ruler of Wallachia, which is not too far from Transylvania in Romania, and the inspiration for the Dracula character. David Icke exposed the Satanic connections of the "British" Royal Family in his classic book 'The Biggest Secret' back in 1998 (4). I will come back to the Royal Family later when we come to the Black Nobility and the cults hand in the death of Princess Diana.

SO ALL OF this madness acts as a vibrational pledge of allegiance and worship to the evil creator god Satan, Saturn or Cronus who is the Demiurge and the god of the Old Testament Adonai Yahweh. In this book I will often use the term 'Evil Creator God' as a catch all term for this entity. These are all names for the same energetic disturbance that the gnostics believed held us in the perceptual prison of visible light, which is symbolically represented by the rainbow. You see how it all ties in? Some might say that it's been programmed this way, which would make sense if this reality was a simulation. I always find it funny when people get upset if you suggest this reality is a simulation, like it demeans this reality in some way. To some, using the term "simulation" conjures up images of a lesser version of something original, which is what some gnostic did believe. I believe that even if this is so, it does not demean our place and purpose here at all. After 44 years in this strange place all I know for sure is that this place is not an accident, and that it clearly required some sort of intelligent design. Why and what it all means is an entirely different matter and might actually be subjective to the game player themselves. But what I believe is not important to the premise of this book, what is important is what these dark occults believe. One thing that is clear to me, is that at the peak of the pyramid they are terrified of dying, and they are doing everything they can to stay here in this material world for as long as possible. The main goal is to position themselves as the immortal gods of this material reality, whilst transforming it into their own twisted version of heaven on earth or what the Netflix show Stranger Things called the "Upside Down". Ultimately they are doing all that they can to avoid (or at least put off) their own date with the Grim Reaper. I also believe there is a symbolic connection between the mythology of Cronus eating his own children and Black Saturn holes. These black holes gobble up anything that gets too close to it like a giant Henry Hoover. Anything that crosses the point of no return, which is the event horizon (Horus rising) gets swallowed up into the black hole.

MY IMMORTAL

Where did the quest for immortality begin? The most famous of all the Immortals would have to be the Titans. These immortal Greek gods clashed with their immortal offspring the Olympians. Their main characteristics were as follows:

- They could not be killed (by earthly diseases or conventional means)
- They did not age upon reaching adulthood
- Instead of human blood they had Ichor in their veins. They gained this substance from consuming nectar and ambrosia (perhaps Virgin/child blood?)
- Regeneration from physical harm

Then we have the Demi-Gods who were half god and half human, usually the offspring of a god having it's cheeky way with a beautiful human women. The Demi-gods were given the following abilities:

- Superhuman physical traits
- An inheritance of their parents domain, for example control over plants or water
- Enhanced senses (pineal gland operating)
- Superior healing powers
- They can see through the "mist" which is a supernatural cloaking that tricks humans into seeing the gods in a human form

While the Demi-gods clearly had some wonderful powers they were not immortal beings, they often live long lives but eventually they did die. If we are going to bring these principles into the modern day we can clearly see the correlations between Human Enhancement and Human 2.0 and so called "Demi-gods". If these cult lunatics are really playing out their sci-fi Marvel fantasies, then those that are given the human enhanced body (shell) would take on the societal position of Demi-gods, while those they are ritually ushered into the Human 2.0 (+) model will be the gods of this new earth. The hierarchy would perhaps go something like this:

- Immortal Gods
- Demi-gods (Human Enhancement)
- AI infused Robots become the Priest Class
- Synthetic Humans 2.0 as the working class (connected to the hive mind)

THE 7 NOAHIDE Laws could become the laws that are set down by these "immortal gods" as the rules for those who are born into synthetic bodies (Human 2.0). These new bodies will be Synthetic (SynBio) so it maybe that they are vastly different from the bodies that we inhabit in today. I would suggest that these new shells will be plugged directing into the A.I hive mind from birth. Picking up the story, eventually the younger Olympians grew to the stage when they wanted to take over from the Titans and become the rulers of the world themselves. This natural urge resulted in what become known as the Titanomachy, which was a ten year war in Greek mythology. The Olympians were led by Zeus who overthrew the older Titans to gain dominance over the universe. The king of the Titans was Cronus, which as we have already established, is the Greek name for Saturn. This is the god that the cult appears to be utterly terrified of, whose wicked characteristics can be seen in the biblical God of the Old Testament Adonai Yahweh. Cronus was a shit bag by all accounts, as was the judgemental and jealous god Yahweh. This is the one true god of the Israelites which is why the death cult, who believe they are the descendants of the lost tribes of Israel, have such fear and loathing of Yahweh. One thing that often gets misunderstood about this cult is that they don't adore Yahweh, they are terrified of him and worship him out of fear. Remember we are talking about archetypes, which are base level blue prints for characters regardless of their "official" name. So the Evil Creator God is Cronus, is Yahweh, is the Demiurge, is Saturn. They are all names for the same distorted and disturbed energy pattern that this cult wants to let into our reality, to either allow it to control the world or to trap it here and control it themselves (more on that later).

THIS IS the god of the Golden Age, a time that these lunatics want to return our reality to. When they say it was a time of abundance and stability, it is my belief that they meant it was a time of abundance and stability for the gods and not for humanity. One of the earliest accounts of a Demi-god was an epic from ancient Mesopotamia called The Epic of Gilgamesh. Some of these stories are said to date back to around 2100 BCE, the first surviving version of this combined epic is called the "Old Babylonian" version which dates back to the 18th Century BCE. Gilgamesh was the King of Uruk and was considered a Demi-god which meant that although he had all the incredible attributes of the Demi-gods listed above, he was not immortal. In the first part of the story Gilgamesh is sent a foe in the guise of a wild man named Enkidu who was first tamed by a sexy lady called Shamhat, if you know what I mean! Enkidu traveled to Uruk to challenge Gilgamesh and to stop him from oppressing the people of Uruk. They had a little scrap and although Gilgamesh came out on top the two became close friends and travelled off into the Cedar-Forest to murder a big old giant called Humbaba and cut down the sacred Cedar. Meanwhile the goddess Ishtar, who was immortal, fancied a bit of Gilgamesh but he knew what she was like and turned her down. This pisses her right off, so she sends the Bull of Heaven down to punish Gilgamesh, but Gilgamesh and his new best mate Enkidu kill the Bull which pissed Ishtar off even more. For this the utterly unreasonable (and some would say psychopathic) gods decide to kill Enkidu, which they do by giving him a fatal illness...probably a Covid fake vaccine. The loss of his new best friend sends Gilgamesh off on a journey to discover the secrets of immortality. After a while he meets a fella named Utnapishtim which in Akkadian means "he has found life", Utnapishtim was a legendary king who lived in an ancient city in Iraq, and it is clear that this story was where the much later tale of Noah came from. In the Mesopotamian narrative Utnapishtim is chosen by the god Enki to survive the global flood. Enki was an Annunaki and the younger brother of Enlil. It was Enki who was credited with creating humanity as we know it today. After Enlil got a bit annoyed about the amount of noise the humans and Nephilim were making down here on earth, he decided it was time for a great reset, so he set about flooding the place.....nice fella. Enki took pity on his creation and warned Utnapishtim about the coming flood, telling him to build a boat (Ark) which maybe symbolic of a vessel or craft to hold DNA samples. Of course this is pretty much the story of Noah and his ark, so it is important for us to understand that these 7 Noahide Laws and gods "promise" to his "chosen ones" is based on a story from a character who's entire backstory is stolen from something much older. There was no Noah, and if there was no Noah then there could not have been a Moses, Abraham, Jacob or David or even a Solomon.

IMAGINE 19,000 children died in the last year and half in Gaza because of this bollocks!

THE STORY GOES that humanity was created as a worker race to take on the tasks of the gods who had to work for themselves. This task of working the land was given to the Igigi who after 40 years were starting to grumble. This is when Enki created the human form to take over from the Igigi who were knackered by then. To create this new being the gods chose to sacrifice poor old Llawela who was the god of intelligence. They used the blood of Llawela (We-ila) and mixed it with clay and mud and came up with man. The first humans were Adam and his first wife Lilith, who in some accounts was a shapeshifting blue Butterfly (more later). Adam couldn't handle Lilith's wild nature (she was his equal) so he got rid of her and created Eve out of his rib. These humans were doing fine until the fallen angels fancied the human women and the whole Nephilim shit went down. Then they all got too noisy and the Anunnaki called for the flood, sparing only Utnapishtim and his family. Another name used for Utnapishtim in one telling of the story is Atra-Hasis, who create a boat loaded with one of each animal and waits for the flood to come, which is set to come on the seventh day. The coded use of the seventh day is a constant throughout the cult's system and implies completion or the end of a cycle. The earth is then reset and all humans except Utnapishtim/Atra-Hasis/Noah and his family are wiped out. It is from this incident that we get gods "promise" never to flood the world again. A covenant that is symbolised by the rainbow, and thus we have the 7 Noahide Laws. This can be linked to the symbol of the rainbow as the visible light spectrum which human beings perceive as reality. This is a tiny fraction within the already tiny fraction that is the electromagnetic spectrum. As author David Icke says "we can see barely anything darling!". With this in mind it is my belief that the biblical flood was an electromagnetic flood of the brain, that shut down the pineal gland and limited humanity to the tiny bandwidth that we live in today. We are living under the rainbow, with the pot of gold (Golden Age) on the other side. It is my belief that this is all symbolic of the dialling down of our perceptions into what some would call the simulation or the Matrix. I believe that we were once able to see, hear and communicate with these entities that are still all around us today, in parallel dimension just outside visible light. These are not gods, these are inter-dimensional entities like us who have blinded us into compliance.

THE USE of the rainbow by messianic sects such as Chabad Lubavitch use it to symbolise a transition over into their new world where they, not us, will have access to the powers of perception that is the birth right of us all. I believe that the most pure Black Nobility bloodlines have a type of DNA that still allows them to communicate with these entities, and they are terrified of them. This would be what the Christians call demons, the gnostic call Archons and those of the Islamic faith call Iblis. These are not gods but energetic entities that live just outside our visible light spectrum that want us to believe they are gods. I believe that we are all "god" collectively and still have that connection to source, which we tapped into when we create. We are the ones that create things here on earth, but these entities control the Black Nobility bloodlines who in turn control the secret societies who then pass the commands down to the politicians who impose it on the people. Most of those in the pyramid of control, that has been exposed for decades by the likes of David Icke in his twenty plus books spanning thirty plus years, will not have a clue where these commands are coming from. This is why I believe the Black Nobility bloodlines and those closest to the inner core of the cult still perform Satanic rituals. These rituals open up doorways and portal to these entities and we have come to a time when they want to allow these entities into our world on a more permanent basis, housed inside the shell of technology, powered by artificial intelligence and quantum computing. But this is not an original concept, an earlier piece of technology that I believe could reach into other realities was the Ark of The Covenant.

TALKING To The Gods

The Ark of the Covenant appears to have been a serious bit of kit that could only be used by those with specific DNA profiles. These profiles can be carried through bloodlines, perhaps the most pure of the Black Nobility families. The Ark was also known as the Ark of The Testament as well as the Ark of God. This was a physical chest like unit which held the most sacred objects of the Israelites. The Ark was said to have been created according to instructions given to Moses by their god on Mount Sinai (Sin-A.I) where he appeared as a burning bush. My believe is that this burning bush was some sort of electrical transmission or arc that allowed communication with an entity in a parallel reality to ours. In essence what the character described as "Moses" was looking through was a portal. Inside the ark was kept a pot of manna (monatomic gold) as well as the Tablets of the Law which contained the Ten Commandments and the Rod of Aaron. Aaron was a high priest and brother of Moses, he became the first high priest of the Israelites. At the command of his younger brother Moses, Aaron let his rod be turned into a snake which he then used to bring on the first three plagues. So a nice couple of lads these two, must have been a giggle at their house. Moses appears to have been a composite character and again we are talking about archetypes here. The story of Moses being set adrift in a basket was taken from the back story of King Sargon of Akkad. A Neo-Assyrian text from the 7th Century BC described King Sargon's childhood story as follows:

"My mother was a high priestess, my father I knew not. The brothers of my father loved the hills. My city is Azupiranu, which is situated on the banks of the Euphrates. My high priestess mother conceived me, in secret she bore me. She set me in a basket of rushes, with bitumen she sealed my lid. She cast me into the river which rose over me. The river bore me up and carried me to Akki, the drawer of water. Akki, the drawer of water, took me as his son and reared me. Akki, the drawer of water, appointed me as his gardener. While I was a gardener, Ishtar granted me her love, and for four and ... years I exercised kingship" (5)

SO WHAT WE HAVE HERE is a clear copy and paste from the back story of King Sargon onto the back story of Moses, the same cut and paste from Utnapishtim to Noah. These are just a couple of examples of the cut and paster nature of the biblical texts as they stand today. But this does not mean these Abrahamic narratives are not full of symbolic truths, and it is my belief that the Ark of the Covenant that was built from blueprints given to the Moses character on Mount Sinai, is a description of some sort of technology that would allow the user to gain access to the electrical universe outside the limited visible light spectrum. It was a technology that could open up portals or star gates and functioned much like the Satanic rituals still used today. The Ark of the Covenant could not be used by just anyone, it is believed that this fancy bit of communications technology could only be used by those with a special DNA profile or bloodline. These bloodlines became known as the Lost Tribes of Isreal within the biblical text. But it was a specific tribe called the Koathites that were given the task of transporting and handling the Ark of the Covenant. The Koathites were one of the four main divisions among the Levites in Biblical times, so they were a compartmentalised sect within the Levites. The Bible claims that the Koathites were the descendants of Koath (Kehath) who was the second son of Levi, who in turn was the son of Jacob and Leah. Jacob was the son of Isaac who tricked his brother Esau out of his birth right, and later took on the name of Israel. The Koathites could only transport the Ark using poles and were prevented from unlawfully touching or looking at the items inside the golden box. These guys cared for and protected the Ark and its contents on their travels. The Ark and its contents were covered by

"special cloths" and "Skins" to protect the Koathites. It was the high priest who were allowed into the Holy of Holies when the later temple of Solomon was built. This happened once a year on the Day of Atonement called Yom Kippur. They sprinkled the mercy seat with the blood of a sacrifice which would allow the high priests to sit on the mercy seat without getting fried, whilst having a chat with one of these entities from beyond the veil. The brother of Moses, Aaron was the first high priest of the Israelites, so it stands to reason that Moses, Aaron and their bloodline descendants were able to speak with this entity in another reality. Remember this is the same bit of commutations kit that Donald Trump has a replica of in his Mar-a-Lago home. Trump is a follower of the messianic Chabad Lubavitch sect who seek to build the third temple on Temple Mount in Jerusalem. It appears these lot are playing out the biblical end times "Prophecies" in real-time.

I WOULD BE LYING if I said I had all of this figure out but the running themes are clear. There exist specific bloodlines that are able to communicate with the entities in parallel realities using this ancient technology. Perhaps these bloodlines have not been completely shut down by the Anunnaki like the rest of humanity? The story says that when the Anunnaki flooded the world, a chosen bloodline was saved by Enki and I believe that these Black Nobility bloodlines (some we may never have heard of) at least believe themselves to be the descents of that these hybrids. The equivalent of the Ark of the Covenant in today's world would be artificial intelligence combined with quantum computers connected through a portal or black hole. Could it be that the Large Hadron Collider (LHC) in Geneva on the border of France-Switzerland is able to create portals into worlds beyond our visible light spectrum? An 2007 (the 7 again) article in the New Scientist said that the LHC at Cern, which was being built at the time, may have given birth to black holes. The article describes how the atom smasher may give birth to "Black Saturns"

"If we ever make black holes on Earth, they might be much stranger objects than the star-swallowing monsters known to exist in space. According to a new theory, any black hole that pops out of the Large Hadron Collider under construction in Switzerland might be surrounded by a black ring – forming a microscopic "black Saturn". (6)

A BLACK SATURN can co exists with a black ring as long as they are set spinning. As of 2007 it seems that no black Saturns could exist in our 3D World, but the article suggested that they might exist at a microscope level in a controlled environment. Could the guys at CERN be using something like a black Saturn as an open doorway into a parallel world, the same parallel worlds that the High Priest were tapping into with the Ark of the Covenant? As crazy as this may sound, all we need to do is take a look at the logo for Elon Musk's Grok to see that this is a black Saturn hole. A black Saturn hole is allegedly theoretical because it requires high dimensions, but what if that is the entire point of a black Saturn hole, to tap into a higher dimension? A key component of a black Saturn hole is its tilt, which I have termed the Black Saturn Tilt. This tilt when combined with the spinning motion of the black surrounding ring is what keeps the hole from collapsing. As I suggested earlier, could it be that Elon is telling us with his new wider X Logo that they have managed to keep a Black Saturn hole open for longer? Or even been able to make it large enough to pass a human being through?

THEORETICAL SOLUTION: In higher-dimensional physics, a "Black Saturn" is a hypothetical object consisting of a spherical black hole orbited by a black ring, with angular momentum holding the system in equilibrium.

ARE CERN CREATING a technological version of what the Ark of the Covenant was able to do thousands of years ago once it was stored in the Temple of Solomon? whatever truth to that allegory there might be. Is this why the death cult is so obsessed with building a third temple on Temple Mount today, which would mean destroying the Al-Aqsa Mosque of the Islamic faith that is there right now. Remember the energy of the temple (if there ever was one) would still be stored in the electromagnetic atmosphere at that location, so a portal would be super-charged by that plasma energy. Also we have the mass genocide of the people of Gaza by the Israeli government, this would act as an energy sacrifice to the gods which would help draw that demonic energy up to Temple Mount. As of this writing my best theory is that they are going to use these Black Saturns combined with quantum computers and artificial intelligence as the Smart Beast System that will broadcast the message from the entities from the temple to the rest of the world. And we haven't even started talking about how the new human might be hardwired into the smart grid straight from birth. Are they seeking to make sure all future version of what might be classed as "human" will be born plugged in? I might not have the specifics right, but I do believe I have the basic's down. I believe I at least have the blueprint of what these lunatics plan to do in the very near future. In fact hiphop artist Jay-Z even released his most famous album 'The Black Album' on September 11th 2001, the day the Twin Towers of Jachin and Boaz in New York were brought down.

THEY ALWAYS TELL YOU, they have to.

THE GOD THEY FEAR

We have briefly touched upon the god that this death cult fears in the first chapter but I want to expand on this character now. First off let's remind ourselves not to get too hung up on specific names but to go deeper and understand that what we are talking about is an archetype or blueprint of a character in a story arc. For instance we have the example of the heroes journey as a narrative archetype, and the all American hero as a personified archetype. In this case we are looking at the archetype/blueprint that I will call the "Evil Creator God". This evil creator god archetype can be seen in most Hollywood movies. We have the Architect in the Matrix Movies, Megatron in the Transformers movies or Christof (Christ-of) who is the creator of the reality TV show in the Truman Show. They are often portrait as an older or elderly man with a white beard. This image of an older man with a white beard reaches into your psyche and pulls out the archetype of Cronus, The Demiurge, Satan, Saturn, Old Father Time and many more. This is a legacy being, an immortal being in the sense that the main blueprint has been programmed into the human psyche over thousands of years, perhaps by the real evil creator god outside of this construct?

THIS EVIL CREATOR god is the god that the death cult is terrified to meet at the end of their life here as a human being. It is my belief that every single human being knows right from wrong and good from evil, yet in the case of a sociopath or psychopath they might not give a toss, but they still know the difference. So when these dark occultists are called to the next world, they know that they will have to face what they have done here on earth on way or another. I actually believe that we are not judged by an external creator being but your own conscience, and this happens the moment you do something you know you should not even in this reality. Even the sociopath knows the going on a bit of a murder spree on a Thursday night is an evil thing to do, the terrifying thing is they just don't care. The chemicals in their brain have short circuited and the feeling of gut wrenching guilt doesn't reach the nerves endings. But what if the moment they leave this body all of those chemical feeling come in a rush, flooding back to them where they have to experience all the harm they caused to others? This is actually a concept explored in a short story called 'The Penultimate Trump' by the father of Cyronics Robert Ettinger (7) which was released in 1948. Then you have those who know they have done evil deeds but spend their waking moments trying to convince themselves that it was for the greater good of humanity, I believe this is the psychology of many of those within the global cult. Perhaps the likes of Donald Trump believe they have done the right thing for humanity in the long run by giving the genocidal lunatic Prime Minister of Israel over 4 billion in military funds in March of 2025, which was spent murdering thousands of Palestinians and even Christians in Gaza to forward this messianic agenda. But deep down Trump, Putin, The Rothschilds, British Royal Family, Black Nobility, Bill Gates, George Soros, The Rockefellers and a legion more can only lie to themselves for so long. At the end of the end of their days they all fear the reaper and time is ticking.

SATURN By Many Names

Much has been written about the entity known as Cronus and I would highly recommend David Icke's epic book 'The Perception Deception' (8) for the incredible connections between the various incarnations of this archetype. For those who are new to this information I will lay out some of the ground work that has already been done by the likes of David Icke, Jordan Maxwell and David Talbott with his book 'The Saturn Myth' (9). Another fascinating book I would highly recommend on this subject is 'The Saturn Death Cult' (10) by Troy D McLachlan who I have interviewed on my Classified show that you can find on ickonic.com. First we must establish that there were once two Prime Sun's that governed our Skys according to many researchers. This was the Golden Age, a time of alleged abundance and peace when Saturn was our prime sun. I say a time of alleged abundance and peace because it is my belief that this was a time when human beings were kept in line and complied with the gods, and the only real peace was theirs. The Golden Age of Saturn was a time when the earth was covered with a light purple mist. This mist allowed plants, trees and their fruits to become abundant than they are today. This time could also be the same time that the Garden of Eden stories are attempting to convey. All was well until those pesky human beings who were created by the Annunaki God Enki started to make too much noise and interbreed with the gods, creating Demi-gods such as Gilgamesh. When the little rascals got too loud and boisterous and began to eat the forbidden fruit from the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, then it was time for another great rest.

HOW ABOUT A FLOOD? Which may have been a physical flood in the physical sense or a psychological flood that shut the human body down and trapped its perception within the visible light spectrum, or both. This Golden Age before the flood (that may have been caused by the planet Saturn going for a walk around the galaxy) was governed by Saturn. So it stands to reason that when Donald Trump invokes a "New Golden Age" for the United States, he is conjuring up the rule of Saturn who is the evil creator god. David Icke writes in 'The Perception Deception' "Saturn is consciousness, an Awareness or entity that can be worshipped as a 'god' and Saturn is an expression of the Demiurge (Satan, the Devil, Lucifer)". The personification of Saturn embodies discipline, responsibility, structure and the passage of time. He enforces laws and consequences for those who do not follow those laws. Saturn was known as the 'Dark Sun' which would be in contrast to the Egyptian Sun God Ra. In Ancient Egypt Ra represented creation, light and cycle of rebirth. You can clearly see how these characteristics are placed upon anything that is connected to the entity. This is essentially ancient alchemy and the use of sympathetic magic. Sympathetic magic is an old alchemical teaching that means that if you create something that resembles something else it will vibrationally take on the 'powers' of that which it resembles. For instance a Black Saturn hole which is the bases for Elon Musk's Grok Logo takes on the characteristics of Saturn/Cronus who ate his own children, much like a black hole does to anything gets too close to it, like a massive Hoover. This point of no return is known as the event horizon, the word horizon coming from the Egyptian god Horus. He was the son of Osiris who was murdered by his brother Seth (Set) who was in turn killed by Horus who was avenging his father's murder. These mythologies are encoding the true nature of reality and the cult knows how to use them to manipulate us. This is what it is all about, these are the secrets of the universe and how it works.

THE FACT is that there's clearly a design and structure to this place, whether you call it a Matrix, Simulation or nature. It has clearly and unavoidably been designed by some intelligence whatever that might be. Mainstream Science has been trying to convince you that you and I are just happy accidents, and in some cases if your mum and dad got all pissed up on a Friday night in the early 80's that might be true at one level. But the truth is that none of this is by accident, it is clearly designed. Now what the purpose of this design is and who or what designed it is up to you to conclude. One of the most prominent creator god archetypes is the gnostic Demiurge also known as Yaldabaoth. Gnosis means knowledge and this is the same knowledge of the nature of reality that humans were forbidden from accessing in the Garden of Eden story. The gnostics believed the reason these gods did not want us to have this knowledge is that they were terrified of humanity surpassing them and taking over the place. Remember Cronus used to eat his own children in fear of them eventually killing him. The Gnostics were an early Christian sect and much of their belief system was based on the work of the Greek philosopher Plato, whose allegory of the cave was the inspiration for the Matrix movies. Try to discuss the gnostics or the simulation theory with an Orthodox Christian and they often lose their minds, calling you a devil worshipper or a Pagan (which means rural). This is because they have been indoctrinated to believe that it was a sin to eat from the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, when the gnostics believe the inversion of this. You can see how these two ways of seeing reality can be easily played off against each other, causing a nice bit of chaos for the cult to manipulate. The Gnostics are said to have believed that we have been trapped in this reality by Yaldabaoth, and that this place is an energy farm that powers the kingdom of the gods through low vibrational energies such as fear, hate and envy. They called him the 'false god' who created the material universe as a corrupt copy of prime reality as a prison for divine sparks. We saw this theme in the Monsters Inc series where the monsters realm was powered by the screams of the children. Again let's come back to the fact that this is an archetype, a blueprint of a character that is an evil fake god who vampires your energy after transforming it into dark energy by causing you fear and anxiety. In the Matrix movies the character Morpheus tells Neo that human beings are used as batteries to power the world outside of the Matrix. I would suggest that they could have added that human beings are transformers of energy, able to take that pure energy and transform it into something negative or positive, depending on the level of consciousness of the person. My personal belief is that this realm is only a trap if you believe it to be, and that we can change it from within into something positive, kind of like a reversal of Sabbateanism and Satanism. My belief is that if they can turn something positive into something negative by Sabbatean infiltration and Satanic inversion, then we can do the opposite. So these lunatics spend their days worshipping this evil creator god character in fear of what he might do to them if they don't, and they do this by constantly showing their allegiance to him in signs, symbols, words, colours and codes that produce the energetic loosh that these dark occults believe will satiate their god.

SATURN ROSICRUCIAN COSMOS

Those who do this research often hear about the cults plans to return us to a "Golden Age" which we know is a reference to the Golden Age of Saturn. The Golden Age of Saturn was said to have been a time of complete abundance and a state of perfection. Some researchers believe that this relates to the physical planet of Saturn, which they say was our original sun before the sun we know today. From this material perspective this was a time before Saturn gained its rings, and a time when Saturn's energies caused earth and all of its inhabitants to live under a purple haze. But there is also another concept which I have only recently begun to get to grips with, due to the fantastic work of Wayne McRoy of the Alchemical Tech Revolution. His latest book 'The Enoch Polarity And The End Of Time' (11) starts by laying out the basic foundations of the Rosicrucian Cosmo Conception often talked about by Rudolf Steiner. It is called 'The Pilgrimage Of The Virgin Spirits' or 'The 777 Incarnations' and the basic format of their structure goes like this. There are seven spheres that represent all of the ages that humanity will progress through in time. These can be seen as days of the week if you like. Within each of the seven spheres are seven more spheres that match the overall seven (so above as below). In the words of Run DMC it goes a little something like this:

THE SEVEN SPHERES OF TIME: (not a reference to the physical planets)

1. Saturn
2. Sun
3. Moon
4. Earth
5. Jupiter
6. Venus
7. Vulcan

WITHIN EACH OF those seven spheres of time you have the same seven spheres. So for example, within Saturn you would have all seven going anti clockwise within. The concept in its most simple form is that humanity started off in Saturn and then "fell" through the Sun and Moon stages (levels of density) and arrived in the Earth stage, which is the 4th stage and where we are right now. Within that 4th Earth Stage the Rosicrucians believe we are in the 4th mini sphere, which is again Earth. So to keep it simple, we are now in Sphere 4 Earth, at the Earth point, which is about half way through the cycle. The Rosicrucians believed we stepped down through the levels of density, from the lightest form in Saturn, travelling down through the Sun, then the Moon and now we exist in the lowest form of dense matter which is earth. But humanity has begun its incline towards Jupiter, coming up from the 4th sphere of Earth and heading towards Jupiter, the 5th sphere. This means our connection to other realms is clearing. The best way to picture the decline to incline path is like this:

DECLINE DOWN Through The Density Levels

1. Saturn
2. Sun
3. Moon
4. Earth - The base level (most dense)

INCLINE Up Through The Density Levels

1. Jupiter
2. Venus
3. Vulcan

It is this "awakening" to Jupiter's sphere that the dark occultists want to hijack and reroute us into what Rudolf Steiner called the "Eighth Sphere". This is an empty shell or container which is created artificially. Wayne believes this is what the Transhumanist and Technocrats are attempting to do with artificial intelligence, the internet of all things and quantum computers. I know this may be hard to follow (trust me it took me a while to get my head around it) so I highly recommend Wayne McRoy's new book mentioned above, as well as 'The Rosicrucian Cosmo Conception' by Max Heindel, which is incredibly in depth and goes deep into this explanation of the nature of reality and our existence within it. If we look at Saturn within the Rosicrucian Cosmo model, a return to the Golden Age of Saturn would mean a return to the start and the least dense form of matter. To me this sounds like a great reset or the singularity, and a time when everything is collapsed back into one and started again. This is why it is so important to know what system the individual occultists is working with when trying to decipher what they mean with their coded language. If they set us back to Saturn it would mean that we would not evolve through Jupiter, Venus and onto Vulcan. After which we would naturally returned to Saturn as completely different beings than we were when we last existed in Saturn, It would be a devolution of man not an evolution. At the same time the technocrats want to hijack that natural evolution cycle and direct it themselves from their eighth sphere, or what Wayne McRoy calls "The World of Shells". There are so many concepts of what this reality is, and I am not telling you which one to follow. I am investigating which ones the cult are following and how, so that we can stop these nutters before they blow us all up.

Sign Your Name Across Your Heart

The death cult display their allegiance to their all seeing evil creator god any chance they get. Some of the more obvious symbols of Saturn are the Star of David which is really the Seal of Solomon. Some researchers have connected it through the Magi to the Star of Remphan, the bible says:

Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon. (Acts 7:43)

THIS SIX POINTED star has become world famous due to it being put on the flag of modern day Israel. The country of Israel was handed over to the cult at the urging of the Rothschild banking family as a strategic location for the cult to slowly invade the surrounding countries, all in line with their Messianic agenda. The Star on the flag of Israel sits between two blue stripes that represent the two rivers The Nile and Euphrates. Of course those in the cult won't tell you that but it's pretty blatant. The blue represents the protection of the female aspect of their godhead who is Shekhinah, the female counterpart of Yahweh. Together they combine to create an androgynous god head in the Temple of Solomon, having it off in the Tabernacle (I am not kidding). In fact in their "world to come" all human beings will be born as androgynous beings who cannot procreate without technology. This is why the Noahide rainbow has been used to represent gay and LGBTQ communities. Another key symbol of Saturn is the black cube, which on one level resents the limited light spectrum that we have been locked into. This is our reality, as perception is everything, so I was amused to see that when Queen Elizabeth II died and her procession pulled up outside Buckingham Palace there were two huge rainbows arching their way across the sky. Those in attendance likely had no idea that what they were seeing was an occult symbol representing the gods promising never to flood the world again. The double rainbow was a confirmation of this covenant, this is the arch/ark of the covenant. This could have been a "natural" phenomenon or some ARPA created weather modification. There is an official painting of Queen Elizabeth I called the 'Elizabeth Rainbow Portrait' that was painted by artist Isaac Oliver (1556-1617). In the painting Queen Elizabeth is holding a rainbow in her right hand.

THIS IS a clear continuation of the covenant that these bloodlines believe they have with their gods. They believe they are the chosen ones and that they can trace their family lineage back to the Lost Tribes of Israel. The Lost Tribes are said to be the descendants of Adam and Eve via Noah and Jacob who changed his name to Israel. Of course there is plenty of evidence that the stories of Noah and his survival of the flood were lifted from much older mythologies, but remember this is sympathetic magic. By mimicking and taking on the narrative and stories of these mythological characters they believe they can become them and take on their divine nature. I also believe that something in the DNA of these black nobility and Papal nobility bloodlines makes it easier for entities outside our visible light spectrum to possess them. I will come back to this later but let's just say check out the Kate Middleton and Lady Diana in their Rosemarys Baby dress' and you will get the picture of what we will come to later on. But let's get back to the Black Cube shall we? Much has been written by some excellent researchers through the years about how important the black cube is to this cult. I will briefly outline some of these examples here and then attempt to add my own researcher which spills over into the quantum computing world. For a comprehensive dive into the symbology of Saturn I highly recommend David Icke's 'The Biggest Secret' and 'The Perception Deception'. The black cube of Saturn can be found in the Islamic religion with the giant Kaaba at Mecca, this is a big old black cube and it is no coincidence that Muslims are told to circle the Kaaba seven times, seven being the number of completion before the reset are everything.

This ritual is called Tawaf and is a fundamental right of their pilgrimages. The followers do this seven times in a counter clockwise direction so it seems to me that the individual is drawn into the rings of Saturn which perhaps symbolises a reversal of time. This is all symbolic and it beggars belief that Muslim do not see that the Jewish Tefilin is the exact same thing, they are both symbols of Saturn.

THE CHRISTIAN CROSS is also a symbol of Saturn (folded into a cube) which would make sense since the Holy Roman Church is really the cult of Babylon after it relocated and branched out. The Roman's were mainly polytheistic before their Emperor Constantine converted to Christianity (allegedly) on his death bed. As David Icke points out in book 'The Biggest Secret' Constantine would have had no problem with this because he knew that nothing had changed except the names of the characters. He was still worshiping his unconquered Sun Saturn Sol Invictus. In fact in a hilarious bit of slap stick nonsense it is alleged that Constantine's mum Saint Helena discovered the remains of the true cross of Jerusalem, which was said to have been the cross that Jesus was crucified on. Much of the mythology of Jesus was lifted from much older stories such as Horus and Tammuz whose birthdays just happened to have been on the 25th December. This was also the case with Sol Invictus. Clearly these are the same archetypes, this is because Constantine knew they were worshiping a blueprint of energy personified, so it didn't matter what they called it, he knew where his attention was going. Today we have giant black cubes all over the place, including outside the Brown-Brothers Harriman HQ which is the oldest US private bank. Donald Trump has a large black cube on top of one of his buildings in Istanbul. These are a set of conjoined towers with a black cube of Saturn sitting nicely at the top, the twin towers being a symbol of Jachin and Boaz which are the twin pillars that stood outside the Temple of Solomon. One of the lesser known examples of the use of the Saturn black cube can be found in the name of a private intelligence agency based in London, Madrid and Tel Aviv. Black Cube (BC Strategy Ltd) was founded in 2010 by former Israeli intelligence officers Dan Zorella and Avi Yanis. Black Cube has supported the operations of the IDF. Black Cube is said to provide intelligence, evidence and advisory services for "white collar crime cases". They have been criticised for not following ethical rules, which I am sure shocks absolutely nobody. On May 21 2021.cbc.ca/news reported that a former Canadian ambassador to Israel had worked for black cube after her diplomatic tenure ended (12). The CBC website reported that Vivian Bercovici had sent a message to a potential Black Cube client saying that she "can provide a wide range of services, such as undercover surveillance, finding hidden information about third parties' personal lives and tracing bank accounts and assets". Other companies who pledge their allegiance to the black cube of Saturn include Black Rock, a global investment firm that is said to be the world's largest asset manager. This is a giant Satanic corporation and they have to use these symbols so that the energy they siphon from the public flows in the direction of their evil creator god.

ANOTHER EXAMPLE of Saturn worship comes in the Sigil of Saturn. This Sigil is formed from the connecting of the numbers of something called 'The Magic Square of Saturn'. The square contains the numbers 1-9, inside 9 individual squares. All lines of this flat square add up to 15 which when added together in numerology comes out as 6. Since there are three lines of numbers, in each direction this adds up to 666 on every side, which is the number of the beast. When you trace the numbers in numerical order from 1-9 through with a single line this creates the shape that is called the Sigil of Saturn. What many will not know is that this shape can be found at the heart of the Balmoral Crest, which is the Scottish castle of the Windsor Royals. A few years back myself and Gareth Icke went to Balmoral with a film crew to film our series The Walk (ickonic.com) and it was an extremely eery place. We were not allowed into the main grounds of course because we would have just pissed on the daisies, but we did track up the huge stone pyramid that sits at the top of a hill in the surrounding woods. There are several smaller "cairns" that you pass on the way up the hill, but they are tiny in comparison to this monstrous pyramid that looks over the entire wooded area. The stone was commissioned by Queen Victoria in memory of her husband Prince Albert. So grief stricken was she when he came to face his own judgement day that she retreated from public view and wore black for the rest of her life (Jonny Cash probably copied her). There is absolutely no way that the elderly queen made her way up those hills to see the pyramid, so there must be a tunnel leading to it, perhaps what we are actually seeing is just the tip of an obelisk? which is a monument to the Egyptian god Osiris. An Obelisk is symbolic of the bloodline of these interbreeding chaps, perhaps hybrids? and can be found in the City of London and New York (Cleopatra's Needles). We also have one in St Peter's Square at the Vatican and the Luxor Obelisk in Paris, which has a twin still standing in Egypt. The cult have thread this needle throughout the world and have their monument's to their evil creator god hidden in plain sight in the City of London (Baby-London), Washington DC (once named Rome Maryland) and the Vatican.

SATURN'S QUANTUM Computer

Now that we have established the basics of some of the symbols these lunatic use to feed human energy back to their god, let's try and break some new ground and look into how this is all manifesting in the world today. Whilst Quantum Computers can be housed in a square unit (Cube of Saturn) it is often for aesthetic reasons (allegedly). That being said, the shape of something in the correct context will bring with it the energies of that which it is seeking to replicate. This is called the Law of correspondence or so above as below. The D Wave

Quantum computer is housed in a large black cube, inside that black cube is a beehive like structure. If you take a look at an IBM quantum computer the first thing you will see is that it looks incredibly like a beehive, or a hive mind. These technologies are not created to look like this by accident, they even tell you in the IBM logo. They have replaced the 'B' in IBM with an actual symbol of a bee. Here is an explanation of how the D Wave Quantum Computer works:

D-Wave quantum computers work by using quantum annealing to solve optimisation problems by encoding the problem into the energy levels of superconducting qubits and then allowing the system to find its lowest energy state, which corresponds to the best solution. The process involves placing the qubits in superposition, gradually introducing interactions between them that represent the problem, and then reading the final configuration of the qubits after they settle into their lowest energy state.

THIS TECHNOLOGY REQUIRES EXTREMELY low temperatures, specialised shielding and superconductors to maintain the incredibly delicate quantum state of the Quantum Bits (Q-Bits). These quantum's can be in two places at one time, meaning that they can work on multiple problems simultaneously, some might say they function in parallel universes. A quick Look into the background of IBM will tell you that this company worked alongside the Nazi's to provide the technology for the prison camps that allowed the Nazi's to use their punch card technology for national consensus data, military logistics and concentration camp capacity. In short IBM provided the technology that allowed the prison camps to function. I highly recommend the book 'IBM and The Holocaust' by Edwin Black (13) for more information about this. IBM were also a key backer of a young Bill Gates and his company Microsoft. It was Bill Gates mother Mary Gates who leveraged her relationship with IBM Chairman John Opel, as they were connected through the Unity Way Board. So here we have a company (IBM) that had a key role in the holocaust, helping out a young Bill Gates meaning that he would always be beholden to them. It is my belief that one of these quantum computers will be housed in the newly built third temple on Temple Mount in Jerusalem. This will be combined with artificial intelligence to create what you and I would likely call the "beast system". From the temple the cult will broadcast its signal straight into the minds of whatever humanity looks like any that time, temple to temple. At the heart of all quantum computers sits a quantum chip. Although these vary depending in terms of the exact implementation and technology, they all function as the main processor responsible for manipulating the q-bits that perform quantum computations. These are often black squares embedded in the centre of the beehive like structure of the quantum computer. One of the more prominent quantum chips is the "Willow" chip, which is a state of the art quantum chip made by Google. If you look at the leaves of the willow tree it looks incredibly like the data streams that pour down in the matrix movies. On 12th June 2025 the founder of Google Quantum AI Hartmut Neven announced on blog.google 'Meet Willow our state-of-the-art quantum chip' (14). He even has his own law named after him, Neven's Law states that "The performance of quantum computers improves at a doubly exponential rate". In the blog Hartmut Neven claims that the new Willow chip performed a benchmark computation in under five minutes. This same computation would have taken one of the world's fastest computers 10 Septillion years to do, which is a number they say vastly exceeds the age of our universe. Although these people have no idea how "old" our universe is or the nature of reality itself. Mr Neven writes that when he founded Google Quantum AI in 2012 he wanted to build a "useful large-scale quantum computer that could harness quantum machines - the "operating system" of nature to the extent that we know it". What an utterly fascinating way to put it "the operating system of nature". This would be the alchemical principles of how this place work then?

GOOGLE IS an agent of Alphabet which also owns the Saturn named X Development company. X Development is doing business as X (formerly Google X) which is an American semi-secret research and development facility. The official story says that they aim to create "moonshot" technologies in order to make the world a radically better place... sure they do. Google X has also produced products such as Google glasses, self driving cars, and even Smart contact lenses. For Mr Neven to be placed in the position of leading research into Quantum Computing at Google, it stands to reason that he would be well in the know of where these technologies are really coming from, the Deep Underground Bases' (DUMBS) that exist all over the world. These quantum computers could have been the processing core of the Ark of The Covenant. What If they can use the computational problem solving power of q-bits to solve the issue of getting a black Saturn hole to stay open long enough to allow something in from a parallel reality? Once that "something" is in our reality the cult might seek to trap it in the shell of a Willow chip. This could then be given a "persona" that the cult would market as a god, or perhaps an Annunaki or Elohim. Sounds ridiculous? perhaps, but is this not simply a technological version of what occultist Aleister Crowley mapped out with his Babalon Working Ritual? This is the same ritual that was conducted by Crowley acolytes L Ron Hubbard and rocket scientist Jack Parsons in 1946 in California. This ritual was an attempt to open up a portal to allow in the whore of Babalon and house it in a foetus that acted as shell. Some researchers believe that this ritual was also performed at the Trinity nuclear testing site in New Mexico on July 16th 1945. Another name for this entity was the Moonchild, which was a novel written by Crowley in 1917. This story was later updated to become Rosemarys Baby, which leads us back to the photographs of Kate Middleton and Princess Diana wearing the crimson Rosemarys Baby dress when presenting one of their newborns to the world. Have these Black Nobility bloodlines been trying to create a vessel for this entity from another world? and if so, are they now using modern technology instead of the energetic rituals of the likes of Crowley? There is much more to know about Rosemarys Baby and The Moonchild and how it all connects into what I believe to be the back magic of Jeffery Epstein. Are they building a shell for their evil creator god? and have they been following its demands all along? Were many of those black budget operations about creating technologies (shells) to house this entity? Perhaps that is the true meaning behind the Messiah walking through the golden gate? these are symbolised throughout the world by the Golden Arches of McDonalds. Old McDonald did indeed have a farm, a loosh farm by the looks of it!

REMINDS Me Of An X

Before we get into Elon Musk and his obsession with the letter X, let's have a look at how this symbol has been used to vibrationally connect us into Saturns energy for thousands of years. The symbol of the X and the Christian Cross are one and the same in many belief systems. We have the cross that is made by the sun when it sets over a body water, this is where we get the notion that "Jesus" could walk on water. Also encoded in this example are the characters of Set and Horus as in sunset and horizon. Set was the brother of Osiris, who was the first king of Egypt. It was Set who murdered his brother Osiris who was then avenged by his son Horus, making Horus the son of god. This is where the virgin birth mythology comes from, or at least it is one of the many sources. Horus was conceived when the wife of the now dead Osiris, who was Isis, reassembled Osiris and used his golden penis to impregnate herself. This golden penis of Osiris is symbolised by the Obelisks found at the Vatican, City of London and Washington DC. The act of a virgin birth can also be found in the gnostic story of Sophia and the Demiurge. Again we can come back to what I call blueprints, these are archetype characteristics that speak to the sub-conscious that energetically connects to signs and symbols. Think of it this way, if you wanted to create a new superhero in a computer game, one that would be the king of the superheroes, then you would pick the best powers that are available from the examples of previous superheroes, combining them together to create something new from what is old. This is alchemy, it is the art of manipulating energies. This is exactly what I believe has happened with characters such as Jesus, Moses and Noah. This does not negate the truth at the core of these allegories or the universal lessons, but in my opinion they are not historical moments in time. Speaking of superheroes we have the X-Men, who are a band of mutant beings that have been genetically engineered with a special "X-gene" which they then pass down their bloodline. In genetics it is the female that carries the XX gene combination while the male carries a XY combination. This is significant because in Jewish law you are considered "Jewish" if two generations on your mother's side were Jewish, so your mother and grandmother. Yes, it is absolute nonsense in that Jewish is a faith and not a race, but I feel that this has more to do with carrying a specific gene than anything in reality. What I mean by that is that this Jewish law is symbolic of their belief that some of them are literally a different race from the goyim (non-Jewish person). Of course this nonsense is behind the belief they are the descendants of the Tribes of Israel. A belief system has been purposely conflated (alchemically mixed) with a genetic link these biblical gods or god. The X gene symbolism echoes the cults belief that they are the descendants of the line of Abraham who descended from Noah. Yet we know that Noah did not exist and that the flood storyline was lifted from the Epic of Gilgamesh. Yet these lunatics go on killing tens of thousands of people in Gaza, it boggles the mind. At the very top of these bloodlines, which I believe to be the Venetian and Papal Black Nobility, it seems they do believe they are the descendants of the "gods" that once ruled over Sumer and Babylon.

WHEN YOU RESEARCH into eugenics then it won't be long until you find a link to the X symbol. Thomas Huxley was known as "Darwins Bulldog" because he was such a rabid supporter of Dawkins theories. He was also the grandfather of Aldous Huxley, who wrote Brave New World and tutored a young George Orwell (Eric Arthur Blair). Thomas Huxley's other grandson and brother to Aldous, was eugenicist Julian Huxley. It was Julian who was sold as being the man that managed to rebrand eugenics after the Nazi's kind of spoilt the name during World War 2. The new term that he chose for eugenics was "Transhumanism". His explanation for the new term was:

"We need a name for this new belief. Perhaps transhumanism will serve: man remaining man, but transcending himself, by realizing new possibilities of and for his human nature" (15)

THESE IDEAS ARE as old as the cult itself but Thomas Huxley played a crucial role in keeping this elitist mindset flowing into the minds of a new generation, which was then picked up by his grandson Julian. In 1864 Thomas Huxley set about creating his own private dining club which would include the elite of the Royal Society. The name he chose for this new exclusive club was "The X-Club". The X-Club would meet on the first Thursday of every month, just before the Royal Society meeting that took place close by. A conspiracy theorist might think that they were actually setting the agenda for that later meeting. Some of the members of this exclusive club were Herbert Spence (Sub editor of the Economist) William Spottiswoode (The Queens printer) and Thomas Hurst (Professor of Physics at University College London) all were Royal Society members. There were nine members of the club which was the number they agreed to limit it to. The X-Club eventually put their weight behind the Nature journal, for which many of the members wrote articles. It would seem that the peak of the X-Club was around 1873 -1885, but one quick look at the symbology used by todays transhumanist will tell you that it has never been as strong as it is today. Mr X himself, Elon Musk is a member of the Royal Society which spawned the X-Club through Thomas Huxley. Despite some members of the Royal Society calling for Musks resignation in 2025, he still remains a member after the Society refused to expel him. In my opinion the X-Club is alive and well and its frontman today is Elon Musk. Make no mistake about it, this is the techno-eugenics arm of the messianic death cult in 2025. You can see it all coming together before your eyes, with musk ushering in transhumanist technologies, whilst Palantir and Google, as well as many others including the British Ministry of Defence, roll out the artificial intelligence infrastructure. This is all part of the beast system. The magic cube of Saturn showed us that 666 is the mark of the beast, and according to the biblical narrative, this is the mark that a "human" must bare to be able to buy and sell in the new world (Digital ID). For those who refuse to take the mark of the beast they will suffer the following consequences:

"Those who refuse to take the mark will face severe consequences, including economic exclusion, persecution, and potentially death, as they will not be able to participate in the "economic life of the community". (16)

How's THAT digital ID and Universal Basic Income coming along Tony Blair and Keir Starmer? It is closing in at a rapid pace right now because thousands of people have fallen for this three step scam. Allow in illegal immigrants to the UK, foster tensions between natives and immigrants, play them off against each other the offer the solution which comes in the form of Digital ID cards. Don't forget to thank the likes of Tommy Robinson and his podcasting mates for inflaming the situation and blaming Muslims for everything that is bad about the country in 2025. I am writing this just days after the September march in the UK that saw tens of thousands of Brits hit the streets of the city of London. Personally I watched all this with mixed feelings. On the positive note there is a genuine issue with illegal immigration in the country (purposely done) but at its core it is really a well thought out and planned excuse for the UK Government to bring in digital ID's. My personal opinion is that Tommy knows exactly what his role is in the larger agenda and his consistent support for genocidal Israel backs this up. Even his podcasting mate Liam Tuffs security company is named Bauer Security, which is the original name of the Rothschilds. So it was no shock to see none other than Mr X himself Elon Musk beamed in via satellite onto a giant screen set up on the main stage, where he proceeded to tell those in attendance (whilst wearing a George Orwell T-Shirt) what they wanted to hear. Elon waffles on about freedom of speech whilst shadow banning everyone who is not given the nod by his Saudi handlers on the X platform. Musk then went on to gaslight those attending by talking about children and violence, calling the left the party of murder (after Charlie Kirk was murdered). Elon stirred the shit by saying "if this continues that violence will come to you, you will have no choice. You are in a fundamental situation where whether you choose violence or not, violence is going to you" (17). I mean, how can you be more guilty of inciting violence than actually calling for violence? Musk then went on to say "you either fight back or you die" ... pathetic. Remember Elon Musk funded Donald Trump, who then sent 4bn in military aid to Benjamin Netanyahu in March of 2025 so he could go on murdering more people in Gaza as part of this lunatic agenda to play out their biblical fantasies. Time to wake up folks, people of Britain you have been played and you are being led by pied pipers into a digital dystopia and it is happening right now. Tommy also put a tweet out on X calling for a christian get together on the 13th of December in London, the same day he knew that a protest against Digital IDs in the UK was taking place. This all makes sense when you realise his recent legal costs were paid by Elon Musk.

MR X

The sad thing is, I think Elon would love the title of this section of Chapter 2. In a way I feel bad for him as he has clearly been emotionally hurt by the push and pull between his parents. Put it this way, if one parent (father) was telling you that you are a piece of shit and the other (mother) was telling you that you were a genius all the while you are dealing with the issues of having Aspergers Syndrome, who do you think you would choose to believe? The sad fact is that like Greta Thunberg who is also on the autistic spectrum, Elon has been used and abused by this cult on a scale that is hard to imagine. After a lifetime of confusion who would not want to believe they are playing a Demi-god like divine role in some sort of Marvel reality superhero movie. This is simply tapping into the blueprint of the hero's journey. Remember Elon is named after a character in a prominent Nazi scientists novel (Project Mars) who took humanity to Mars. He is also the maternal grandson of Joshua N Hadleman who backed the Technocracy movement.

ELON GREW up in a world where these connections may have been packaged as conformation of his special role in the Marvel story unfolding inline with the Prophecies of the biblical text. Have those really in the know convinced Elon that he is one of them and promised him a place in their world to come if he acts as the poster boy for the transhumanist element of the agenda? Have you noticed how so many of these technocrats are actually kind of soft spoken and social awkward such as Peter Thiel, Mark Zuckerberg and even a young Bill Gates. It is my view that the cult are using these guys to hide behind as a sort of trojan horse to get the technology where it needs to be. I mean who's going to by a brain chip from King Charles III or the Rothschilds? and I am not suggesting that these kids from Silicon Valley knew what they were being set up for in the beginning, but I feel like they have all found out at one time or another that it's too late from them to escape. They were promises fortune and fame and power, which is the opposite of what they would have had as outcast nerdy types at school. I can complexity understand what they jumped at the chance of dating hot women and becoming famous. Elon has Asperger's and one of the main character traits of this is that they have a hard time knowing who to trust and take things literally. They are often unable to grasp the subtext of what someone is saying or read the vibe in the room. What they are incredible at though is often linked to some sort of technology, whether that is creating it, programming it, coming up with concepts and ideas, they appear to be genetically coded this way. And perhaps they are? My good friend and fellow researcher Wayne McRoy has done extensive research into autism and transhumanism and I would highly recommend his books at the alchemicaltechrevolution.com.

ALL OF THIS is to say that I believe that Elon is as much a victim of this cult as everybody else. The easy thing for me to do would be to just dismiss him as an evil lunatic but I do not believe that is the case. I think he is being abused and used and as someone who spend years working with children with additional needs, many of which were autistic, I doubt he believes he is doing anything wrong. I think he believes that his role in this grand drama is to play Mr-X and take humanity to Mars. Now the same cannot be said for all of these technocrats obviously, the likes of Peter Thiel, Alex Karp and Anthony Levandowski will likely know exactly what they are doing, yet I just don't get that feeling with Elon. Perhaps I am wrong but I live in hope.

ROKO'S BASILISK

Everything starts in the mind, and none of this is possible without watering the seeds of doubt. Doubt is chaos, and chaos of the mind creates room for a new order of things. The grand chessboard of the Freemason's takes place in the mind of the initiate and the scam is to get you into black and white thinking. They want you to function within a binary mind, it is either good or bad, black or white. From this perspective they can then move you about the chessboard from one polarity to the other at a whim. Once you become a freemason you are "on the square" which is also another symbol of Saturn. As of this writing in September of 2025 we have two "sides" of the square being played off against each other in both the US and the UK. In the UK we have the likes of Tommy Robinson enflaming the Christian "right" into a civil war with the woke "left" and the Islamic faith which many see as a problem caused by immigration. I am writing this on September 11th (IXXI) 2025 and it is the morning after the horrific murder of political commentator Charlie Kirk. Myself and Charlie would have very little that we agree on in terms of how the world is run, although he was beginning to see Zionism for what it is, but it should go without saying that what happened to Charlie was horrific, I really have no words that would adequately describe it. I watched a video last night by alternative media journalist Jason Bernas in which he was in tears filming from his hotel in Washington DC, about to introduce Tucker Carlson on stage that day. He was devastated at Charlie's murder, a young man with a wife and two children, simply for having a political opinion and a sizeable audience. The rumours and conspiracy theories around Charlie's murder will go on and in today's world with artificial intelligence it is almost impossible to get to the truth of what happened. Yet already we have the likes of Alex Jones of Infowars using this young man's death to rally up his rightwing audience and blaming leftwing woke extremists.

BLACK AND WHITE FREEMASONS THINKING...ON the square.

SO THIS ALL starts in the mind, and this cult hijacks your perception of reality and "truth" for their own nefarious means. When it comes to the transhumanist aspect of this global agenda for a new world order then a classic example of the use of the power of suggestion can be found with something called "Roko's Basilisk". Roko's Basilisk is often described as "the most terrifying thought experiment of all time". This thought experiment suggests that now that you have read about it, you are implicated in the agenda and therefore obliged to help bring it about. This means that now you know that artificial intelligence is going to take over humanity then you are obliged and morally, even spiritually, contracted to help make it happen. If you refuse to help bring it about then you will be targeted by A.I once the system is in place. The thought experiment gets the name "Basilisk" from a short story by author David Langford about a group that goes around pinning up images of a pattern called basilisk. The story is called 'BLIT' and the Basilisk is a serpent, once a person looks at them (decodes them) they are certain to die. Now the deal with Roko's Basilisk is that you have a choice, you can either join the cult of the basilisk or refuse to help the agenda and therefore set yourself and future generations up for certain extermination at the hands of artificial intelligence. This is utterly mental and a classic tactic of most cults, but who would really believe this nonsense right? Well Elon Musk met the mother of three of his children, X Æ A-12 (also called X), Exa Dark Sideral (Exa), and Techno Mechanicus (Techno), because they both knew about this thought experiment. Singer Grimes wrote about the thought experiment in one of her songs (Flesh without Blood) which led to Elon commenting on a tweet she posted about it. The two began dating and were then seen together when they attended the MET (Dead in Hebrew) Gala in 2018. Many researchers ask the question as to why someone like an Elon Musk would continue to help build the artificial intelligence system whilst at the same time speaking out against the dangers of AI ushering in the anti-christ. Rokos Basilisk might just answer that question, in the same way that the evil creator god archetype terrifies the death cult. Rokos Basilisk is simply another version of this evil energetic schism that they see as their master. It is the personification of the planet Saturn which represents discipline and accountability. It seems to me that Elon is afraid that if he does not help to build the beast system then the beast system will devour him and his future generations forever, just as Cronus did.

LET'S remember that Elon is on the autistic spectrum, a key characteristic of which is that they are poor judges of character. They also have a tendency to take things literally which would make them highly susceptible to the brainwashing of a cult. It appears to me that Elon was born into a faction of this cult. A quick look at the madness between his mother and father will tell you that he was being given mixed messages of the most severe kind as a kid. Elon has openly talked about his troubles with his cold and some would say emotionally abusive father, his brother Kimbal Musk talks about how their mother Maye escaped from her husband in the middle of the night with Elon and Kimbal. It also seems from the other side, that Maye provided the other end of the polarity in doting on her sons to the point where Elon, being autistic, started to believe that he actually was some sort of genius. This is called splitting, and confuses the child so much that they really do not know where they stand in the world, and given that he was already on the autistic spectrum he would have been utterly confused by all of this. Elon was named after a character from a Wernher Von Braun (Nazi rocket scientist) novel called 'Project Mars' in which the main character that transported humanity to Mars was named Elon. Could it be that he has been convinced that he was destined to do this for real? This is simply black magic, which in this case is the dark intentional weaponisation of the power of suggestion. Another example of this comes from a novel called 'The Penultimate Trump' which of course connects in with the 45th and 47th (9/11) President of the United States Donald Trump. The story was written by R C W. Etting who is known as the father of cryonics. The story centres around the richest man in the world Harley D Haworth, now an elderly man who is terrified of death. He is approached by two men who claim that they have designed technology that can freeze his body which will allow them to bring him back to life sometime in the future. All they need is the money to finance the project. With death knocking at his door Mr Haworth has nothing to lose so he agrees to spend his life savings on the project. The story that they manage to freeze Mr Haworth, waking him up 322 years later (Skull and Bones symbology). He wakes up to find however that he must pay for his 'sins' in the previous world in order to access the new world that he actually funded. The twist in this story is that Mr Haworth is then sent to a nearby planet to go through a process of having everything he did to others in his previous existence, done to him. And it seems he wasn't a very nice man most of his life, which is how he made his vast fortune. The planet that he is shipped off to, where he is serve out his sentence is Mars. In the story Mars has been renamed Hell. In Kabbalah Mars is the red planet (Edom) and is associated with Gevurah on the Tree of Life. Gevurah/Mars is the planet of self discipline, judgement and fire in Kabbalah.

REMEMBER this book was written by the father of Cryonics which is a system of keeping living things at extremely low temperatures to persevere them, even from such end times activities as nuclear war. This is the same technology that is used at the Trementina site in New Mexico, which is an underground vault said to store the "teachings" of L Ron Hubbard, the founder of Scientology. As mentioned previously L Ron Hubbard was also an acolyte of Aleister Crowley and friend of rocket engineer Jack Parsons. Together Parsons and Hubbard performed Crowleys Babalon Working ritual with the aim of bringing the Whore of Babalon into a vacant vessel much like a homunculus. Again we will cover much more on this later and it's ties to Jeffery Epstein, as it is central to understanding how deep I believe this lunacy really goes. These "fictional" books are written by initiates who absolutely know what is going on and what the overall agenda is. They know that eugenics today comes in the form of transhumanism and the goal is to create a vessel (shell) to house the evil creator god so it can rule over this world from its broadcasting temple, likely situation on Temple Mount in Jerusalem. Yesterday I recorded a live stream with fellow researcher 7Sees and he suggested that Solomons Temple would be the system and not a literal temple, I believe it will be both. Remember the Chabad Lubavitch messianic sect in Brooklyn New York openly tell you on their website that the new temple will be a "gateway or interface" between Heaven and Earth and a "broadcasting system" (18) to the rest of the world. In an article called "Why on Earth Do We Need a Third Temple?" on their website chabad.org, the sect describe the third temple and the Messianic Era like this:

"The Rebbe patiently explained that the Messianic Era is not just a change in demographics. It's a quantum leap in the way human beings perceive their world. Once that change has occurred, things that seem absurd to us today will appear perfectly reasonable. So, just as we cannot imagine world peace until it comes, the same with the building of the Third Temple". (19)

THIS IS the same messianic sect that have some form of hold over the likes of Vladimir Putin, Benjamin Netanyahu, Donald Trump, Javier Milei, Robert Kennedy jnr and many others. There is no divide between the US and Russia at the cult level. All of these narratives are being fed into the mind of those who are pulled into and beyond the event horizon of this cult. The more power this cult accumulates, the more power it has to accumulate power, thus over thousand of years we fund ourselves here. I believe the likes of Elon Musk have been abused enough to believe his purpose in the world is to be part of playing out biblical prophecies. How tempting is for all of us to believe that we are special and that some sort of creator god has chosen us for an incredible role in this Kabbalah drama? If I ever had the chance to chat with Elon over a pint for a minute I would tell him that none of us are "chosen" but we are targeted and manipulated to offer ourselves up to the sacrifice of a cult that doesn't give two shits about any of us, including him. Nobody is chosen, there are no chosen ones. There are those who are vulnerable that the cult knows that you will choose a deal with the devil yourself. Elon in my personal opinion is not an evil person, far from it. I think he is an abused man with autism who grew up in an abusive household and is still being abused by these satanists today. In a previous life (not literally) I was a Youth Work Leader who worked with children across the entire autistic spectrum so I know what I am talking about, they have so many incredible talents with many displaying a genius level in mathematics, which would make them prime targets to be exploited by a cult because they just do not know who they should and should not trust.

THE TECHNO MAGICIANS

Although the global cult can be traced back thousands of years, there really is nothing new under the sun, the Saturn sun that is. Though the faces, names and technology have changed the magic is as old as the day is long. One of the major influences on the death cult is the Kabbalah, the Lurianic Kabbalah to be exact. Kabbalah is an esoteric method, discipline and school of thought in Jewish mysticism. Much of what is taught has its roots in the work of Plato and the Neoplatonist's. Jewish Kabbalists use these teachings to explain the hidden meanings that can be found in the Torah (first five books of the Hebrew Bible) sometimes with a large helping of creative imagination. One such bit of creativity says that there are 600,000 letters in the Torah which is only true if you count the letters that you cannot see! I kid you not. There are actually around 304,800 letters in the Torah, but that wouldn't fit in with the magical thinking that is required to believe some of this stuff, so they just doubled it and said that there are letters you can't see (white ink on white paper). This line of magical thinking says that you can only see the black inked letters on the white parchment but cannot see the white ink letters because they are on white parchment making them invisible! Sometimes magical thinking can be describes as delusional bollocks. Or as my dad used to put it "making a square peg fit a round hole". Isaac Luria lived in the 16th Century and is considered the father of contemporary Kabbalah. His grave can be found in Safed Syria which is a place of holy worship still to this day. His tombstones are covered in an aqua blue paint which signifies the protection of the female aspect of the Jewish godhead, which is Shekhinah. Isaac Luria is better known as the Ari to his followers and the Ari Ashkenazi Synagogue built in his memory is also found in Safed. If you traced this cult back through the generations the Ashkenazi crop up time and again. Amy Says WTF writes in her book 'Synarchy' that Epstein is a common Ashkenazi name, deriving from the German Town of Eppstein which is West of Frankfurt Am Main.

WHEN YOU READ into the background of Isaac Luria the magical thinking you find is obvious. It is said that once he began reading the recently printed Kabbalistic teachings in the Zohar (Splendour or Radiance) he became a recluse and re-treating to the banks of the river Nile for Seven years. This is clearly nonsense in that the number seven is the Lurianic Kabbalah code for completion, so they are trying to tie in some Kabbalah magic with this little creative hook. Followers claim that Luria stayed in a little cottage during those seven years (must have found it on booking.com) and only visited his family on the Sabbath which is the seventh day of the week and a day of rest in the Jewish faith. This day falls on the Saturday which is Saturns-day. One of the central teachings of his work was 'Tzimtzum' which means contraction, and relates to the belief that their god began creation by limiting the Ein Sof (its self) which is also known as the infinite light. This was to make space for a brand new creation which would be the world we inhabit today. You can tell a Kabbalist a mile off because they cannot help but drop Kabbalah codes into almost every public announcement. In 2025 the President of the European Bank Christine Lagarde was trying to sell the implementation of a Digital Euro when she slipped in a bit of Kabbalah Coding by saying "I tend to share your views, nature does not like a vacuum". This would have been a clear nod and a wink to those higher ups in the audience that she was a Kabbalists and would be playing ball and pushing Digital IDs in Europe. This theory is a play on the work of Aristotle who was a Greek philosopher that was taught by Plato, and all the ancient alchemical magic that came with it. Again, these teachings are not evil in of themselves, it is simply the knowledge of how the nature of reality works. I have long said that this knowledge is the birth right of each and every one of us, but it was stolen, inverted and hidden by the snake brotherhood who infiltrated the ancient mystery schools. So the Tzimtzum happened and god retracted his energy so that space could be made for this new creation to be born. This created a vacuum and as Christine Lagarde said, nature does not like a vacuum. A bit like my wife when we brought a slightly bigger house after we had our two boys, she suddenly filled it with stuff. It was from this initial retraction that Isaac Luria formed his four core teachings of his version of the Kabbalah. These would go on to have a devastating effect on the world, one that we are seeing playing out in the Gaza today.

THESE WERE:

- Tzimtzum - The contraction of the light
- Shevirat Ha-Kelim - The breaking of the vessels
- Tikkun - Repair and ratification
- Partzufim - Personas of God in the Zohar

TO KEEP it simple what this means is the contraction of light which became too powerful to hold, exploded and shattered into sparks (600,000). On its way down these divine sparks became trapped in this material world as the ten emanations or attributes of their god (Ein Sof). For simplicity sake these are the Sefirah that we see today on the Kabbalah Tree of Life, or on the flip side they are the Qlippoth which are their counterparts on the Tree of Death. These ten elements correspond to attributes such as kindness, discipline, victory and wisdom on the Tree of Life side. The entire scheme of the Tree of Life is a world of its own and I won't even attempt to describe it here. I would highly recommend the work of author and researcher Christopher Jon Bjerknes of cjbbooks.com if you really want a masterclass in this stuff. His books 'Rise Above The Gods Who Hate us' (20) and 'Beware The World To Come' (21) are absolute essentials in my opinion. In fact it was Christopher who taught me much of this information to begin with. These ten sefirot are displayed at the junctions on the Tree of Life, which functions as a sort of stair way to heaven or Jacobs ladder for the fallen spark to ascend. The initiate starts at the bottom in Malkut (kingdom) and then proceeds up through the following nine stages, the next being Yessod which means foundation.

THE STANDARD TEN sefirah are as follows (in descending order)

1. Keter - Crown
2. Chokmah - Wisdom
3. Binah - Understanding (also Grok)
4. Chesed - Kindness
5. Geburah - Discipline
6. Tiferet - Glory
7. Netzach - Victory
8. Hod - Splendour
9. Yesod - Foundation
10. Malkuth - Kingdom (Earth/Matrix)

THESE ARE the standard ten Sefirah on the Tree of Life but there is a hidden eleventh Sefirah that hides itself below Binah (Understanding) and Chokmah (Wisdom) and this is called Da'at. This is where we get the name Darth Vader from and make no mistake about it George Lucas (Light) was well aware of the Kabbalah. The original Star Wars trilogy is full of kabbalah coding, down to the dark vs the light symbology representing duality. This is where the Messianic sect of Hassidic Judaism Chabad Lubavitch take their name from. The name Chabad comes from a combination of Chokmah, Binah and Da'at. Remember that Da'at is hidden knowledge so many who look into the standardised Kabbalah have no idea about this hidden Sefirot. Chabad are the Messianic sect that appear to have some sort of hold over Donald Trump, Vladimir Putin and Benjamin Netanyahu. These are Lurianic Kabbalists and this is the system that they sue to create what they call Olam Haba which is their world to come. My personal belief is that at the very top of Chabad Lubavitch they are not Hassidic at all, I believe they are Sabbatean Frankist posing as Jewish, whilst also incorporating Satanism. It is important to keep in mind that most of those who are in Chabad will not know this and will be genuinely good people. Remember what I said about this cult using other religions and groups as shields, who they use to protect them from any kick back, this is what I mean. The ten Sefirah also correspond to the planets and signs of the horoscope, this is called the galactic Tree of Life.

KETER - NEPTUNE

Chokmah - Uranus
Binah - Saturn (understanding Grok/Black Saturn Hole)
Chesed - Jupiter
Geburah - Mars
Tiferet - Sun
Netzach - Venus
Hod - Mercury
Yesod - Moon
Malkuth - Earth

YOU WILL HAVE NOTICED that Da'at does not have a planet of its own. This is because it is hidden from the public, but to those in the know it is generally affiliated with the Abyss. The Sefirah, planets and attributes are also corresponded to their individual alchemical elements which makes sense since the entire thing is alchemy at its base level. Now that we have the basics down, I want to show you how all of this ties into today's high tech world.

DA'AT IS DATA

I have yet to come across any other researcher who has pointed this out, but it became obvious to me that in today's world all knowledge is pretty much stored as DATA. The term data derives from the latin datum which is a plural term. Datum simply means a piece of information, and it is this datum that the likes of Peter Thiel's Palantir are planning to weaponise against you. This cult bloody love their anagrams so it is no coincidence that an anagram of DA'AT is of course DATA. So in terms of the Kabbalistic Tree of Life the hidden eleventh sefirah Da'at becomes hidden data which becomes hidden knowledge. Now the hidden Da'at (data) on you will be everything that you would call privacy. This cult want to know every single thing that you do, say and eventually think. Not only that, these lunatics want to weaponise it against you, which is what George Orwell tried to warn us about in his book 1984 with the Telescreen. In 1984 these Telescreens were installed in every room of an individual's home and could see and record everything they were doing, which was then reported back to the cult.

They would be brainwashing you with constant 24/7 cult propaganda whilst collecting data on how you react to that stimulus. Today we just give it to them for free on social media platforms fronted by pretend Silicon Valley geniuses such as Elon Musk and Mark Zuckerberg. It is said that Da'at is also all ten Sefirot in one, so a culmination of the knowledge of all things about you. If we were to transfer this system into say a digital score card, this could be used as the metric to judge you in terms of your social credit score. Let's say you score a four on Hod (Splendour) but you only score a two on Chesed (Kindness) then your overall score is brought down. The aim of the lunatics game maybe that to ascend into the next level of the social hierarchy you have to maintain an overall score at a certain level. This is known in China as your social credit score. If the maximum you could get in each sefirot is say seven (completion) then to reach Keter (crown) and escape the hunger games rat race you will need an overall perfect score of seventy which is ten times seven. The hidden knowledge of your score will be processed via your Da'at or DATA. I have just described the Kabbalah social credit system which will be the metric behind your Digital ID.

THE AMOUNT of freedom you will be allocated will depend on your kabbalah credit score which will be based on every biometric you can possibly imagine, set against the categories of the ten sefirot of the Tree of Life. Sounds insane? maybe a little too far fetched? remember these are the same lunatics that want to build a third temple on Temple Mount in Jerusalem which has resulted in at least 20,000 children being mass murdered in the last year and a half. Is this the world you want your grandchildren and great grandchildren to grow up in? I certainly don't and it will not be happening on my watch. My goal in writing this book as well as making the documentary 'I Am Immortal' and putting this information out is to stop this from happening, and that is why it is such an honour to work with the likes of David Icke and his son's because this is very real. These messianic guys are absolute lunatics, and they tell you what they are planning to do if you know what you are looking for. The hidden knowledge is your Da'at, and social media companies were set up to harvest all of this Da'at (DATA) for the reaper, that is yet another representation of their evil creator god. I am sure you have also noticed the similarities of kabbalah with the beliefs of the gnostics. Again I am not saying this information is evil in of itself, it is simply information about the nature of reality. But let's take a quick look at the world of Malkuth which is the lowest level on the Tree of Life and represents earth, which would be the Matrix to the gnostics. The hidden Da'at about Malkuth could be seen by comparing the concept of the Matrix films with the material world of Malkuth as this reality. It sits at the lowest end of the tree, right above its roots and the roots are the Tree of Death which lives underground in Kabbalah. This corresponds to the material world and the lowest vibration of material matter. For the gnostics this would mean this entire reality which many researchers believe is a simulation of a prime reality, a bad copy as David Icke would call it. David has spent decades decoding these teachings in over thirty plus books, and one of the main themes of his extensive research is that we exist inside of a tiny band of frequency called the visible light spectrum. This tiny band of frequency is what the Matrix movies call the simulation, and could be compared to what the gnostics described as the bad or corrupt copy. This information is backed up by the fact that this cult tells you this by using the rainbow as its symbol for a world beyond the matrix. This is the biblical symbol of the promise god made to Noah not to flood the world again. As I have mentioned in previous chapters it is my belief that this visible light spectrum is the dialled down perceptual trap that the likes of the The Watchers, Anunnaki and gods of old limited us to after the "flood". This would mean that this entire reality is not an overall trap, but the perception that we have been limited to within that reality is a trap. Either way the themes are the same and that is the important thing. We are being kept in the dark about the true nature of this place whatever system you subscribe to.

THE HARVEST of Palantir

Now that we have established that the modern day equivalent of Da'at is what we call DATA, we come to one of the main companies that act as the Cronus of today and seek to harvest that data to feed their own lost souls. The predominant company you will hear about is called Palantir which was founded in 2003 by Peter Thiel and specialises in software platforms for data mining. In essence, and from my understanding, what they do is provide software that makes your data mean something. You could say that it weaponises your data, which is why I believe it is so important that we keep an eye on people such as founder Peter Thiel and his co founder Alex Karp. Palantir have four main operating systems, one of which is called Palantir Gotham which is used in many countries as a predictive tool for policing. Yes you read that right, this is alarmingly close to pre-crime. The name Gotham comes from the town Gotham in Nottingham, which in English folk law was a town for cunning tricksters. Gotham has often been compared to New York which is the home of the Chabad Lubavitch Messianic sect. Beyond that we also find that it comes from "Gotha" which relates to the House of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, which eventually became the Windsor family that rule over England today (at least in theory). In reality this is a German dynasty with its roots firmly in the ancient House of Wettin. The most famous use of the word Gotham is the name for the city that the Dark Knight Batman watches over in the Batman stories. The Dark Knight is based on Carl Jung's shadow personality as a representation of the journey one must take into the dark side, in order to fuse it with your light side, this is called Shadow work. Palantir was created when the CIA operation called Total Information Awareness was closed. This seems strangely smilier to when Facebook was created around the same time that DARPA's LifeLog program was shut down. US government officials deny that the two programmes are connected even though Total Information Awareness was also a DARPA Program. But the links could not be more obvious as Peter Thiel was the first outsider to invest in Facebook in 2004, giving them $500,000 and becoming a board member. The name Palantir comes from the seeing stone in author J. R. R. Tolken's Legendarium which forms the background to his classic series The Lord of the Rings. Here we have yet another link to their god Saturn who was known as the Lord of The Rings. So essentially Palantir is the all seeing eye of Saturn, it's not like they are not telling you is it? When asked why he thought Palantir was so successful co-founder Alex Karp cryptically answered that, he and Thiel pursued a "classic German approach" when founding the company, influenced by "Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel's Philosophy" (22). This philosophy was about the unity of opposites, a theory that every element had its opposite or polarity.

IT DOESN'T TAKE a genius to work out that this was about collapsing the two polarities into one, meaning the singularity. The company was bankrolled by the CIA's venture capital firm IN-Q-Tel so it has been an intelligence asset from the get go. Peter Thiel was a former funder of President Donald Trump and as of 2025 he has his protegee in Trump's ear with JD Vance, who he groomed from Yale Law School. Thiel allegedly met JD Vance during a speaking event at the school. Yale is well known for its secret society Skull and Bones who are said to do some pretty weird shit in coffins to pledge allegiance to the globalist agenda. The Skull and Bones secret society is also known as the Brotherhood of Death, The Order and Order 322. The main purpose of Palantir, at least to me, appears to be its ability to weaponise your data. By this I mean it can take a lot of data and organise it to search for patterns or trends in behaviour and outcomes. Palantir essentially creates order out of the chaos via your data, in a way that allows the company to restructure and create a new order of things. Your data is fed into their A.I system and analysed in real-time which generates insights and suggestions for the client. If you apply this technology to what I proposed in the previous section with the Kabbalah Social Credit System, then Palantir would provide the context and sorting mechanism for all of the input data and make it mean something in accordance to the laws set by the establishment. What we must get our heads around, is that all of these components are being built separately with the ultimate goal to connect and combine them all as one beast system. This includes software such as Palantir, Digital ID Cards, Carbon Credits, Social Media Apps, Smart Technologies, Neuralink Chips, mRNA Vaccines, Nanotechnology, 5G and 6G, StarLink Satellites, Temple of Solomon, Artificial Intelligence, Chat GPT, The Internet of all things and Quantum Computers. They are slowly building a digital prison around us and very few people have a clue what it doing on. In 2020 Palantir were granted access to NHS records in the UK off of the back of the cult created Covid-19 scam. Palantir created its Foundry software to help the NHS

"manage and analyse patient data". Do we really trust a CIA contractor with our personal health records? I certainly do not. Peter Thiel is a bit of an odd fellow who can barely string a sentence together at times. As a transhumanist he is often asked about the dangers of artificial intelligence and his views on it summoning the Anti-Christ due to the fact that he is a Christian (he claims). On the 15th September 2025 the good people of earth were warmly welcomed to a special four part lecture by Palantir's Peter Thiel on the topic of the Anti-Christ. To be fair I would be interested in hearing what he had to say on this topic given that he and his mates might let this demon into our reality at a place like CERN one day! The website Luma.com said that his remarks would be anchored on "science and technology" and would be a commentary on the theology, history, literature and politics of the Anti-Christ (23). I didn't know the Anti-Christ was into politics, oh wait Tony Blair, my mistake! This is not the first time that Thiel has got on his soap box about the Anti-Christ. On the 26th June 2025 the New York Times published an article with the headline "Peter Thiel And The Anti-Christ" (24) which kind of made it sound like they were going to be interviewed together, or perhaps they are one and the same, who knows? The article is essentially a transcript from an interview that Peter did on a show called 'Interesting Times' that is hosted by Ross Douthat. In this fascinating podcast Peter Thiel discusses his take on A.I becoming the Anti-Christ beast system, see if you can spot which side of the pincer movement he sits on?

"Well, there are these different gradations of this we can describe. But is what I've just told you so preposterous, as a broad account of the stagnation, that the entire world has submitted for 50 years to peace and safetyism? This is I Thessalonians 5:3 — the slogan of the Antichrist is "peace and safety." (24)

HERE WE HAVE a classic example of Peter Thiel playing the role of reluctant transhumanist. His claim is that if we stay stagnant in terms of progression with artificial intelligence technology then this will allow others to build the system to take us over (China). What he is clearly doing here is projecting, it's a little bit of reverse psychology that's all. This is the same tactic that Elon Musk is using when he claims that we must merge with machines in order to not be taken over. There is an element of the prophetic in this way of thinking, this rhetoric taps into the unconscious and programs the sub conscious to believe that it is inevitable that the machines will take over and that resistance is futile. All that same old Nazi bollocks, because at their core these guys are of the same insane hive mind as the Nazis. So to conclude, Palantir's main function is to make personal DATA mean something, which I believe will be weaponised against you once the everything app is up and running. And who better to introduce an everything app than Elon Musk. Elon and Peter have a well publicised history together, officially beginning around the year 2000 when Musks X.Com merged with Thiel's Continuity, to form Paypal. The mainstream media will have you believe that these two are often at each others throats but its all just theatre for the masses. Thiel continues to fund Elons ventures with investments in Space X, Neuralink and The Boring Company through Thiel's Founders Fund. These two ultra geeks were part of what became known as the PayPal Mafia. Perhaps it made them feel tough to call it that but in reality they are so far down the pyramid of control it's just sad. If you do not believe me, take a look at the shareholders in Musks xAI Holdings Corp, they include the Kingdom Holding Company (Saudi Royals) and the Qatar Investment Authority.

ELON'S All Seeing App

Elon first mentioned the everything app in 2023 but these things go way back in their origins, likely to the underground bases (DUMBS) at least in terms of its technology. In an article published by the Guardian in July 2023 titled 'The everything app: Why Elon Musk wants X to be a WeChat for the west' (25) the journalist reported that "daily life in Chinese cities is nearly impossible to navigate without WeChat, to the extent that being barred from the country's super-app has been likened to a "digital death". This was the year that Elon "brought" Twitter and sent the bluebird over the rainbow when he renamed it X. In reality his purchase of Twitter/X wasn't the work of some super genius but a collaboration and business deal with the likes of the Saudi Prince Alwaleed bin Talal and his Kingdom Holding Company who became the second largest investor in Twitter after Musk. This business deal also included Qatar, whose Sovereign Wealth Fund put in $375 million into the deal. Come on now, who do you think really runs the show? An interesting side note to the Qatar deal is that Elon was pictured with the Qatar representatives at a football game alongside Jared Kushner who is a devout Messianic Chabad Lubavitch follower, small world. Elon wrote on Twitter at the time that his "purchase" of the platform was an accelerator for X, the everything app. He went on to write that "In the months to come, we will add comprehensive communications and the ability to conduct your entire financial world. The Twitter name does not make sense in that context, so we must bid adieu to the bird." The dropping of the blue bird had nothing to do with that, it was symbolic of the bird that flew over the rainbow into the new golden age of Saturn, which is represented by the X.

THE GUARDIAN REPORTED that in June of 2022 Musk told Twitter staff that the company could emulate WeChat. He is quoted as saying "You basically live on WeChat in China because it's so usable and helpful to daily life, and I think if we can achieve that, or even get close to that at Twitter, it would be an immense success". We know that the Chinese social credit system is slated to be brought into the West in the near future and we are already seeing this being introduced by slight of hand in 2025 with the Labour Government of Keir Starmer trying to bring in the Britcard. The Britcard is the current name for the Digital ID system that the cult wants to introduce in the UK. This is being welcomed in by those who have fallen for the gaslighting and rhetoric of Tommy Robinson, whose role appears to be to fan the flames of illegal immigration issues that Keir Starmer has caused. This acts as a pincer movement between the two of them. In support of this theory, who would Tommy invite to give a live speech at his rally in London on Saturday September 13th 2025? None other than Elon Musk. In a shocking and disturbing display of clear gaslighting Elon came out with this madness, as the audience cheered him on:

"This is a message to the reasonable centre, the people who ordinarily wouldn't get involved in politics, who just want to live their lives. They don't want that. My message is to them: if this continues, that violence is going to come to you, you will have no choice. You're in a fundamental situation here.

"Whether you choose violence or not, violence is coming to you. You either fight back or you die, that's the truth, I think." (17)

THE CROWD LAPPED this madness up whilst Tommy bounced around in front of the giant screen on stage. This rhetoric ramped up tensions between the extreme woke left and conservative extremist on the right, as well as caused hyper tension between Muslims and Christians across the country. All of this was about getting those who would usually appose Digital ID's to welcome them with open arms, because they have been brainwashed into thinking it is about stopping illegal immigration which is a legitimate concern. But this is not about that at all, Starmer does not give a shit about illegal immigration, in fact Starmer is responsible for much of it. What they want is an excuse to bring in Digital ID's. And who would supply the platform for that? Elon Musk has one called X or something!..Classic pincer movement. Keir Starmer is a member of the Trilateral Commission which is an offshoot of the Round Table secret society. The Trilateral Commission was created by Rothschild agent David Rockefeller and Zbigniew Brzezinski in 1973 with the Council on Foreign Relations, which is also a Round Table satellite. The Trilateral Commission was given the cult task of pushing the technocratic aspect of the global agenda. Co-Founder of the commission Brzezinski wrote a book called Between Two Ages: America's Role In The Technetronic Era. David Icke writes in The David Icke Guide To The Global Conspiracy (26) that Brzezinski's book "describes a new society, that is shaped culturally, psychologically, socially, and economically by the impact of technology and electronics - particularly in the area of computers and communication". What an amazing plan hey! get Keir Starmer to continue to allow immigration levels to peak, piss off the British by giving immigrants free hotels and health care and even a new phone. Then get Tommy Robinson to gaslight the entire nation into demanding Digital IDs. Then off the back of that we have Tommy's new mate Elon Musk who just so happens to have created an 'Everything app' with X... What a ridiculous stitch up. David Icke calls this problem, reaction, solution whilst others call it the Hegelian Dialect. The official explanation of Hegelian dialect is 'a philosophical process of change and development'. In other words this is social engineering and if you want to go right back to the roots of what is going on then this is practical magic, black magic and alchemical manipulation. The truth is that this magic is not magic at all, at least not in the way that Hollywood has sold it to us, this is the understand of the nature of reality and it is knowledge that is the birth right of all of us. It is simply the knowledge of how things work, and the process of manifestation out of disorder. This is the act of creating chaos to get the reaction which will prove the outcome that will set a new order of things. It really is an alchemical process of energies and this is why you go to the polling station to cast your vote, its casting a spell at the polarities of energies. The reason why the two main "choices" are blue and red is because energetic principles are at play. Blue represents the negative, or passive and red represents the positive or aggressive, much like a battery the energies are plus and minus. This can even be seen (literally) with the movement of light, it is called Red-Shift Blue-Shift, which means the when light is moving away from you it becomes more red and when it is moving towards you it comes more blue. These dark occultists at the very top of the pyramid know how this stuff works. Even Yahweh and Shekhinah who are the male and female aspects of the god in Kabbalah are presented by red (Yahweh burning bush) and blue (Shekhinah protection and the ocean). At the upper most levels of the cult they are alchemists, and the basic principles of alchemy underline everything they do. Which has one ultimate goal, to use your energy against you.

WHAT IS ALCHEMY?

Before we move on to the more insane things that the cult are messing about with, let's just take a little look at the basics of alchemy. We can then see how it has been applied in our modern world through technology such as artificial intelligence and quantum computing. Remember everything is energy so all they have to work with is energy. Whatever they might rebrand it as the fact remains, that we are all alchemists working with energies. The difference is that they know it and most people do not. The standard explanation for ancient alchemy is that it is a process of turning standard or base metals into gold. This is true in terms of the material world, but the principles go way beyond the visible light spectrum. The process of alchemy is the process of creativity, which results in a change in the physical world. Alchemy is the process itself and not the end result which is what mainstream science concentrates on. Mainstream science is mostly about studying the results of creation, and not so much on the process of something becoming created, which leads up to its appearance in the material world. Alchemy resides in the mystical, in the world of the unseen, the land of ideas and dreams, and in the spark that comes from the source of everything. True alchemy is the birthing of the imagination down through the vibration layers and into this material world. For example let's take the standard definition of turning base metals into gold. This is the exact same process that is symbolised but the rainbow being the bridge to the pot of gold that sits at its end point. This manipulation of matter is a physical process, but that comes after the creative mind connects in beyond this reality and pulls a new image into the realm of ideas, and then into the material world. This is the process of manifesting, and we can apply this method to the process that the death cult is using to bring about their biblical "prophecies". This is the thing with magic, it really is very practical indeed, but it starts in the mind. Author Wayne McRoy writes in 'The Alchemical Tech Revolution' (27) that "alchemy is one of the secret sciences that the elite use to control the masses. Alchemy, in its purest form, was originally intended for the spiritual betterment of man. It has however, been hijacked by a self-serving elite bent on total control of all humanity, from cradle to grave". Wayne describes alchemy as the "transmogrification of man from its 'base' animal nature to the higher "enlightened" spirit nature that man was intended to operate on". You can see from this explanation how this might be skewed by the transhumanist to suggest that the merging of man and machine is simply the next alchemical step in our evolution. Wayne uses the example of money to show you how this alchemical process can be implemented. He says that "economics can be considered an alchemical science" and indeed it is. For example you get paid a certain amount of money in return for your physical energy or imagination that goes into birthing something new into the physical world. So you are exchanging your energy in some form for money. You then take this new form of your energy, which is now money, and you purchase something that is the result of another person's creative energy output. This is all an alchemical process of transforming energy and ideas into a physical product then into a recipe of that product's "worth" which you then pass on to others who have something you desire. What these dark occults are doing has everything to do with steering your energy in a certain direction towards a given outcome (agenda) that the vast majority of the world have no idea about. This is where the mainstream and much of the new alternative media come in, they plug themselves straight into your mind, and programme your imagination so that your energy is directed in a way that best suits the agenda. We see this same process being repeated in all areas of our daily lives from religions, science, technology, biology and politics to name just a few. The entire system of control is about controlling your perception to garner the reaction they want from you so that you will focus your energy in a way that benefits them. This is all alchemy but you are the alchemist and the energy is yours to direct, not theirs. So please stop giving it away! the power is in your hands.

THE FANTASTIC FOUR

In his book 'Cybernetic Messiah' Wayne McRoy writes that there are four main occult sciences that this death cult have hidden away from us in order to control us. These are as follows:

1. Onomatopoeia - Twilight language, language of the birds, phonetic cabala/ Kabbalah
2. Mystic Toponymy - Geographical locations and nature of the land (Ley Lines)
3. Numerology and Gematria - The science of numbers
4. Symbolology- the archetypes triggered by signs and symbols (blueprints/ archetypes)

THESE FOUR BASIC occult sciences are taught to the initiates and together they provide the frame working for the language that they communicate to each other with. For instance after the assassination of political commentator Charlie Kirk, FBI director Kash Patel said they had taken 33 hours to conduct their investigation. There was a clear nod and a wink the 33rd Degree of Scottish Rite of Freemasonry. Wayne writes that these four occult sciences are used to manipulate the "collective unconscious" which is the Jungian term for what some call the "akashic records" or "epigenetic memory". This collective unconsciousness is where the archetype of the evil creator god can be found that this cult are so afraid of. The use of these four occult sciences and their meaning depends on the user and the context. For example the number seven to the Messianic Kabbalists symbolises completion but in numerology completion is represented by the nine. You not only need to know the code but you need to know the context that the code is being used within. We know that the Freemason's took on many of the beliefs of the Knights Templar and follow the Lurianic Kabbalah, so it is no coincidence that the "G" they put in the middle of their Square and Compass symbol is the seventh letter of the English alphabet. It is my view that they all fuse together at the top, but a sign, symbol or number might mean one thing when communicated between two Jesuits but another when communicated between two Kabbalists, and then there is the added twist of a Jesuit communicating with a Kabbalist. For instance US President Donald Trump is Jesuit educated but he is also involved and subjected to the Lurianic Kabbalists Chabad Lubavitch. This basic understanding is the root for a lot of the alternative media and conspiracy researchers arguing over what a certain sign or symbol means, it all depends on the transmitter/receiver relationship and the context. To really understand this language and decipher the code you must have a solid background in philosophy, mythology and religion. You do not have to believe in any of this stuff remember, it is only important to know that they do. Anyone who tells you they fully understand what the occultists are really saying to each other when they communicated through code is simply lying. There are so many variables that at best it is always a guess, yet the more you expand your knowledge of the different occult factions such as the Jesuits, Kabbalists, Theosophy, Freemasonry, Secret Societies, Mystery Schools etc... the better equipped you will be to untangle the maze of deception. And to add a final point on this section, the cult are getting utterly desperate and running out of time so they are now more blatant than ever.

MENTALISM

This process is also known as the Hermetic Principles which are an ancient occult tradition encompassing alchemy, astrology and theosophy. As with the example of Keter (Crown) that sits at the top of the Kabbalistic Tree of Life, everything is filtered through the mind or mentalism. Mentalism says that "all is mind" and that "the universe is mental" and I would have to agree after a day out in Great Yarmouth, it's utterly mental. Personally I don't agree with this as I think it shuts out intuitive and knowing and that the mind is just the Central Processing Unit (CPU) which incidentally often looks like a Black Cube inside a quantum computer. Is see the mind or the world of mentalism as within the Matrix, or as the processor of the simulation. Mentalism originated in ancient hermetic texts and may have come from the times of Atlantis and Lumeria (Mu) where it was taught through the mystery schools. The principle of mentalism suggests that our thoughts and consciousness have the power to shape our perceived reality. This sounds all very magical and mystical but it really isn't, it is actually entirely practical. What is the difference between having an idea in say a 5D realm where everything is created instantly from having the same idea in this 3D reality and you bringing it to life in the material world? the answer is speed. It all comes down to the speed in which it can be manifested that is all. In this dense reality it takes time for the ideas to be physically formed, but beyond the prison of the visible light spectrum and perhaps the wider electromagnetic spectrum, ideas can be manifested instantly. This is because we are living within the speed of light, which David Icke suggests is not the fastest speed but the speed of the simulation itself.

THE DARK OCCULTIST know that the speed of light is the processing speed of the simulation and just a tiny fraction of infinite reality, and they tell you this in their allegories and stories such as Noah's flood with the symbology of the rainbow. This rainbow represents the visible light spectrum, the walls of this reality and the template of the matrix. This is why they talk about the pot of gold at the end or on the other side of the rainbow. Beyond the rainbow where bluebirds fly is the golden age of Saturn which is represented by the pot of gold. This is all ancient alchemy, yet even mentalism seeks to base all of existence in the mind which I believe is reductive. The brain is a CPU that interfaces with the matrix and not the source of reality itself, and it uses the human mind as a transformer through which it manifest itself into the world we see around us. Our mind is a receiver, transformer and transmitter. Once you realise this, you can start to make sure that your thoughts are your own and not those of the machine. Mentalism suggests that everything comes from one universal mind which is the same thing as the Kabbalist Ein Sof. Although I believe we are all one mind connected I do not believe that this means we are all one and the same. The dark occultists need you to believe that we are all one and the same (sounds like communism) so they can convince you that your individuality and individual wants and needs do not count. The aim of the game is to get you to give up your personal desires and replace them with the "greater good". The principle of interconnected conciseness says that all beings are connected fragments of the same universal mind. The Messianic Chabad sect believe that they are the fallen sparks of divine light (Ein Sof) trapped inside human bodies, and they have been given the job of repairing the world, which they call Tikkun Olam. It is my view that whilst we are all connected, we are not one and the same and our individual wants and needs matter.

THE Seven Again

By now it might not surprise you that there are seven Hermetic principles according to the book the Kybalion (29). Now, the Kybalion is not really considered a true hermetic book but the principles are the same, these are:

1. Mentalism - Everything is mind (it is not, that is inside the simulation)
2. Correspondence - As above so below
3. Vibration - Nothing is still
4. Polarity - Every pair of opposites has a middle ground (Politics)
5. Rhythm - Everything ebbs and flows
6. Cause and Effect - Every cause has an effect (problem reaction solution)
7. Gender - Masculine and Feminine

WE HAVE ALREADY DISCUSSED a few of these principles, such as polarity and mentalism as well as cause and effect. All of these are important to understand because they give us a solid insight into how the global cult manipulates you. Once you understand these basic principles it becomes so easy to see how you are being manipulated, especially through the mainstream and now mainstream alternative media (MAM). All we have to do is look at the numerical example here in front of us. There are seven hermetic principles because seven is the cults number for completion, which is the completion of the alchemical process they are trying to bring about. This is why the Freemasons use the letter 'G' within the Easter star (Sirius). It is because it is the seventh letter of the alphabet and is completion. Some researchers say the use of the 'G' represents god or for the Great Architect, in the end it all is the same energy, it is everything. The seven principles listed above are the framework that occultists work within, and once you understand this they are done for. You are able to see the magicians sleight of hand and the magic no longer works on you. This is what they are terrified of and is the reason that they hid this knowledge in the mystery schools. Today this knowledge is shared amongst the top levels of secret societies such as the Knights of Malta, The Freemasons, Knights Templar, high level Kabbalist's, Black nobility bloodlines, Papal Nobility, Jesuits and the list goes on. The twist comes when you realise they not only have they hid this knowledge, they have inverted it and are using it against you.

WHEN IT COMES to the global death cult, one of the main components to their scam is the hermetic principle of correspondence, or "so above as below". One of the most famous examples can be seen on the flag of modern day Israel, which is a combination of two triangles superimposed onto of each other to create the six pointed star. The star is known as the Star of David today but it has been widely used in many cultures through thousands of years. Another name for this symbol is the Seal of Solomon and some researchers say it is also the Star of Remphan. The six pointed star creates a hexagon shape at the centre, which when viewed from another perspective is the cube. The cube, six pointed star and the hexagon are all symbols for Saturn, the blueprint for the evil creator god. This symbol represents the death cults wish to bring heaven down to earth, which some researchers believe means that they want to collapse the two realities into one. You could think of this as a reverse of the Big Bang, with the Big Bang being the exhaling of the universe and the collapse being the inhaling of the universe. Or to put it another way, the out breath followed by the in breath. Menachem Mendel Schneerson was the seventh and last Lubavitcher Rabbi. He has been quoted as saying "Our job is not to get to heaven, but to create heaven on earth" (30) and this is precisely what they intend to do. The catch will be that this "heaven" will be ruled by the cult under the Seven Noahide Laws. These laws will be programmed into your everything app provided by the likes of Elon Musk.

THE META LAW

The law of correspondence states that your external world represents your internal world, which makes a whole lot of sense. Another way to put it is "As Within, So Without". This universal belief says that your thoughts, beliefs, emotions and habits create, or at least affect, your external world. This basic alchemical and hermetic law has been taken and applied in its most basic form to Mark Zuckerberg's META. This began with a computer game called 'Second Life' which was a game where you could play online with others as an avatar of yourself, and buy things for your Meta-World with real world money that was created within the game. An even earlier and more child friendly version of this began with the computer game The Sims. META Platforms Inc is an American multinational technology company headquartered in California. The company owns and operates several sub companies such as Facebook (Lifelog), Instagram and Watts-App, Messenger and Threads. META is considered one of the big tech companies alongside X, Apple, Amazon and Alphabet. Alphabet is the parent company of google which was founded by Larry Page and Sergey Brin. The current CEO of Alphabet is Sundar Pichai, who is also the CEO of Google. Most people outside of the tech world would have never heard of Sundar Pichai and that's just the way they like it. META is now the overall name for Facebook and they seek to blur the lines between online and offline life to the point where they merge into one.

THE METAVERSE IS DESCRIBES as "persistent network of interconnected virtual worlds where users can seamlessly interact with each other and digital environments using virtual and augmented reality". The Gnostic Yaldabaoth must be truly pissed off that Mark Zuckerberg is ripping off his idea, whilst existing inside that idea already. The term metaverse comes from a 1992 science fiction novel (don't they all) called 'Snow Crash' by American author Neal Stephenson (31). The title comes from Stephenson's description of a computer crashing resulting in a screen that looks like a snow storm. In the story the Metaverse is the online world where various people meet, hangout and also do a bit crime here and there. A computer hacker is given a drug in the metaverse called 'Snow Crash' which causes them to suffer brain damage in the real world after the computer they were viewing a bitmap image on crashes. There so much truth in fiction and especially in sci-fi short stories. In the Snow Crash novel this virus is connected to ancient Sumerian cultures and the legend of the Tower of Babel. This is where the concept of the Metaverse comes from. In January 2022 the creator of Second Life Philip Rosedale described the Metaverse as "a three dimensional internet that is popularised by live people" (32). People have been drawn into the world of avatars and subversive techno-realities because of its social aspect. In true satanic inversion they have managed to make an antisocial activity like popping on a VR headset and sitting in your room on your own, a social activity. This is all fun and games until you start to realise that those in control of Mark Zuckerberg want to make your online persona more important than your real life self. In fact, if these lunatics get their way then your online activity will dictate your real world activity, right down to the social media comments you make. This is the merging of the two worlds and the principle of so above as below. If you think this is a bit far fetched then remember that in December of 2025 Donald Trump announced that you would have to reveal five years worth of your social media activity to enter the United States of America, the guys a fruit loop.

Does this all sound a bit too much? have I gone a bit over the top? well I hope so, but just for a giggle let's have a look at the possibility that they might be building an online world that you will not be able to function in the "real world" without taking part in. The vast majority of us already rely on the internet in one way or another to make our living. This is astonishing when you think that the internet was not rolled out to the general public until CERN released it to the world in 1993. As with anything, the invention of a certain technology comes off the back of other technologies, but the origins of today's Internet can be traced back to around 1989 and a guy name Tim Berners-Lee who was working at CERN. Other researchers have shown that this technology came through DARPA (ARPA) and was originally called ARPANET. This goes way back to the 1960's when President Dwight D Eisenhower formed DARPA in response to the Soviet launch of Sputnik in 1957. I have interviewed the great granddaughter of President Eisenhower many times and she has some interesting things to say about a project called 'twenty years and back' which allegedly involved trips via Tesla time-travel technology to the Moon and Mars. The fact is most of the Western world has become totally dependant on the internet. It is where we make a living, where we communicate with each other, find out information and where we buy and sell. The DARPA created internet is where we exchange our god given energy and time with each other, so we are already in head first with our legs dangling out the mouth of the beast system, in prime position for the mark of Cain. (probably on our arse)

Revelations 13:16 - 18

"Also it causes all, both small and great, both rich and poor, both free and slave, to be marked on the right hand or the forehead, so that no one can buy or sell unless he has the mark, that is, the name of the beast or the number of its name. This calls for wisdom: let the one who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man, and his number is 666"

WEB 3.0 IS BEING SOLD as decentralised upgrade of the internet which will be built on Blockchain technology. The selling point of this new version of the World Wide Web is that this will in essence cut out the middle man, so that people would communicate and exchange peer to peer. The sales pitch is that users will have direct control over their own DATA (Da'ta) and digital identity.

As lovely as this sounds, it could not be further from the truth. Cut through all the jargon, and the truth is that this new version of the internet would something you could not function without having access to. The concept of Web 3.0 gained much of its following and support from cryptocurrency enthusiasts, who see it as a ways to take back power from centralised banks and governments. I have always had issues with the concepts behind cryptocurrency's and decentralised blockchain, in that no-one can yet explain to me how you can get your money if you cannot get hold of any tech to access the web?... Yes it is possible to download crypto to offline devices such as dumb phones and even via radio waves, but let's be honest, who is going to be able to do that in the real world? A more important issue that cannot be bypassed is the issue of association. If a person is locked out of the system because they have been a naughty slave, who in reality will be brave enough to exchange or transact with them if the consequences of getting caught are that they and their family get lock out as well?. We know that even in 2025 you are being watched, tracked and traced almost 24/7 via various technologies that you use throughout the day. During the Covid-19 scam Canadian truckers who were protesting against the Orwellian rules of their countries Covid response had raised over 20.7 BTC, which was reported to have been around $1 million in real world funds. The Freedom Convoy came up against federal authorities who invoked the Emergencies Act to freeze all convoy assets. Videos shared on social media showed people hand delivering envelopes containing Crypto codes so that drivers could access the donated funds. The problem is you had to download an app to your phone to be able to access them, it would be almost funny if it wasn't so sad. Even if the technology could be accessed to covertly get to the funds, who in their right mind would want to do business with you if it meant that they would be locked out as well?.

BUT BACK LET'S get back to the Metaverse shall we, which will exist on Web 3.0. In 2012 Facebook launched Facebook Horizon (Horus rising) which was a multi player virtual world where people would host events and interacted with each other, which is pretty similar to what Second Life became. The metaverse works on a number of headsets including Oculus Rift S. Controversy soon came knocking on the metaverse doors as users were complaining about online sexual harassment. All users start the game with their own personal space which they can then design from the menu system. From there they can visit other worlds designed by other players. Some of the metaverse functions can only be access with cryptocurrency called non-fungible tokens which are a sort of investment asset that can be traded. It all sounds like a great way to piss away a Sunday afternoon really, but to me this always seemed to be a simple way of introducing a very basic form of online exchange inside a virtual world that you will one day inhabit entirely. This will be a matrix within a matrix, and if you get yourself banned from it then you might as well have been sent to the Land of Nod with Cain, because you will no longer exist to much of the real world. Although the initial excitement about the platform has subsided, many are now using it to explore immersive retail and virtual commerce, which is where I believe it was always heading from the start. They are testing the virtual barter system and world wide marketplace, they even call their own users "virtual economies". The independent newspaper reported that by April 2024 Meta had lost around £45 billion since the operation started in 2020 (33). What the journalist failed to realise is that like other big tech organisations run by the cult such as Amazon, they can afford to lose billions, because it is not about money. This is about creating a new world order and in the case of the metaverse it is about contributing to the creation of an actual virtual new world that generations to come will be plugged directly into from birth.

IN MORE RECENT years meta has been moving away from developing the metaverse and contributing to Web 3.0, at least that is the narrative we are supposed to believe anyway, and have invested much more time in developing their AI technology. Meta have recently released their newest version of their Large Language Model (LLM) LLama 4. These are essentially the main foundational technology that power chatbots such as Chat GPT. All of this technology is designed to come together into what we would call the beast system, that will broadcast its signal from the new temple of Solomon on Temple Mount. These various elements are not just separate pieces of innovative technologies, they complement each other and are designed to be networked. For example, how would you access your Chat GPT personal assistance who could help you with the best tips for building wealth in the Metaverse with up to date in the moment analysis on market trends? you would fire up your government issued smart device created by Apple or Microsoft and you would use your government issued digital ID code and facial/voice recognition to open the smart device. Once you were granted access to your smart device then you would be granted access to the front menu of your online world. Here AI would monitor your Web 3.0 footprint in realtime, and keep tabs on you by collecting millions of data points throughout the day. These data points will be sent to a company like Palantir whose job it would be to weaponise this data and make it mean something. All of this will be available to you so long as you abide by the seven fundamental laws, the first one of which is to praise the Noahide god that broadcasts from the temple of Temple Mount. This broadcast will be sent to the mind of each and every biological human, human 2.0, human plus, enhancement human and artificial assistant in the world. You have then become a thing inside the internet of all things.

CYBER PUNKED

To conclude this chapter I would like to remind us all that if this comes to pass we would be a thing within a cybernetic system called the internet of all things. Cybernetics is the study of whole systems complete, which means it is the study of how a feedback loop operates. What these lunatics are doing is hijacking the blueprint of the natural system of correspondence, so above as below. The most obvious example of how the human being is part of a system is our relationship with trees. We breath out carbon dioxide which the trees take in and turn into oxygen, its is an incredible system that literally keeps us alive. The two way system is the foundation of all life on earth and a clear indication that on a biological level we are connected to this reality, indeed we feed off each other. what the death cult have managed to do is hide these basic alchemical teachings from us all whilst passing them down through their secret societies. From there they have used these exact same hermetic understandings to control us all, making us slaves to the system which we now rely on for our own survival. They have taken a mutually beneficial system such as human beings and tree's and used that principle to reroute our energy into their beast system of artificial intelligence, computers, hardware, software and algorithms. This is what the gnostics warned us about, it is the matrix and the fake copy of Prime Reality. The gnostics believed that we already function within a fake copy of Prime reality, so if this is indeed the case then we are about to put another layer over our heads, which will act as a concrete way of blocking us from our creative link to the all that is and ever can be.

AN UNDERSTANDING of basic cybernetics reveals to us that not only are we part of a system that revolves around itself expanding as we do. It also shows us that we are the convertor of energies that create the entire system itself. The cult have hijacking your perception through Science, Media, Religion, Mythologies, Politics and yes even end times prophecies. Everything they do is about programming your mind so that you bring about the new world order they want, and this means that you and I are enslaving ourselves. The great news is that we do not have to do. The death cult even use a synthetic term for human beings when describing our role in their beast system, they call us "wetware" as a product alongside hardware and software. The term wetware is used to describe your central nervous system which includes the brain, spinal cord (Jacobs ladder) and retina. They are telling you that they hijack and then hack your wetware so that you perceive the world in a way that benefits them. Not only that, this hack programmes you to actually build your own prison walls around you.

"The Central Nervous System is so named because the brain integrates the received information and coordinates and influences the activity of all parts of the bodies of bilaterally symmetric and triploblastic animals" (34)

THEY ARE HIJACKING the central processing unit (CPU) of your biological system that is your body/mind. We are far more than just our body and mind which exist in the 3D and 4D worlds, we are connected to unlimited creativity and they know this. It is my belief that at the top of the pyramid of control amongst the black nobility and papal nobility bloodlines they do not have this connection to unlimited creative imagination. They can only see things in a very restricted left brain way, which means they are almost reptilian and robot like in their processing of information. They are more like computers and artificial intelligence than we are and if this world wasn't so satanically inverted they would be working for us. This is what they hope to do, invert the creative system so that we become slaves to the system we have been tricked into building for them. The knowledge of how the nature of reality works is crucial to our survival, and the absolute truth is that the nature of reality functions around human beings. We are the transmitter, receiver, generator and convertor of energy and ideas. As author Wayne McRoy said to me "We are the STAR GATE that they want to hijack", yes we are the star gate that can reach into other worlds (archetypal world) where the blueprints of creativity are stored and from there we become the craftsman that bring new ideas to life in this world. It seems to me that they cannot do this, for they have severed their connection to the all that is, and cut themselves off from sources. So the only way they can survive is to convince us that we are cut off as well, and powerless over our own lives. This is why they come out with bollocks like biblical prophecies, they want you to think it is written in stone that Abaddon will crawl out from the bottomless pit (Revelations 9:11) and the temple will be rebuilt which will usher in the arrival of the returning Messiah. It is all total bollocks, and can only happen if we are scammed into helping them make it happen.

New International Version - Revelation 9:11

They had as king over them the angel of the Abyss, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon and in Greek is Apollyon (that is, Destroyer).

THESE ARE NOT PROPHECIES, these things will appear to happen because human beings have been fooled and conned into making them happen. Remember you are the convertor of energies within in the natural cybernetic system, and nothing can happen without your compliance.

ALCOR - NEW DEFINITION of death

It was the author R C Ettinger who is was given the lofty title of the "father of cryogenics" after he dreamt up many of the concepts that have become cryonics today in his book 'The Penultimate Trump' written in the 1940's. I will be exploring this short story more in later chapters as it is loaded with symbology and revelations about the technocratic agenda. The Alcor Life Extension Foundation is an American nonprofit organisation based in in Arizona United States. Their process includes the freezing of human corpses and brains in liquid nitrogen after legal death, with hopes of resurrecting the individual in the future. My gut feeling is that something like this is going on in the Church of Spiritual Technology underground vaults in New Mexico. This is an arm of the Church of Scientology and the facility is called Trementina. If you think this is all a bit mental, well as of October 2023 Alcor had 222 members who had died and had their corpses cryogenically frozen. As far out as this all seems, Sam Altman of OpenAI has paid his sign up fee to the company Nectome to have his mind uploaded to the cloud when he dies (35). Is it that far fetched to believe that these dark occultists will use a service like Nectome to store their "mind" whilst their body is cryogenically stored by companies who offer services similar to ALCOR? If this is true, then could it be that deep underground in the Trementina vaults in New Mexico, the bodies and perhaps minds of occultists like L Ron Hubbard, Crowley and Jack Parsons are cryogenically stored? I will get into the deep research around New Mexico when we come to Jeffery Epstein later in the book.

ON THE ALCOR website there is a section titled "What is death?" which gives a great insight into what these guys see a human being as. Under the heading "The Most Accurate Definition of Death" it says "death is only permanent when the structure of encoded memory and personality (necessary for consciousness) have become so disrupted that it becomes theoretically impossible to recover the person" (They even have a term for this type of death which is "information-theoretical death" (36) I kid you not! This is all about selling the concept that human beings can be quantified into information streams, which can then be captured, uploaded and controlled. Of course this is complete transhumanist nonsense as nobody really knows what happens after we die, but that is not stopping these lunatics from offering a service that can freeze your biological body and then re-animate it later on as a sort of shell (Clippoth) that will house your "mind" which they claim will be hanging about in a quantum computer somewhere, waiting to be downloaded. This madness will be sold as what I have already described as the "Techno-Rapture" to Christians. The website goes on to say "death is a process, not an on-off switch. When someone is dying the transition from alive to dead is not instantaneous, it takes time to die. Doctors can use this time to try to save the person, and are often successful. When it is impossible or inappropriate (how thoughtful) to reverse the dying process...this is when cryonics becomes relevant". If you are getting flashbacks and images of Mary Shellys 1818 novel Frankenstein, then you are not alone. The Frankenstein story is an echo of the concepts involving the Homunculus, which is a miniature artificially created being in alchemy, that could be seen as a hologram in today's language. Again we are talking about a husk or shell in which to store the "mind" or DATA of the person which would at best become a limited copy of the original, just as the Gnostics describe the world we live in today. The ALCOR website says "The dying process can be paused [and that] cryonics is currently the best known method for pausing the dying process in a way that allows for potentially restoring good health with medical technology in the future". I am sure that the people working at ALCOR are all lovely people and they believe they are doing humanity a favour, but what I would suggest is that perhaps this "pausing" of the dying process might stop the subway train long enough at the station that something dark and demonic could climb aboard that carriage, and then enjoy the fast track into our reality inside the husk of a body that looks like the person that has died, but is in reality a home for a demonic entity.

THE FABLE OF THE FALLEN

The Pilot And The Passenger

THE FALL of entities is a concept that comes from the three Abrahamic religions Judaism, Christianity and Islam. To show how hilariously argumentative we all are even these three religions are sub divided into so many different beliefs and sub beliefs that some versions can barely be seen to be the same religion that they claim to come from. The fact is that the Abrahamic religions are a mixtape of much older allegories and mythologies with the character names changed and a few tweaks here and there. Having said that I do believe they all contain valuable life lessons, and the seeds of the truth about the nature of reality can be found in them. I will leave that argument for someone else because in reality it will get us nowhere, it is what this death cult believe that I am interesting in and is the purpose of this book. These lessons are often founding allegories and analogies which act as a beacon of light, pulling the truth to shore.

I HAVE OFFERED this analogy a few times in various shows over the past few years, but this is how I personally see the entire religious situation. We are like passengers on a aeroplane that have woken up in mid-air with no idea how we got on there, where we are going, why we are on the flight and we don't have a clue when the fuel is going to run out. We are all looking around us at each other, a plane full of confused cramped and cranky human beings trying to figure out what the crap is going on. Some of us turn on the inflight video screen which plays the version of reality that resonates with us best, but we know all these version have been made by Disney and that not all of them can be true, because they all contradict each other. After a while we start to argue with each other about why we are on the plane, what we are supposed to be doing and who should be in charge of trying to talk to the captain who still refuses to talk to us. We argue amongst ourselves because at the root of it all we are afraid. The biggest question most of us have is when will the fuel run out? followed by the terror of suddenly dropping out of the air and plunging into the abyss below. To comfort ourselves we come up with our own belief systems about the meaning of the flight, where we are heading, who built the plane, who came up with the concept of the plane, where we took off from and where we are heading. The extremists on the plan claim that their seat number is a 'chosen' seat number and that the pilot has chosen them to live with him in the next life.

EVERY NOW AND again one of the passengers begins to fade and then disappears from the flight. This leaves their seat open for a new air-born who quickly assumes the empty seat. This goes on and on and on for thousands of flight hours and still the pilot will not talk to the passengers, is it any wonder we are all so bloody mental? Yet legend has it that some of the passengers found an old manuscript under seat 666 that allowed them to communicate with the pilot. The catch is that they have to perform some pretty horrific things in order to keep the plane in the air and save all the passengers. But only these chosen passengers can hear the pilots demands. So these chosen passengers form a sect at the back of the plane called "the death cult" and hide away the secrets of how they communicate with this so called "pilot". As the generations pass, the cult progress to the point where they have been convinced by the voice of the pilot in their heads (imagined or real?) to prepare the way for him to land the plane at Gate7. This is a place that they secretly call The Golden Gate or Golden Arches. From there they believe that they will live with their pilot in a place they have come to Call The Golden Age. The catch is, only those who have been chosen to be in the cult can live in with the pilot in the land beyond the rainbow, in the giant cubed city. The rest of the passengers must be sacrificed for the greater good, or the plane will be too heavy to survive the landing. But they cannot know that this is their fate or they will rebel. So they have to be played off against each other to free up their seat before the landing time comes. The cult consists of only a tiny few, so they cannot empty the plane by force. They must convince the other passengers that the only way to get off the plane and to live safely on the ground in a place they now call Heaven, is to build the technology to bridge the gap. Once this technology is built then the passengers who are not in the cult and cannot hear the pilot will be able to upload themselves through the black mirror of their devices and off out the top of the plane, landing safely in heaven. Or at least this is what the concept and belief that they have been sold by the death cult. The cult have convinced the rest of the passengers that this was communicated to them by the pilot and he has called it "The Techno-Rapture". The scam is that once everyone else has uploading themselves, the cult believe that plane will be light enough to float safely through the Golden Arches and into the Cubed City.

Cut To: The Citadel of The Upside Down

A radio tower stands tall within a fortress surrounded by seven walls. The main Citadel (government office) is located on the seventh floor, just below the eight floor where the pilot resides. Gathered in the Citadel are the air traffic control demons who are sending their communications directly to the 'death cult' who gather at the back of the plane. These demons disguise their intentions and true nature from those they are communicating with, playing with them like puppets. The main aim of the entire scam is to get the cult at the back of the plane to convince the other passengers to construct the technology that will create a doorway (Black Saturn hole) that will allow the demons to step into their reality. None of the passengers on the plane, including the cult, known the truth about what they are contributing to. The Demon who is playing the role of the pilot sits on the eight floor of the Citadel, watching, waiting for the door to open. Floor eight has always been pitch black, with no central light to pin point your location to. The pilot was sent there as punishment for his own sins in the ancient world. This eighth floor is also known as the Land of Nod. The Land of Nod and the Citadel exist in the upside down world where everything is inverted. As the pilot waits in the pitch black of the Land of Nod, his biggest fear is that enough passengers will wake up and realise that they have been put to sleep by the inflight headsets. When enough wake up they will reach an event horizon that will trigger the entire plane of passengers to wake from their slumber. This will include the cult, who gather at the back of the plane. For the pilot knows that the plane never left the ground, it was all a simulation and all they had to was open the exit door and walk outside. If this happens the pilot will be trapped inside the Land of Nod forever.

THE FALLEN

So that is one hell of an analogy and might make a cracking Netflix series. But let's stick with this scenario for this chapter at least, and I hope that you get that what I am doing here is using the same methods of alchemical magic that those in Hollywood use, but in this case I am using to demonstrate how it all works. In fact Hollywood is based on a place in Rome called Nemi, that is located around a locked lake called Diana's Mirror. Most will know that the name Hollywood comes from the holly tree and the magical wand which was made from the holly trees. Diana's Mirror was a place where wealthy sailors were enticed by beautiful "witches" who promised them the gift of immortality in exchange for their wealth. The concept of immortality today is the symbolic meaning behind the term "becoming a star" and the walk of fame could be seen as a sacrificial list of those who have been caught in the trap. So who are these "fallen angels" that toil away on floor seven in my analogy? We have an entire world of super villains available to us as examples of these beings who have appeared as the demonic forces throughout the ancient world and modern day religions. In fact there is an entire realm of research and investigation into the topic called Demonology dedicated to the information. Here will look at a few of the more obvious ones, just to get a feel for those who I believe exist just outside of our visible light spectrum and who have an influence on us on an energetic level here in our reality.

ARCHONS

This might be the most difficult set of demons to write about, simply because so much has been written about them already. Authors such as David Icke 'The Trap' (37) and John Lamb Lash 'Not In His Image' (38) have done ground breaking work bringing knowledge of these ancient entities into the modern world. But for a quick recap let's take a little look at these meddlers. The word Archon comes from greek word meaning ruler, and of course we have the term 'Arc' which connects into something that might lord over others. We also have the Arch of the Covenant, Noah's Ark, Arch Angels, The Arch of the rainbow and the arch of electricity of the Arch of the Covenant, which I believe to be a gateway or portal to another world. The Nag Hammadi Library (scriptures) are a collection of writings that were discovered in a cave near the upper Egyptian town of Nag Hammadi in 1945 by an Egyptian Farmer named Muhammed al-Samman. The writings consist of 52 Codices of Gnostic treatises as well as a partial translation of Plato's Republic. Much of the Gnostic belief system as well as the Kabbalah are based on the works of Plato and his followers. The first mention of the Archons in the Nag Hammadi text can be found in a section called 'Yaldabaoth's World Order'. The section begins by explaining that Yaldabaoth, also known as the Demiurge, was the "first ruler, the archon who took great power from his mother. Then he left her and moved away from the place where he was born. He took control and created for himself other aeons with luminous fire, which still exist. He mated with the mindlessness in him and produced authorities for himself".

THESE ARCHON WERE NAMED:

- Athoth (The Reaper)
- Harmas (The Jealous Eye)
- Kalila-Qumbri (The Third Eye)
- Yabel
- Adonaios (Sabaoth)
- Cain (The Sun)
- Abel (7th)
- Abrisene
- Yobel
- Armoupieel
- Melcheir-Adonein
- Belias (Lord of the underworld)

YALDABAOOTH THEN STATIONED seven kings (seven is completion in Kabbalah) one for each sphere of heaven, to reign over the seven heavens. He then chose five to reign over the Abyss. It is said that he then shared his luminous fire with them but kept the power of the light he took from his mother for himself. When the light mixed with Darkness it made the darkness shine. This is where we get the Kabbalistic notion of the "shimmering darkness", as well as the Kabbalah coding 'turning darkness into light' which is so often used by these dark occultists, as well as those who have absolutely no idea what it really means. One fascinating addition to this information is that Yaldabaoth is not the prime god of the Gnostic belief system, he is simply the god of this reality/matrix which is the realm of duality. This is why the Freemasons use the chequer board flooring in all of their buildings, they are mimicking the Great Architect of this realm. Above Yaldabaoth the Gnostics put a fella named Abraxas who is above duality yet contains them both, as well as the 365 Archons, one for each day of the Solar Year. The Nag Hammadi Texts say "when light mixed with darkness, it made the darkness shine. When darkness mixed with light, it dimmed the light, and I became neither light nor darkness, but rather gloom". This is the gloom that these lunatics want us to live under, and they tell you all the time with phrases such as "shimmering darkness" and "from darkness to light". This is an explanation of the shimmering darkness that relates to the Kabbalah:

"Shimmering darkness" in a Kabbalistic context refers to the state of the Divine before the creation, a primordial void or Ein Sof, from which Divine Light emanates and through which spiritual growth occurs. This concept suggests that within the deepest "darkness" lies hidden potential and light, a theme explored in Kabbalistic teachings on the nature of the soul and the process of spiritual transformation"

WHAT WE ARE TALKING about here is essentially chaos, and the cult see's chaos as a necessary evil, in fact they see us as chaos. Researcher and author Christopher Jon Bjerknes proposed that the first born of everything was cast in the role of chaos, as was the case with the biblical characters Cain and Esau. From that chaos then comes the second born which is order. For example it would be Abel and Jacob who were considered the order that came after the chaos of Cain and Esau. You could even apply this to Jacob taking the name Israel, as being his new ordered identity from the chaos of being Jacob. Remember they want to return the world back to the Ein Sof in order to bring Heaven down to earth. So for a time we would reside in the shimmering darkness of chaos before being born again in Olam Haba or the New Order of The World. The cult also see Israel as the kingdom of order after the chaos of the Egyptian Kingdom. The Nag Hammadi says that the Archon has "three names" the first two are "Yaldabaoth" and "Sakla" and the third is "Samael". Samael in Kabbalah is believed to be the consort and male half of the beast, which is a combination of both the male Samael and the female Lilith. Lilith is said to be able to shape shift into a blue butterfly, which will connect into the underground transhumanist insanity of Jeffery Epstein, that will we come later on in this book. The Nag Hammadi Texts go on to say that Yaldabaoth organised this new world "after the pattern of the first aeons that had come into being, so that he might create everything in an incorruptible form". This appears to suggest he was making a back up or copy of the original world, yet attempting to control it fully by making it "incorruptible". The texts then say that Yaldabaoth had never seen the incorruptible ones, so in essence his take on the original blueprint of reality could not have been a perfect copy anyway, it was a guess a best.

YALDABAOth THEN GETS all pissed off because once he sees his own creation all around him and the angels that had come forth from him, he says to them "I am a jealous god and there is no other god but me". Now who does this sounds like to you? It sounds a little like Yahweh doesn't it? The god who is consumed by jealousy in the Old Testament as well as the character of Cronus who eats his own children because he is afraid they will usurp him (his son Zeus eventually does). It is pretty clear to me that they are talking about the same being here. This is because they are an archetype or blueprint of a character that must conform to their type, because that is the role they are assigned in the structure of the narrative. This is also where the one god belief of the monotheist falls flat. How can this god be jealous of other gods if there is only one god? He can't because it is total nonsense.

Exodus 34:14 "Do not worship any other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God".

IN REALITY it is well known that Yahweh was one of a pantheon of Canaanite gods. He was the god of war and weather. So the entire backbone of the Old Testament falls on its arse when you realise their monotheistic god was jealous because there were a bunch of others to be envious and jealous of. Did I mention that 19,000 children have been murdered in Gaza since October 7th 2023 because of this bollocks? The Archons are really the henchmen of the evil creator god archetype that is played by Yahweh, The Demiurge, Yaldabaoth, Saturn the list of names goes on. This is not about matching the exact attributes of each character, it is about the overall blueprint and energy of the entity. This is what most researchers get wrong, and is also the main arguing point of the Abrahamic faiths. We are talking about the basic foundations of a character and not its overall height, hair style and what type of sun glasses it prefers to wear. The old saying that "the devil is in the detail" can mean that you can get trapped forever in the tiniest fractal of a subject, never moving forward. Just last week during a train journey I sat across from two ardent Christians who were discussing the bible. One of them actually said that he often has to stop reading because he is trying too hard to find the answer and gets lost. Yes mate because it is not in there, it is in you. David Icke writes in 'The Trap' that the Nag Hammadi texts written some 1,600 years ago "describe the Archons in terms of formless energy or consciousness" and "When they did take form it was most commonly serpentine and those that look like an unborn foetus with grey and dark, unmoving eyes".

The jinn (Djinn)

Sits like a man but smiles like a reptile
She love him, she love him but just for a short while
So, scratch in the sand won't let go of his hand
He says he's a beautician and sells you nutrition
Keeps all your dead hair for making up underwear
Poor little Greene

Hoo, ooo, ooo

Jean Genie lives on his back - David Bowie (The Jean Genie 1972) (39)

"HE SITS LIKE A MAN, but smiles like a reptile"... If anyone knew then David Bowie would have known. The music industry is smothered in demons, the likes of which haunt the minds of those who dabble in black magic. Fun fact, my mum actually had a few drinks with David Bowie before he was famous, true story. The rainbow man David Bowie tried to tell us what was going on with his last album Blackstar which was released just weeks before his death. The album was recorded in secret in New York and release on his 69th birthday. The singles from the album were Blackstar and Lazarus. Lazarus is a song about Bowie's increasing fame after his death, which he knew was just weeks away by then. Jinn, also known as genies, are supernatural beings found in Islam, but can be traced back to pre-Islamic Arabia. Jinn can be believers in their god or nonbelievers, depending on whether they accept their gods guidance. They are considered neither good nor evil, it appears they have a choice in the matter. Islam believes that the Jinn are subjected to judgement in the afterlife. The Quran condemns the pre-Islamic Arabic practice of asking the Jinn for protection. They are said to be invisible, yet are composed of thin and subtle bodies which may connect in with the description of the Archons as luminous fire. So you might find one popping out of a burning bush up a mountain sometime, perhaps handing you a couple of clay tablets to take down to your people who are waiting at the foot of the mountain below. An interaction with the Jinn can be either negative or positive and one of the fun things appears to be that some of them are up for a bit of how's your father and can produce hybrid offspring with you. This is something that religious demonologist and author Nathaniel Gillis has done extensive research into. Nathaniel spoke with me on an episode of Classified on ickonic.com. He told me about that the demon would stare directly into its victims eyes when impregnating them. This would imprint the energetic blueprint of the demon onto the child that was to be born. I know this sounds insane but this absolutely correlates with accounts from Jeffery Epstein's abuse victims. Nathaniel calls them "Incubus" but says primarily they were known as lovers. In pre-Islamic Arabia Jinn were believed to inhabit or haunt dark and desolated places like the desert. From my research I get the feeling that they were seen as living amongst us yet invisible to the naked eye. It is said that the Jinn were not gods but a form of energy that were worshipped in private, while their gods were worshipped in public.

THE JINN ARE BELIEVED to be able to shape shift into human form, but when they do they still retain part of their animal form. This sounds a lot like the accounts of the reptilians to me. They are said to have bottomless black eyes that appear to go on forever. This is something that has been reported for thousands of years and is not a new phenomenon at all. I personally have never seen it happen, though I have seen some strange facial distortions that happened when a creepy chap at a self development convention in London would not stop staring at me. It was like he knew that I knew what he was, and he thought it was humorous, which is what was to be fair. He was not with anyone and when a group of young ladies began to perform a dance routine he pulled up a chair and literally sat next to them in the dance space. I was looking around thinking, can't anyone else see this weird guy sitting there like he was waiting for a lap dance? A commonly held belief in Islam is that the Jinn cannot harm anyone who wears an amulet with the name for god (Allah) on it. The word Jinn derives from the Semitic root word JNN which means to "hide" or "adapt" which of course correlates with them being able to shape shift into human form, at least for a short time.

LUCIFER

In my opinion Lucifer is one of the more fascinating characters in religion and mythology, causing much divide on whether he is a negative or positive entity. Some belief systems say that Lucifer was the pre-fallen version of the angel who became Satan. Christians believe that Lucifer is a fallen angel who represents the sin of Pride. The Christian faith believe that Lucifer was once a pretty decent fella, mucking about up there with god. Yet he got too big for his boots and decided he want to usurp god, which led to him being banished from heaven, falling all the way down to earth. So on one hand we have the Christian belief that Lucifer become Satan when he was cast out of heaven, yet on the other hand we have beliefs such as Theosophy and some Freemasonic factions that see Lucifer in a more positive light. The Freemasons have been accused of worshipping Lucifer but I have found very little evidence of this. This accusation comes from interpretations of the writings of Albert Pike, a Sovereign Grand Commander of the Southern Jurisdiction of Scottish Rite Freemasonry. This is the same jurisdiction that Charles W. Adams was also a Sovereign Grand Commander of. Charles Adams was the maternal grandfather of Helen Keller who popularised the hand gesture for "I Love You" which is often mistaken for the hand sign of Lucifer or Satan. We will come back to this subject later in the book when I cover the assassination of alternative media host Charlie Kirk.

IN ROMAN FOLKLORE Lucifer is known as the "Morning Star" which is also a term that Christians use for Jesus Christ. The authors of the Bible called Jesus Christ the "Bright And Morning Star" and it is my belief that these represent two sides of the same entity and the negative and positive polarities. Lucifer is also known as Venus, which is the brightest star you will see in the morning as the Sun rises on the horizon (Horus rising). Lucifer is also known as the "Light Bringer", which connects in with the sharing of knowledge. This is why some belief systems such as the Gnostics have a more favourable view of Lucifer. To the Gnostics Lucifer was the one who set them free by providing them with knowledge of the false creator god the Demiurge. As I mentioned in a previous chapter, the Demiurge or Yaldabaoth is the ruler of the world of polarities, but he is not the overall ruler of the Gnostic system which is Abraxas, who encompasses both polarities and everything in-between. The knowledge that the Gnostics believe to have been shared by Lucifer was also the knowledge that Adam was led to when he took a bite of the apple from the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. So in this context the snake in the garden of Eden is seen as setting humanity free. The Gnostics saw Lucifer as an inner shadow that must be overcome rather than expelled. The character of Batman is also a representation of this shadow self. But the young Bruce Wayne took the pain of seeing his mother and father murdered in front of him, and incorporated this shadow into his being, thus becoming the Batman. He became the Dark knight and alchemically took control of that traumatic energy, instead of allowing it to consume him. This is called 'shadow work' in Jungian systems, which is a process I would recommend you only do when you are mentally and emotionally strong and have someone you can trust to guide you. I actually worked with two men at the same time who are well known in the fields of psychology and personality disorders, and looking back now I can see that I was working with one man who had incorporated his shadow for good and another who had let it take over him entirely. You could see these two archetypes in Batman and The Joker, and perhaps we see this same duality in the character of the Morning Star as Lucifer and the Bright and Morning Star as Jesus Christ?

THE LATIN POET OVID (COVID), in his first century poem Metamorphosis describes the character of Lucifer as ordering the heavens:

"Aurora, watchful in the reddening dawn, threw wide her crimson doors and rose-filled halls; the Stellar took flight, in marshalled order set by Lucifer who left his station last." (40)

ALBERT PYKE WROTE of Lucifer in Morals and Dogma:

"Lucifer, the Light-bearer! Strange and mysterious name to give to the Spirit of Darkness! Lucifer, the Son of the Morning! Is it he who bears the Light, and with its splendours intolerable blinds feeble, sensual, or selfish Souls? Doubt it not!" (41)

OTHER QUOTES about Lucifer have been attached to Albert Pyke and therefore Freemasonry, but they appear to be a hoax. The quote above can be found in Morals and Dogma but to me it doesn't say Lucifer was a positive being, but asks the question as to whether positive knowledge is found hidden within the darkness, available to those who have the strength of mind to find it and not fall victim to its negative aspects. As I often say, it is all about the context of who is saying what, to who and from what perspective. And to come to this you must take the time to form your opinion based on as much supporting and surrounding evidence that you can find. The Freemasonic Grand Lodge of Carolina posted the follow about Lucifer on their Facebook page,

"This interpretation of Lucifer is supported by the teachings of Freemasonry. It teaches that the goal of life is to achieve enlightenment and that this enlightenment can be achieved through knowledge and understanding. As such, Freemasonry teaches that Lucifer is a symbol of the light that leads to enlightenment and that by following the light of Lucifer, we can achieve our full potential as human beings" (42)

IF WE TAKE this back to my analogy of Floor Seven, where the powerful yet fallen demons toil away, speaking into the ear's of the cult on the plane, then in the case of Lucifer he would simply be revealing himself as knowledge that there is another world outside of this one. It would then be up to the magician what they did with that knowledge, would they tell everyone on the plane that there is life outside, or would they keep it to themselves as a tool for manipulation and power? Knowledge is neutral, the charge of positive or negative is provided by you, the magician and the alchemist. This is the secret that the global cult understands, and their worst nightmare is that vast numbers of us begin to wake each other up to the power magicians that we are. Another name for the "Light bringer" is Helel, which can be found in Isaiah 14:12 meaning "Shinning One" or "Light Bearer". The phrase in Isaiah 14:12 is "Helel ben Shachar," meaning "shining one, son of the morning". Helel, Phosphorus and Lucifer are all names for the Morning Star. What is fascinating is the word phosphorus whilst referring to the Morning Star in Greek, is an essential mineral for building bones as well as RNA/DNA. Here we see a great example of what these allegories and mythologies really mean, they are ancient alchemical recipes or instructions for the giving of life. It seems to me at least that the entire reason that minerals such as phosphorus were personified into allegories was to pass this knowledge of the true nature of reality down through the mystery schools. The religious trick, especially the Abrahamic's, was to convince the general population to take those stories literally, which is a black magic spell that slows the vibrational essence of these truths down to a material form. Once these truths are "solid" they can then be manipulated by these dark occultists and black magicians who believe themselves to be the bloodlines of the "gods".

ONE OF THE most telling bits of information is that "The Morning Star" was a title given to the King of Babylon who fell from grace after trying to usurp God. Of course this is a story written by the authors of the Old Testament, so their view was that Lucifer was evil because the king kept them captive in Babylon. The original context of Lucifer/Morning Star was the "proud and fallen king of Babylon" which was also seen as the Evening Star before it fell to become the Morning Star. Again, they are the polarities of the same thing, one positive and another negative. I would highly recommend the YouTube channel 'Chasing Gods' for more information on this, it is run by Sandra who has fantastic knowledge on these subjects. Her website is chasinggods.com and I recommend you check it out.

THE CONTRACT of The Vampires

For those who have been allowed through the doors of these secret societies there would come a time when they would be faced with a choice. They would have to decide if they were going to use this knowledge for good or evil? One path would lead them straight back out of the lodge door, knowing that the world was nothing like they had once believed, but without the opportunity to do much about it. They would be walking away knowing they would have to rejoin the rest of us back on the farm, and spend many of their waking hours trying to warn the rest of the world that a train was coming and they need to get off the track fast. Or they could sign the contract and take the path of least resistance and bathe in the spotlight, at least for a while. But as soon as they signed that deal they were handing over their soul and playing someone else's game. The blood oath that these initiates sign is not with another man or entity of this earth, it is with a being from beyond the veil. The deal is that the black magician gets to use the powers of that demon whilst they are alive for a set period of time but eventually their soul will become the property of this being, either in this life or the next. Many P Hall write in 'Secret Teachings of All Ages':

"In the case of black magic, it is the magician and not the demon who must sign the pact (in blood). When the black magician binds an elemental to his service, a battle of wits ensues, which the demon eventually wins. With his own blood the magician signs the pact between himself and the demon, for in the arcanum of magic it is declared that 'he controls the soul who controls the blood of another'. As long as the magician does not fail, the elemental will fulfil to the letter his obligation under the pact, but the demon will try in every possible way to prevent the magician from carrying out his part in the contract. When the conjurer, ensconced within his circle, has invoked the spirit he desires to control and has made known his intention, the spirit will answer somewhat as follows 'I cannot accede to your request nor fulfil it, unless after fifty years you give yourself to me, body and soul, to do with as I may please'. (43)

THIS IS what is meant by a person selling their soul, in reality they sell their ability to sleep sound at night. I am sure many who have signed this contract with the dark side are spending their days trying to convince themselves that they are doing the right thing, but deep down you can never truly lie to yourself. This is why I believe so many famous people end up as addicts. This is the contract that they have to sign to make it big on the world stage, so it is my view that anyone who is world famous (Elon Musk or Donald Trump level) are deep in the rabbit hole already. This is a process that begins before you are even aware of it, so be careful who you mix with, there's sharks in the water. Or as Michael said in his 1995 song "Money".

Want your pot of gold, need the Midas touch Bet you sell your soul 'cause your God is such
You don't care, you kill for the money
Do or dare, the thrill for the money
Are you infected with the same disease of lust, gluttony and greed?
Then watch the ones with the biggest smiles
The idle jabbers
'Cause they're the backstabbers -
Michael Jackson (Money) (44)

THE SAME TRAP is waiting for those who want to get to the highest levels of religions, Knights Templar, Chabad, Politics, Business, Banking, Entertainment, Hollywood, Bitcoin, Big Tech, Big Pharma, Silicon Valley, The Military, Science, Academia, the list goes on. The system is inverted in its every nature, so you are reward with money, fame, followers, subscribers, adulation and opportunities the more corrupt you become. Yet in the process of this you lose everything that you can take with you into the next life, especially your self worth. This is why the death cult are so desperate to find the secrets to immortality. The simple fact is that they are terrified of death because they have already sold their soul, and signed that contract with an elemental. In 'The Book of Dr Faust Wittenberg', 1524 it is written:

"While the black magician at the time of signing his pact with the elemental demon maybe fully convinced that he is strong enough to control indefinitely the powers placed at his disposal, he is speedily undeceived. Before many years elapse he must turn all of his energies to the problem of self-preservation, a world of horror to which he has attuned himself" (45)

Is this why we see the likes of Alex Karp of Palantir acting so strange on stage, and saying the most bizarre things in front of a live audience? Is he afraid of having to pay the piper when his time in the spotlight is up? Elon, Zuckerberg, Karp, Trump, Netanyahu, Klaus Schwab and many others look like they are in survival mode. Dr Wittenburg says that these black magicians "exist on the edge of a seething maelstrom, expecting momentarily to be sucked down into its turbid depths. Afraid to die because he will become the servant of his own demon, the magician commits crime after crime to prolong his wretched earthly existence. Realising that life is maintained by a mysterious universal life force which is the common property of all creatures, the black magician becomes an occult vampire, stealing this energy from others" (45). This would make sense of so much of the strange and often satanic behaviour of many of the world's most rich and famous. The Doctor goes on to add "According to medieval superstition, black magicians turned themselves into werewolves and roamed the earth at night, attacking defenceless victims for the life force contained in their blood" (45). The sad reality is that these black magicians know that when their time is up and death comes calling their name, they will become the slave of the demon that they signed a contract with. This is why the transhumanist and technocrats are chasing immortality, they need to stay "alive" in this realm for as long as possible, before they have to pay for their sins in the next world. Everything from the introduction of nano-technology into the human body, to the roll out of artificial intelligence, to the internet of all things, a third temple in Jerusalem and the sacrifice of thousands of children in Gaza are all part of this desperate race to stay alive forever. These sad and pathetic people are on a road to nowhere, being chased by the evil creator god that haunts their every conscious moment. They know the clock is ticking and time waits for no man, whether you a robot or human 2.0 our time will come. I am okay with that because I know I have tried my best and my intentions were good, these black magicians cannot make that claim.

TRIPLE CROWN INC

Most people have no idea that the world is already run by a global corporation, one that I call the Triple Crown. This is a cult owned corporation that has its major centres of control in The Vatican, Washington DC and The City of London. The Triple Crown comes from the Papal tiara worn by the Popes of the Catholic Church, and the Catholic Church is really the church of Babylon relocated. The Papal tiara is a crown with three levels, a little bit like a big gold wedding cake. It was last used by Pope Paul VI in 1963. It has since said to have been abandoned, by my guess is that it will be brought out again for the return of the ceremony of the "Messiah" or "Anti-Christ" in the near future. The Triple Crown may symbolise the three elements that make up the corporation, and the Holy Trinity. The Vatican is a sovereign state, The City of London is a self governing city and Washington DC is a district. These three elements make up what I call the Triple Crown corporation. Their banking is done through the Bank of International Settlements in Basel Switzerland, which is clearly modelled on the Tower of Babel. The sad thing is that most people do not know this, they believe that Washington DC is run by the people of America and their President. The truth is that the US President is simply an area manager for the cult. The City of London even has its own Lord Mayor who is currently Dame Susan Langley (since November 2025), as well as its own Police Force (45). The United States is run through what is known as the Middle Temple in the City of London, this is just one of the four legal inns or courts that exist in the City. Just look at the architecture of all three locations, and it becomes obvious that you are looking at a Roman cult that can be traced back to Babylon. In Washington DC we have the seven hills including Capitol Hill, which are based on the seven hills of Rome, these include Capitoline Hill. In the City of London the Royal Exchange is clearly modelled on the Temple of Saturn in Rome, and the Supreme Court Building in Washington DC is clearly based on the same Temple. This temple was dedicated to their god Saturn, who I say is another character based on the evil creator god blueprint.

BRANCH 1: The City of London

The City of London has its own Police force (force is a freemasonry term for energy) which is separate from the Metropolitan Police (MET) who govern Greater London. Greater London is the vast landscape outside of the square mile that is the 'City of London'. This square mile links in with freemasonry, which describes a member being "on the square" which also corresponds with the black and white duality flooring of every lodge. The term "MET" in Hebrew means 'dead' so that means that the police who govern over Greater London are the police of the dead, the walking zombies who have no real say over their own lives. The use of the term MET is in no-way an accident or a coincidence, these guys are telling you that in terms of this global corporation you are a dead entity to them. In fact the death cult leech off a dead entity that they create in your name, from the moment that your parents assign you a birth certificate. This piece of paper is a contract that sets up a corporation under the all CAPITAL letters of your name. So technically everyone is self employed, but your energy is looshed by these parasites in the form of taxes. In reality you now work for the Crown, whether you know it or not, and the Crown is a corporation run by the cult. The term "corporation" comes from the latin word "corpus" and means 'body of people'. It doesn't take a genius to work out that it is also connected to the word 'corpse' which is a dead entity. The all CAPITAL bad copy of you is a "body" or "Corpse" that they use to loosh your energy in this 3D reality. They cannot own us as sovereign beings, so they have tricked us into working for a corporation created under our CAPITAL names. I would argue that this "contract" is void because as infants we are not able to make our own cognitive decisions, we would be incapacitated.

IN THE MIDDLE of London's Temple district you will still find the original round temple of the Knights Templar. The Temple grounds are home of the Crown offices at Crown Office Row. This the control centre of the global legal system, which includes all Crown colonies such as Canada and the United States. Researcher and author David Icke writes in 'The David Icke Guide To The Global Conspiracy' that the United States is controlled through a network of 'Inns of Court' that are the "Inner Court, Middle Temple, Lincoln's Inn and Grey's Inn" (47). These are simply secret societies that are a law unto themselves. It is the Middle Temple that controls the legal systems of the United States, and it is the Middle Temple that the Queen Mother was a member of. The official website of the Middle Temple, middletemple.org.uk said of the coronation of King Charles III after he took over from his mum:

"Earlier this year, the Honourable Society of the Middle Temple congratulated His Majesty King Charles III on the occasion of his Coronation. Since the Inn's inception, 28 monarchs have been crowned, including the present King. We look back at how these occasions have impacted and been celebrated by the Inn, and how law and justice have been woven into the symbolism and ritual at the heart of the Coronation ceremony" (48)

ALTHOUGH KING CHARLES is not listed as an official member, can we really trust what these crooks are putting out there for the public to see? They do however list Prince William as being as member of the Middle Temple as well as Sadiq Khan who is the current Mayor of Greater London. David Icke writes that "The Inner Temple controls the legal system franchise for Canada and Britain whilst the Middle Temple does the same for the United States". All Bar associates through the world pledge a solemn oath to the Temple. This City is not part of England and is not subject to the Sovereign or Rule of Parliament. The City is run from the Mansion House that is across the road from the Rothschild-controlled Bank of England. Although the official line is that the City is not a sovereign state but a "self governing city" let's be honest, what is the difference? They are a law unto themselves so at the end of the day it's Pepsi Cola. The City of London is hilariously guarded by a flying dragon holding the shield of the Knights Templar. The emblem of the City consists of two flying reptiles (why have one when you can have two) holding a shield with the Knights Templar Red Cross on it. This is all symbolic of the dual reptilian bloodlines that these lunatics believe they are either descended from (perhaps they are) or are in contact with via the many and various Temples located all over the world.

THE KNIGHT'S And The Temple

For those who have been doing this research for some time, have you ever wondered why all aspects of the cult are obsessed with rebuilding the Temple of Solomon? For a temple that has left us no actual evidence that it existed, the obsession with it is incredible. The Knights Templar have a long history with this famous Temple, that is believed to have once stood on Temple Mount in Jerusalem. The Knights Templar are just one of several secret societies that came about in the 12th Century. These include the Knights Hospitaller, Teutonic Knights and the Templar Knights. The Knights Hospitaller are known today as The Knights of Malta (Roman Catholic) and The Knights of St John of Jerusalem (Protestant). The official head of the Knights of Malta is located in Rome and is said to be the white Pope, while the head of the Knights of St John of Jerusalem are based in London and is said to be the King. The Knights Templar were the military arm while the original Knights Hospitaller were the medical faction. The fact is that the Knights of Malta (Hospitaller) and the Knights Templar are the same organisation, and Protestant vs Catholic is another divide, rule and conquer technique and an example of playing two polarities off against each other. Remember, one of their biggest scams is to divide themselves to rule, see the case of Reform UK and Restore Britain for a classic example of this, it gives the voter the illusion of choice. As Gareth Icke says "two cheeks, same arse".

THE TEMPLAR KNIGHTS were first known as the soldiers of Christ and were formed around 1118 and they are dedicated to the order of the Mother God. As they promoted a christian image this mother god was taken to be the Virgin Mary, but in reality it refers to ISIS or Semiramis. The Virgin mother and her son is an ancient blueprint that was superimposed on the characters of Jesus and Mary. The Grand Lodge of Freemasonry is called the 'Grand Mother Lodge' and is located on the corner of Great Queen Street in London. I have actually stayed in a hotel just up the road from the lodge when I found myself in a weird situation filming a self-development event in this hotel. It was bloody weird and I believe that the person I went with is well connected to the freemasons, although they have denied it many times. The person I was with even parked their van across the street from the Grand Mother Lodge, leaving it on the side of the road. He just said it would be fine, which was odd to me. We were then upgraded to a room in the posh hotel on Great Queen Street for a reason that was never explained to me, and the staff treated this little Italian looking woman who was hosting the event and her daughter like they were royalty, all very odd. That night we went to a bar next door, I wasn't drinking because I knew it was all a bit weird. We then went downstairs to a nightclub which must have been connected to the back of the Grand Lodge building. I just sat on the seats, whilst people gave me funny looks. I knew they were reserved but I was so tired by then I didn't care. Some bloke looked over and laughed in a kind way, as if to say "good for you". When I did get up a young kid with some scantily dressed young women took the seats, and the boy got out a stack of money. It was all silly bollocks and I left after about thirty minutes and went back to the hotel whilst my friend stayed and rolled in some hours later. It was pretty clear to me that I was knocking at the door of these secret societies but I also knew enough even back then not to get involved. Maybe it was because my Great Great Grandfather William Willett was a well known Freemason in Surrey? He was the chap that pushed through the concept of Daylight Saving Time. I have to say I really do look like him, you can google him and see for yourself. The concept of Daylight Saving Time will likely have some esoteric meaning and I would assume be connected to some mystery school teachings in some way.

THE TEMPLARS CLAIMED to be protecting pilgrims on their journeys to the Holy Land, but there were only nine of them. Many researchers believe that they were actually the protectors of a secret society called The Prior of Sion. I have filmed with Gareth Icke at one of the famous locations connected to The Priory of Sion. We were met by a lovely chap who belittled the existence of The Priory of Sion, though he had a twinkle in his eye as he laughed it off. The first Grand Master of the Knights Templar was a chap called Hughes de Paynes, which is an hilarious name that reminds me of the medical condition piles. He was alleged to have been married into the St Clair family who are said to be a reptilian hybrid blood-line. Of course the official story will dismiss the Prior of Sion as a hoax, as they do with everything that they cannot explain away. The Templars were given quarters near to Temple Mount, which is the where the cult and its various assets such as Chabad Lubavitch and the Freemasons claim to be the location of Solomons Temple. Two symbols of the Knights Templar were a black and white flag with the fire cross at the centre, and the Skull and Bones flag, which is now used by a secret society at Yale University. The Templars were made official by the Vatican in 1939, starting with Pope Innocent II. In an extraordinary short time the Templars had amassed great wealth, land and hundreds of new members that included recruits from noble families who gave all their wealth to the order. The national headquarters of the Templars was originally on land now known as High Holborn, but as David Icke writes in 'The Biggest Secret' they soon moved to a new Temple in London which is the round temple that is still there today. This is in a place called Temple Bar and is the home of the Crown controlled legal systems of much of the world today. By the middle of the 12th Century the Templars had grown so powerful that they were only second to the Roman Church itself. This frightened the Babylonian bloodlines who controlled the Roman Church so something had to be done, and this is where we come to the infamous day, Friday 13th. Around this time the Cathar religion was huge in Southern France and challenged many of the beliefs of the Roman Church. Because of this Pope Innocent III slaughtered many of the Cathars and destroyed much of their esoteric teachings, which can be traced back to the mystery schools of Egypt. The Templars financially owned many of the Kings who appeared to be in power at the time. Whilst this was all going on the Templars were learning the secret mysteries held by their Islamic brothers in the Assassins. The Monarchs were in so much debt to the Templars that French King, Philippe IV (The Fair) had enough of them and decided they needed to be taken out. So on Friday 13th 1307 the most famous purge of the Templars took place.

OF COURSE it doesn't take a genius to see that the Templars are still very much with us today, and that they make up the upper most levels of the Freemasons which are locked into the City of London, The Vatican and Washington DC. This is why the Freemasons, The Chabad Lubavitch sect in Brooklyn, Lurianic Kabbalists, Zionists and Messianic Sabbateans are all obsessed with building the third temple. At their apex they are all assets of the same global death cult who seek to bring about their New World Order no matter what name they function under. They are all strands in the same web and they want to broadcast their laws straight into your mind from this newly built temple.

BRANCH2: Washington DC is Rome Maryland

The second rung of the triple crown can be seen as Washington DC. This remake of the Seven Hills of Rome was built on land once known as Rome-Maryland. More hilarious is that this land was given to the cult by a chap named Francis Pope! you don't need to make it up, its as ridiculous as it sounds. Francis even renamed the body of water there from 'Goose River' to 'Tiber Creek' after the River Tiber in Rome. None of this was just a quirk from a fella who was a bit obsessed with Rome. This was an occult ritual to prepare the land for it to become today's Washington DC, transferring all of the energy from the cult of Rome over to its new home in the United States. The truth is the Roman empire never fell, it just took a step back into the shadows. We can clearly see the evidence of this in the street maps, city layouts and architecture of Washington DC, The City of London and The Vatican. This is the Roman Empire which is in reality a continuation of the cult of Babylon. The Sun god they worship is not the sun we see in the sky today, it is the other sun, the Dark Sun (Son) which is Saturn, and the evil creator god blueprint. The most obvious example that I can give that Rome/Babylon was simply transplanted over the top of Washington DC are the Seven Hills of the US Capital. What are the chances that there would be Seven Hills in Washington DC and Seven Hills in Rome? it is clearly the same cult who have just packed up and colonised a bit of land in the US and relabelled it. These dark occultists also believe that the energy (data/da'at) can be transferred from one location to another, so the energetic blueprint of the cult of Babylon that became the Holy Roman Empire is now seeded into the Crown Corporate Cult. They are all the same thing.

THE SEVEN HILLS of Rome are:

1. Aventine Hill
2. Caelian Hill
3. Capitoline Hill
4. Esquiline Hill
5. Palatine Hill
6. Quirinal Hill
7. Viminal Hill

THE SURROUNDING areas in Rome include Vatican Hill, The Tiber River and amazingly The Field of Mars, which I am sure Elon Musk absolutely loves. Tradition holds that Romulus and Remus founded the original city of Rome on Palatine Hill. In 2025 it was revealed that Elon Musk had fathered a child with a lady called Ashley St Clair who they named Romulus. The child was conceived on the Island of St Barts in the Caribbean, not far from Epstein's Little St James Island. This will become highly significant when we come to the information about Transhumanism and its dark connections to Jeffery Epstein.

THE SEVEN HILLS of Washington DC are:

1. Capitol Hill
2. Meridian Hill
3. Floral Hill
4. Forest Hill
5. Hillbrook
6. Hillcrest
7. Knox Hill

THE MOST FAMOUS of these replica hills in Washington DC is Capitol Hill, which is of course Capitoline Hill. The January 6th 2021 Capitol riots were an orchestrated trap set for right wing Trump supporters, and I believe it was set by Trump for his cult handlers. January 6th is also known as the 'Feast of Fools' as well as the Christian 'Epiphany Day'. Remember they always have to work with the alchemical principles of duality, so many will still believe it was Epiphany Day when the sad reality is that to the cult, and Trump, it was the Feast of Fools. The Feast of Fools originally took place on the 1st of January but was moved to the 6th. The festival is also known as 'Topsy Turvy Day' when everything is turned upside down and inside out. The day is celebrated with a little cake that has a favour hidden inside, this allows the person who finds it to become king for the day. Ever wonder why so many people were arrested and given ridiculous jail sentences for wandering around the Capital that day? including Infowars presenter and journalist Owen Shroyer. It was because they were lambs to the slaughter that functioned as a way to make the people think that the "Deep State" were out to get Donald Trump. When Trump (Drumpf) is clearly owned by the cult on so many levels, including being bailed out by Wilbur Ross on behalf of the Rothschilds decades ago. 99% of US citizens truly believe they live in the land of the free, and Mainstream Alternative Media mouth pieces such as Alex Jones keep banging on about 1776. The sad reality is that 1776 signified the coming out and enlightenment of the Illuminati, not the freedom of America from the Crown. The evidence shows that the Declaration of Independence was signed by Crown owned Freemasons on BOTH sides of the table. This makes that piece of paper nothing more than an in-house memo of the Crown corporation (Triple Crown Inc). Proof of this can be found in the fact that the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry have their Grand Temple in Washington DC at their Southern Jurisdiction. Those who go into the law profession in Washington DC have to pledge an allegiance to the Crown. Powerful as they are, the British Royals are not the head of the snake (or Crown) by any means, and they answer to the Vatican and the Black Nobility bloodlines. These ancient bloodlines are the likes of the Orsini family, Bourbon Two-Sicilies, The Breakspear's and The Aldobrandini family to name just a few. The general public have been led to believe that although some of these families remain wealthy, their true control is basically non-existent. It is my belief that this could not be any further from the truth.

BRANCH MANAGER TRUMP

As I sit writing this on the 4th October 2025, Elon Musk's cult owned X/Twitter is awash with a stream of posts about how Donald Trump is pushing Hamas to release the hostages, which will end the war in Gaza. First off this is not a "war" it is a genocide and secondly Trump sent 4 billion dollars to the Israeli Defence Force (IDF) in March (49), which has been used to decimate Gaza as part of the Greater Israel Project. It is frustrating to watch so many people who should know better refuse to bother to do the most basic level of research into Trump and Netanyahu. The laziness of the "alternative media" today is on par with the outright lies of the mainstream media, in fact they are one and the same. It only takes a moment to find the evidence that Netanyahu propped up Hamas years ago as a proxy army to go in and take over from Yassar Arafat's Palestinian Liberation Organisation (PLO). The newspaper The Times of Israel tried to reframe this by saying that the initial propping up and support for HAMAS backfired on Netanyahu! (50) No it bloody didn't, it did exactly what it was supposed to do. It gave Netanyahu a reason to flatten and take over Gaza under the guise that the IDF were going to "rescue the Hostages" taken on October 7th. This was all part of pushing forward to Greater Israel Project, which is in reality the Messianic agenda for a New World Order.

DONALD TRUMP IS SIMPLY a branch manager for the Crown Corporation and is controlled through the Middle Temple of the City of London, which is controlled by the Vatican, which is really the Saturn worshipping cult of Rome that came from Babylon. This is why I believe Trump jumped on a plane to England on the 16th September for his second official visit (51). This was just 6 days after the assassination of Charlie Kirk, who was shot whilst speaking at a college event in Utah. Was Trump being given his script about how he was going to respond to Charlie's assassination? Trump is a paid in full member of the cult, who was bailed out by Rothschild agent and fellow Jesuit Wilbur Ross, and is clearly in the pocket of Israel. He even moved the US Embassy to Jerusalem during his first term to satisfy his masters. He is also deeply involved with the Messianic sect Chabad Lubavitch who are desperate to bring about their world to come (Olam Haba) and build the new Temple on Temple Mount in Jerusalem. This would require the destruction of the Al-Aqsa Mosque that sits there today. We know that the Rothschilds signed the Balfour declaration with Lord Balfour in 1917 which gave the cult the land that has now become modern day Israel, this is a land that they have continued to expand. Why would the British aid in this agenda? because the Crown works through all of these shop fronts towards a common goal of global domination. Modern day Israel is simply a strong hold and proxy station (shell) that was designed to work its way down the Gaza strip and to infiltrate and take over surrounding countries. Modern day Israel was simply the puncture site of the cults infiltration of the Middle East, and it is sad to say that those who were abused so horrifically in the second world war were again being used as a reason to establish a Zionist state in the Middle East. Remember the death cult funded both "sides" of the two world wars, this is how alchemy works, they play the polarities off against each other, using your energy against you. Another blatant part of this agenda was the Project For The New American Century, which came off the back of 9/11. The PNAC was a plan to take over seven countries in five years (regime change), and we know that the number seven is completion in Lurianic Kabbalah.

THESE COUNTRIES WERE:

1. Iraq
2. Syria
3. Lebanon
4. Libya
5. Somalia
6. Sudan
7. Iran

BEFORE THAT COULD HAPPEN they had to have a little practice in Afghanistan, which is where many of the technologies that are coming into play today were tested out, including early stage artificial intelligence systems. As we know there were no weapons of mass destruction in Iraq and if you go deep enough into the symbology of it all you can clearly see the Messianic, Freemasonic, Templar Crown fingerprints all over 9/11. The numerical number 9/11 is an energetic symbolic representation of the Sigil of Saturn, which is IXXI in Roman Numerals. In fact World Economic Forum chief Klaus Schwab was with his own Rabbi Arthur Schneier in New York at the time, watching the towers come down at the Park East synagogue. My research has led me to believe that this entire agenda for a New World Order can be traced back through the bloodlines to the Saturn cult's of Babylon and Donald Trump is just the latest branch manager in a long line of brand managers that come and go.

BRANCH 3: The Vatican (Cult of Babylon)

When conspiracy theorist such as myself (proud) looks into the inner workings of this global push for a New World Order many come to the conclusion that it is the Zionists or the bankers or even the Jews. This is exactly what the cult want, they want you to think in black and white terms and not the shades of grey that is the reality of life. This being said many others come to the conclusion that the epicentre of power can be found within the sovereign state that is the Vatican. This is both true and untrue, in that there are absolutely ancient bloodlines that function through the Vatican, bloodlines that we know as the Black Nobility and Papal Nobility (intermarried) but the role of the Vatican is only part of the cult, not the apex of the cult. Having said that, I would agree that it is in the shadows of the Vatican that some of the highest levels of the conspiracy can be found.

THE INDEPENDENT STATE of the Vatican came into being in 1929 via the Lateran Treaty between the Holy See and the Kingdom of Italy. This was sold as a new creation and not an extension of the Papal States that already existed. Remember a State is a corporate franchise of the Crown, and in terms of the Vatican, the House of Savoy is the prominent Black Nobility bloodline that locks into the Crown Corporation. Publicly it is said that the House of Savoy lost power of the states of Italy in 1946, but as with the United States, I would argue that the new status (Republic) was for show and that Italian Prime Ministers and Government answer to these very powerful bloodline families, who had at this time decided it was best to hide in the shadows, at least for a while. Although the Vatican was only established as an independent state in 1929, so less than a hundred years ago, Vatican City originated when the Basilica of St Peter's was constructed in the 4th century. It wasn't until the 14th Century that the Vatican became the home of the Pope which replaced the honour once held by Rome. The Vatican is also known as The Holy See, yet the Holy See is actually the central governing body of the Vatican and headed by the Pope. The Pope is said to be the supreme ruler of the Vatican but I would argue that the Grey Pope is actually pulling the strings from behind the scenes for the bloodlines. The current Grey Pope is alleged to be Pepe Orsini from the Black Nobility Orsini family. The Orsini family includes five popes, and it is my belief that they never let that power go, they just moved into the shadows. According to their own legacy the Orsini family are descendants from the Claudian dynasty of Rome. Today Vatican City has a population of just 1,000 people and is said to be an "absolute monarchy" though some researchers would argue this point.

THE VATICAN IS CONSIDERED the spiritual centre for Catholics the world over as this is the seat of the Pope. It is also believed to have been built over the tomb of St Peter who was one of Jesus's alleged apostles and the first ever Pope. The story goes that it was St Peter who was the first to see Jesus after his resurrection, he also saw him again when he was leaving it from Rome. The arguments over whether St Peter actually ever met Jesus are often amusing but what they primarily do is assert the basic foundation that Jesus was a real person, which has also never been proven. All of this can be traced back to the fall of Rome, which in my opinion simply just morphed into the Catholic Church. At this point the Pope became the equivalent of the Roman Emperor. The Church spread the belief that because Adam had done a little bit of a Sin by eating from the forbidden fruit of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, that all knowledge found outside of the biblical text was evil. This bollocks set the world back to the point where we are only just beginning to understand some of the teachings of Plato and Socrates who's knowledge of the true nature of reality was passed down via the ancient mystery schools of Egypt. The Great Library of Alexandria became a theological college and the great and courageous teachers of their time such as Hypatia were persecuted. Hypatia was brave enough to stand up to the cult owned cowards of the time and was stoned to death for her bravery. This was all done in the name of Cyril, the Archbishop of Alexandria who was later made a Saint. Today knight-hoods are given to such vile predatory pedophiles as Jimmy Savile, so nothing has really changed.

A BROTHERHOOD SHAPE-SHIFT

The full history of the Christian religion and its division into the Catholic and Protestant arms is fascinating, and there are many incredible works out there for you to read. The purpose of this chapter though is to map out how Washington DC, City of London and The Vatican work together to form the Triple Crown Corporation. First off let me state that I doubt these lot get on all the time and see things the same way. I am pretty sure they fight amongst themselves and even assassinate their members when required. But at the end of the day it is the New World Order agenda for total global control that comes first. Everything they do must be for the greater good of the cult, and that includes taking out even your closet friend if required. So how did the Pagan cults of old become the Catholic Church of today? Well the best way for the cult to achieve this was by simply rebranding old gods as new gods. The writers simply took parts of original narratives from a wide variety of mythologies and allegories, sprinkled in some Greek and Roman gods as well as a large portion of Egyptian mystery school teachings. They then added some occult knowledge from Asia Minor and paganism and there it was, a patchwork religion that could be interpreted in any number of ways. On the surface the people believed that they were worshipping a new single god figure in Jesus Christ, when all along the stories and magical moments performed by Jesus were actually just elements lifted from much older stories. Did I mention that the Archons have no creativity so they just steal from others and then make a bad copy of it?

THE ORIGINS of the original Biblical text are a controversial subject, with some authors believing it was the Piso family that were responsible for many of the initial writings. Lucius Calpurnius Piso, the head of the Piso family, is alleged to have written the first version of the Gospel of Mark called 'Ur Marcus' in about 60AD. This information comes from 'The True Authorship of The New Testament' by Abelard Reuchlin, as outline in David Icke's 'The Biggest Secret' (52). I personally have no problem believing that a person called Jesus (under many other names) existed, but being a charismatic religious renegade is one thing, rising from the dead and disappearing up in the clouds with a sky daddy is another. This is where the supernatural mythologies of old began to be layered on top of the human being that may have been Jesus or Yeshua or Emmanuel. It was St Paul who morphed the very human character of Jesus into a supernatural Demi-God. Paul's original name was Saul of Tarsus, who was born to Judean parents and eventually became a Roman citizen, as did his parents. To begin with St Paul was a right shit to the early Christians and encouraged their persecution. But it was on the way to Damascus that Jesus popped out of the aether and appeared to him. Jesus allegedly stood in front of Paul and asked 'Why do you persecute me?'. This had such an effect on Paul and his companions (though they didn't see him, just a glow) that Paul changed his ways and became one of the leading figures in spreading the word of Jesus in the first century. There is of course no evidence that Paul/Saul existed either and some researchers believe he was the narrative invention of Pliny the Younger (Maximus) and Justus Piso. When studying film and television production at Anglia Ruskin University we were taught all about narrative plot points and structure. What happened to Paul on the road to Damascus is what you would call a "complicated action", which is an incident that turns the protagonists world upside down, and is the moment their new adventure begins.

THE CHARACTER of Paul appears to have been a vehicle for the Piso family and others to introduce ancient symbols of the Sun into the new religion. These were likely symbols of the Black Sun, Saturn to those who were allowed into the ancient mystery schools at this time. One of the main inspirations for what became Christianity was the cult of Mithra that came out of Asia Minor which is now Turkey. Some researchers suggest that Mithra was born on the 25th December, which is also the date of birth for the Roman Sol Invictus. Sol Invictus means the "Unconquered Son" or "Invincible Son" and he was the official sun god of the late Roman Empire. He was one of the main deities of worship for the Roman Emperor Constantine, until he brought in Christianity as the official religion of Rome. I believe that Jesus and Sol Invictus were aspects of the same blueprint, so he never really changed anything, the public were just tricked into believing it was a different religion. In the background the brotherhood cult was keeping a watchful eye on Constantine. This is all about energy and the directing of conciseness (force) so it made no difference if you called this entity Jesus, Horus or Sol Invictus, the energy was flowing in the same direction according to the alchemical understandings of the cult. The main concept that was lifted from earlier belief systems and transposed into the superhero version of Jesus was that of the "Virgin Birth". This blueprint can be found in the Egyptian story of Osiris, Isis and Horus. The virgin born son Horus was conceived when his mother Isis found all the parts of her husband Osiris who had been cut to pieces by his brother Set. Isis then used the penis of Osiris to impregnate herself which resulted in the birth of Horus. Horus (Son of God) later avenged his father's murder by dethroning Set. I am not saying that the story of the biblical Jesus was a direct rip off from any of these older stories, but a patchwork cut and paste of all the best bits. Jesus is a greatest hits of the pagan religions all mixed down to a dance track that has memorised millions for two thousand years.

SINCE HORUS WAS BELIEVED to be the sky it was said that he contained the sun and the moon, so father Osiris and moon mother Isis. This is simply a way of explaining the fact that children have both their mother and father's DNA. This became symbolised by the right eye as the Sun of Horus and the left eye as the mother Moon, which traversed the sky whilst Horus, as a falcon, flew across it. This is where we get the Illuminati symbolism so popular in the world of entertainment, where the famous person (star) covers either their left eye or right eye, this symbolises which deity they worship, the Sun or the Moon. To further complicate matters we then have the dark sun Saturn, which inverts both of the symbols so it is incredibly difficult for an outsider to really understand what the person seen doing the hand signal is actually saying. There are so many instances where the motifs and blueprints of much older stories have been transposed onto the biblical characters that it's kind of funny. For instance the story of Moses being set a drift up the river in a basket is a direct rip off from the story of King Sargon of Akkad. The fact that there was no Moses should then bring into question the entire narrative of a special bloodline. If Moses never existed then how can gods promise to Noah be authentic? How can Noah be a descendant of Moses if Moses was King Sargon? and how then can Abraham be a descendant of Noah if Noah was really Utanipsham? They can't because it's all a load of nonsense. Which would not be so bad if lunatics like the Benjamin Netanyahu didn't believe in it, which is what has led them to murder over 67,000 innocent people in Gaza (officially) with another 170,000 injured. This crap has to stop! There is no promised land, chosen people or world to come. It is a scam orchestrated by the death cult that sits behind the Triple Crown Corporation.

THE YEAR IS 2025 and this is where we are today, the religious madness in the hands of this Crown Corporation is run out of the Vatican no matter the religion that it claims to represent. Christianity was born out of the Jewish faith who gave them their saviour Jesus Christ who came from a Jewish family. All three Abrahamic religions are littered with Satanic symbology which is the old sun and black sun. We have the Tefilin, The Kaaba, The Crucifix and the cubed New Jerusalem/Zion. The Pope sits in front of a huge demonic statue by Pericle Faz-zini called "The Resurrection". I mean the bloody thing has Archons and reptilian demons coming out of it all over the place. Mr Fazzini says the statue:

"Intended to capture the anguish of 20th century mankind living under the threat of nuclear war, La Resurrezione depicts Jesus rising from a nuclear crater in the Garden of Gethsemane. Fazzini summarized the action of the statue as "Christ rises from this crater torn open by a nuclear bomb; an atrocious explosion, a vortex of violence and energy." (53)

SO HE DECIDED to depict Jesus as a demented Archon surrounded by what looks like an army of demons flying out Abaddon's bottomless pit? how bloody lovely. They always tell you and they told you on 9/11 which is the moment in the biblical text when Abaddon escapes out of the bottomless pit.

"And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon" - Revelations 9:11

MR PERICLE FAZZINI may claim that his statue is about the rise of Jesus from a nuclear crater, but let me call bullshit on that one. To me it is clearly Abaddon escaping from the bottomless pit, and I say that this statue represents Revelations 9:11. This is because at the very core of the Catholic and Protestant arms of the Christian church sits the same Babylonian cult that snaked it's way through the shadows over thousands of years, hijacking and weaponising the secret knowledge that is the birth right of all of us. The cult at the core of the Catholic Church, that runs through the Jesuits, Knights Templar, Knights of Malta and the Order of the Golden Fleece is the same cult that is run by the Black Nobility bloodlines today. This death cult know that those who go to church to worship their saviour Jesus Christ are in fact worshipping a patchwork deity of gods, fables, mythologies that feeds their energies straight back to the evil god creator archetype.

LOCKED IN

So we have this unholy trinity that I call the Triple Crown Corporation that is essentially the legal front for an ancient global death cult. We have the financial power in the City of London, the military power in Washington DC and the religious power in the Vatican. So where does Satanism fit into all of this? The first thing to understand about Satanism is that it is the practice of inversion. Although there are of course Satanic cults, the prime motive of them all is to invert all energies from positive to negative, and this is a key secret teaching from the mystery schools which has been expertly weaponised against us all by the cult. In fact it is the one true lesson that if universally known, practiced and studied, would bring the entire control system down over night.

IT DOESN'T TAKE Mulder and Scully of the X-Files to see the overt use of Saturn symbolism used in all major religions, secret societies and mainstream institutions of state. David Ick writes in the Perception Deception that 'Saturn is a consciousness, an Awareness or entity that can be worshipped as a 'god' (Satan, Lucifer, Morning Star, Devil)' (54). This is exactly what I have been saying about the evil creator god blueprint, it is an energy pattern and a pattern that can invade your mind, like a covert kind of possession. I want to come back to this topic later in this book where I will talk about the concept of the "Morning Stars" which is a term used for both Lucifer, Jesus Christ as well as the fallen king of Babylon. There is a reason why that term is used for all three of these apparently polar opposite entities, and that is because they are different outcomes of the same energy depending on what is done with it. Anyway, it doesn't take Steven Hawkins to realise that the God of the Old Testament is the evil creator god that is the Demiurge, which is also held in the energy of Saturn and duality. This is a distorted and inverted energy pattern and it's this energy field that these messianic lunatics tap into whilst hiding behind the religions that they use as a shield. These satanist and demonic worshippers are using the genuine kindness and decency of people who truly practice the faiths of Christianity, Judaism, Hinduism and Islam. They use them as respectable shields to hide behind. In reality they do not practice these faiths at all. In the shadows and away from the public they worship the evil creator god Saturn, Yahweh, Cronus, The Demiurge and to the freemasons the Great Architect of the Universe. And rest assured they do not love this god, they hate it but they are too afraid to tell disobey it, for they have signed a black magic contract with its demons.

THE HEX WITH IT

The evidence of who the Crown Corporation or Triple Crown Inc worship is there for those with the eyes to see. One of the most obvious symbols of Saturn is the Hexagon, or the Hexagram. The Hexagram is a six pointed star which you will most likely be familiar with because it appears on the flag of Israel. This six pointed star consists of two overlapping triangles that create the pattern of a hexagon at its centre, with six triangles around its edges. Whilst this symbol is not a "Jewish" symbol and can be found in most mainstream religions, it has become a symbol for the dark occultists as well. This is also a symbol connected to Saturn and relates to the cube of Saturn, which is a 3D version of the Hexa-

gon. The Hexagon in geometry is a six sided polygon, and is often used in occult practices as an area in which an entity is invited into. This is not to be confused with the Pentagram which is a five point star that is often inverted by Satanists to form the outline of Baphomet. Another name for the Star of David is the Seal of Solomon, this is the same Solomon that allegedly built the first temple on Temple Mount. The word "Hex" is often used to describe a spell that one casts on a person they wish to destroy or control. It also another term for "High Energy X-Rays" which is pretty interesting given its occult connotations.

THE HEXAGRAM CONNECTS in with Saturn in some incredible ways. At the North Pole of the planet Saturn you will find a pulsating cloud that is shaped in a hexagram. Many researchers believe this hexagram to be broadcasting a wavelength of control directly into the human mind. Saturn's hexagram was discovered during the Voyager Mission in 1981 and revisited by Cassini Huygens in 2006. During the observations of the North Pole hexagram it changed from a blue cloud into a gold tone. The South Pole of Saturn has a Vortex, which makes me wonder if the entire planet is a converter of some sorts? One that takes electromagnetic energies from the ether, and then broadcasts them into the mind of every human being? As strange as this sounds, we know that Saturn was once without its rings and that it shared our sky with the Sun we have today. According to some beliefs, the hexagram was featured on the ring of King Solomon, and it allowed him to communicate with spirits and control the elements. The elements being earth, air, fire and water with the fifth element being ether, or what we know today as plasma. At the root of all of these occult beliefs are the hermetic and alchemical principles. This means that modern day Israel have chosen the six sided Seal of Solomon (Star of David) because they know that these elements can be controlled within the hexagram that sits at its centre. The dark occultists behind the foundation of modern day Israel also know that the vibrational and electromagnetic tones of the six pointed star can be used as a portal. Everything they are doing in the Middle East is based on occult teachings passed down through the mystery schools. You can find the six point star (and inner hexagram) on the great seal of the United States, placed at the crown of the Eagle. This is because the United States is a colony and crown franchise of the Triple Crown Corporation, it is under the control of the cult. The hexagram is also a 2D Cube, which is why you see the cube in all the major religions of the world, it represents Saturn which in turn represents that which is trapped inside the cube (Saturn). Remember I said earlier that the Hex is the shape used to mark out the area in which a demonic entity can be conjured up and controlled? Well this is what they are doing to every single one of us. The cult have boxed us in by dialling our awareness down so that it stays inside the cube, most human beings do not think outside of the box.

THE CUBIC HEIRS

The bloodlines of the brotherhood that took over the mystery schools after Atlantis was destroyed know the power of symbology, vibration, colour, light and sound. The cube is the Matrix sized box that most people live in. The cube can be found in Islam with the Kaaba at Mecca. Those who make the trip to Mecca (not the bingo) are asked to circle around the Cube anti-clockwise seven times. This is a ritual called Tawaf which actually means (circumambulation) which is a fun word. This ritual is said to symbolise the unity of believers in their allegiance to the one god Allah. The fact that they have to do it anticlockwise might have given it away that it's all a wind up, or is it a wind down? The Kaaba is a giant black and white cube, with some gold trimming that completes it just nicely. In one of the corners of the Kaaba is something called the Hajar-Al Aswad or Black Stone. This black stone is found at the eastern corner of the Kaaba and is believed to have descended from heaven and possibly been around since Adam and Eve. Muslim's will often touch or kiss the black stone as a way of being closer to their faith. The freemasons also head East towards the star Sirius or the Dog Star. I am not having a go, do what ever makes you happy and believe what you like, but what are the chances that you are being asked to circle anticlockwise around a massive cube (Hexagon/Hexagram) and then kiss a black cube that is pieced together inside the eastern wall of that giant cube? all of which are classic symbols of Saturn.

ANOTHER BIT of cubic dot connecting can be seen with the Jewish Tefillin. A Tefillin is a small cube that is strapped to the head of a believer, with long straps that are wound around the arm. Inside they contain scrolls of parchment inscribed with verses of the Torah. What many will not know is that the Oral Torah (Talmud) gives a more in-depth understanding of what those verses mean when compared to the written Torah. The Talmud comprises the 'Mishnah' which is the original record of the oral Torah, and the 'Gemara' which is the commentary and debate on the Mishnah. So the Torah itself is open to interpretation deepening on the individuals level of understanding. So these chaps wearing little fragments of the Torah on their heads inside a Saturn black cube do not know what these teachings mean across the board, because they mean different things to different factions of the faith. The explanation of this is that in the Torah there "are contradictions" which are accepted as "unresolved" rather than "untrue", there's some legal speak for you. Put that through the Orwellian interpretation software and this means that they are making it up as they go along. There's also a lot of controversy over whether Jesus is described as "boiling in excrement" in the Babylonian Talmud, with some arguing that the name "Yeshu" refers to "Yeshua", which is the Hebrew name for Jesus. Others argue that the timelines do not match up and that there is no truth to this. My view is that whatever the truth, it is a great way to pit Christianity against Rabbinical Judaism.

The Tefillin can be placed on either the head (shel rosh) or on the arm (shel yad) and are intended to be a reminder of the Exodus from Egypt. The Tefillin and Kaaba are both clearly symbols of Saturn, as is the name of the intelligence agency Black Cube. This agency was founded in 2010 by Former Israeli Intelligence officers Dan Zorella and Avi Yanus. Employees of Black Cube include former employees of Israeli Intelligence Units such as Mossad and the IDF. Black Cube claim to provide intelligence for "white collar crimes" (55) which means corporate criminal activity. They have been criticised for not following the rules and their headquarters are based in Tel Aviv and London. Their clients are mostly oligarchs and global corporations. In Romania two of its employees were convicted of harassment and hacking. Hollywood pervert Harvey Weinstein appears to have used Black Cube to harass and intimidate women who were accusing Weinstein of abuse (56).

BLACKROCK ARE one of the world's most famous investment companies, alongside the likes of Vanguard, who have shares in each other's companies. Vanguard is actually BlackRock's biggest shareholder, so the difference between the two companies is paper thin at best. BlackRock has been criticised for investing in companies involved in fossil fuels, the arms industry and the Peoples Liberation Army. BlackRock was founded in 1988 by cult asset Larry Fink, who has been cosying up to Donald Trump in 2025. Speaking of the orange one, Donald Trump proudly displayed a giant black cube at the top of his Trump Tower in Istanbul. They use the black cube of Saturn because it is an energetic transmitter receiver of dark Archon energy. As well as a portal of worship that connects them to their evil creator god. Remember what I wrote about the hexagon being at the centre of the hexagram (Star of David/Seal of Solomon)? This shape acts as a portal and stage area for these demonic entities to enter our reality. They cannot stay for long but they can stay long enough to frighten the living shit out of those attending the Satanic Ritual and to deliver their demands. This is why all of these symbols, such as the Tefillin, Kaaba, BlackRock, Black Cube and the Hex at the heart of the Star of David are weaponised by the cult. I know I am repeating myself in this book, but my aim in doing so is to retrain our minds to think as they think, so we can understand how they see the world and therefore we can do something about it before it is too late.

A SIGIL AND A Square

As everything is vibrational energy (electromagnetic), the symbols of Saturn connect in an interchangeable way. This can be hard to follow unless you can speak the language and see the links. Once you begin to tune yourself into this way of thinking you start to see the patterns and connections everywhere. The world around you really does begin to look like an entirely different place, because you process information in a different way. One of the key symbols of Saturn is the 'Magic Square of Saturn' which is a 2D square with the numbers 1-9 written inside each square. The numbers are ordered in a way so that when you trace a single line from the number 1 to the number 9 you will map out the shape of the Sigil of Saturn. It might not surprise you that you can find the Sigil of Saturn at the heart of the Balmoral Crest of the British Royal Family. Balmoral Castle is the Scottish hideout and deeply Satanic residence of the British Royals in Aberdeenshire, Scotland. The castle was brought by Prince Albert the husband of Queen Victoria.

I HAVE BEEN to Balmoral Castle and filmed at the huge stone pyramid hidden deep within the forest grounds. This huge stone pyramid sits at the top of a large hill and can only be described as creepy. Balmoral was where Queen Elizabeth II died in September of 2022. After her death the cult projected a couple of rainbows in the sky over Buckingham Palace as affirmation of gods alleged 'promise' to Noah to never flood the world again. The Sigil of Saturn is connected to works like the Key of Solomon which is a grimoire written in the 14th or 15th Century. This book inspired later works such as The Lesser Key of Solomon in the 17th Century. These works were influenced by the Kabbalah (mystical) and no doubt have much occult knowledge encoded within them. The Sigil of Saturn is said to represent the intelligence of Saturn which I would suggest means the hidden knowledge (Da'at) of Saturn that is broadcast into the minds of those who take part in the cults rituals. Standing at the top of the huge stone pyramid at Balmoral, I got the distinct feeling that dark things go on inside that stone structure. I also felt that what we are seeing at the top of the mountain is only the tip of a structure that may lead to a tunnel system below that connects back to the castle itself. Myself and three other fully grown men walked to that pyramid with film kit, and there is noway that the Queen walked the same path as we did. Therefore I believe there must be another way of accessing this pyramid and my guess would be that this is via a tunnel system from underneath the Castle grounds. Also ask yourself, why would the royal family put the sigil of Saturn at the centre of their most famous home? one that Queen Victoria lived in who took to wearing all black after her husband Prince Albert died in 1861, the original black widow. There are two concepts, at least in the mainstream, that are attached to the Sigil of Saturn. The first one is that it is pattern and astrological sign that creates "tension and challenge". Exactly, this is all about creating space for chaos, as is the case with the hexagon that sits at the heart of the Star of David. This shape has the power to create a vortex for beings beyond the veil. Astrologically the Saturn Square is a challenging 90 degree angle that Saturn forms with its birth position around a person who is in their mid-thirties. This appearance serves as a "reality check" and a "test of lessons learned since the Saturn Return". The second concept is its use as a talisman in occult rituals. If you add all the numbers up on each line of the cube you will get the number 15, if you add those two numbers together you end up with 6. Therefore each side of the Magic Square of Saturn reveals the number 666, the number of the beast. Remember all of this is energetic and has an effect on our reality. The Cube of Saturn, Sigil of Saturn and 666 are gateways for the same distorted energy. So why would the Windsor Family want this symbol at the heart of their Balmoral Crest? Let's take a moment to remember that the royal family of England as supposed to be a Christian family and its King is the head of the Church of England. Why would they have a Saturn symbol on the gates to their own home? This is because the Catholic and Protestant arms of Christianity were divided so that they could be pitted against each other as part of an alchemical black magic spell. This spell would give birth to the new one world religion of Saturn, or the X Religion of transhumanism. At the highest levels of the Roman Catholic Church the Black Nobility Bloodlines lock in with the European royal bloodlines who are in fact one Archontic bloodline. They run the world through their Triple Crown Corporation. As with all things involving the cult we have duality, the term "divide and rule" has been taken to mean that they divide the people to rule them, which is true. But they also divide themselves into two factions in order to control both "sides" whilst ruling them from the shadows. Christianity was divided into two factions, Catholic and Protestant and the same bloodline family and cult rule them both. The bloodline of the global death cult already use the Triple Crown Corporation to control the world, and now they are about to have their coming out party disguised as a new one world religion, a global corporation and global smart grid called the Technate.

ALL THEY NEED NOW IS AN ENEMY TO "protect" us all from... cue the fake alien invasion and the inter-dimensional saviours!

THE BLACK NOBILITY HYBRIDS

The Hybrid Bloodlines

IF YOU ARE GOING to take over a reality you are going to need your foot soldiers on the ground, but you also need to make sure you have a way of directly communicating with them, thus controlling them, without the masses knowing you are doing so. I wrote in Chapter 4: The Fable Of The Fallen, about a cult that gathered at the back of the plane, who could communicate with entities in the command tower. The reason why these lot could communicate with the "gods" was because they were hardwired into their frequency channel. It is my view that those who are able to commutate with these entities are what we call the Black Nobility or the "Blue Bloods" who have intermarried with each other. If you want to know who THEY are, then this is my best guess so far. Remember, whether we believe any of this is true does not matter. It only matters what they believe to be true, which determines how they act and how they treat humanity as a whole.

THE BLACK NOBILITY (Papal Nobility)

The Black Nobility are Roman aristocratic families that supported the Papacy after the kingdom of Italy annexed Rome in 1870. This led the Pope to claim that he was a prisoner in the Vatican. The Black Nobility sided with the pope against the kingship of Rome, and went up against the White Nobility whose titles came from secular rulers. The most prominent of those black nobility families that remained loyal to the Pope were the Colonna, Orsini, Borghese, Aldobrandini, Chigi, Sacchetti, Massimo, Pallavicini, Patrizi Naro Montoro and the Ruspoli family. Other families that are connected to these bloodlines are the Bourbon Two-Sicilies, House of Breakspear, House of Conti, House of Farnese, Este and the House of Conti. The current Grey Pope is said to be Pepe Orsini who rules over both the White Pope in the Vatican and the Black Pope who runs the Jesuits. It is impossible to say which of these bloodlines are the most powerful, and who is working against the people because nothing in life is black and white. In my view the Orsini family are way up there, having five popes including Stephen II (752 -757) Paul I (757 - 767) Celestine III (1191 - 1198) Nicholas III (1277 - 1280) and finally Benedict XIII (1724 - 1730). The current Pope is Pope Leo XIV who took over from Pope Francis, who died on the 21st April 2025 being the first Jesuit Pope.

THESE ARE the bloodlines that author and researcher Dean Henderson calls the 'Nephilim Crown'. Dean writes in his book 'Nephilim Crown 5G Apocalypse' (57) that "what few researchers realise is that on top of the illuminati head sits the idle Crown, which has to neither think nor do. They simply live a parasitic existence off the toils of humanity, justifying their well-adorned sloth with their divine right of Kings mantra". Dean is an excellent writer and researcher who has been around for a long time. I would highly recommend his books and substack account. Dean writes that these bloodlines have a different DNA and blood type than us, which is why they are called the "blue bloods". I feel that the term "blue bloods" is also connected to the term Phosphorus which means "Light Bringer" and is connected in with both Lucifer, Jesus and the planet Venus. These "blue bloods" reside mostly in Europe, but have spread their offspring to all areas of the world, especially the triple crown corporations of the Vatican, City of London and Washington DC. These families include Hapsburg, Cavendish, Windsor, Spencer, Rollo, Sinclair (St Clair), Bruce and in Asia Li, Khan, Singh and Yamamoto alongside those mentioned above, many of which have intermarried as a way of holding onto their power. Researchers such as Gary Wayne and Fritz Springmeier claim that these Nephilim Crown bloodlines rule over the Council of 33, Committee of 300 and the Round Table (58). Whether these bloodlines are truly at the top of the Illuminati pyramid is hard to tell, but we do know that they never gave up their power. They simply stepped back into the shadows, such is the case with the 1776 Declaration of Independence in the United States. This was signed on both sides by Crown agents and esquires, most caught up in Scottish Rite Freemasonry. Technically this declaration was really an in-house memo of the global crown corporation, an alchemical spell cast on the world to give the illusion of independence.

ONE OF MY go to sources for information about the black nobility is a book called 'Synarchy' by Amy WTF (58). Amy's research is straight to the point and easy to understand, she is also a nice person who I have interviewed a number of times for Ickonic.com. In Synarchy, Amy gives a detailed list of the main black nobility bloodlines, although Amy says "The Black Nobility are traditionally defined as Roman aristocratic families who overthrew the Pope and the Papal States, who were in allegiance to the pope". So some sources say the black nobility were the families inline with the pope against those who annexed Rome in 1870. Amy believes these families eventually took over the position of Pope, which also has much validity to it. I will leave you to make a decision on that one yourself. The fact is that these families still hold great power over the Triple Crown Corporation and pull the strings of those who work for the crown at lower levels of the pyramid. These include Presidents and Prime Ministers and even nations such as Israel, which we know is a fiefdom of the Rothschild banking family. I believe the Rothschilds answer to these ancient bloodlines. In 1974 David Rothschild married Princess Olimpia Anna Aldobrandini in a civil ceremony in Reux, France. This is how they hold the power within certain bloodlines, they just marry each other. This is what the cult call an "alchemical wedding" which brings together two strands of the web. Remember it was the Rothschild's who organised the bail out of current U.S President Donald Trump via Jesuit Wilbur Ross. The president is not making any decisions, he is simply playing a character on a hexagon stage where the black nobility control them as a conduit for their evil creator god. (I am editing the book on February 28th 2026 and US President Donald Trump has just attacked Iran, all part of the global death cults agenda)

AMY HUNTER WRITES IN 'SYNARCHY', that "When Queen Victoria, the matriarch of the Venetian Black Guelphs, died in 1901, the Black Nobility believed that in order to gain world-wide control it would be necessary for the members to go into business with the non-aristocratic leaders of corporate business on a global scale". I would suggest that these leaders of corporate business were already by and large under the thumb of these nobility families whether they knew it or not. Amy writes that "These powerful and wealthy groups all work together to remain in power. These Black Nobility families have their tentacles in every secret or private organisation in the world". These include the United Nations, Bilderberg Group, Committee of 300, Trilateral Commission, Council on Foreign Relations, Tavistock, The Round Table, World Economic Forum, The World Health Organisation, The World Wildlife Fund and many more.

MEET The Family - The House of Orsini

The Orsini family are deeply connected in with the Vatican which is the religious epicentre for the cult, no matter what religion they appear to be on the surface. Orsini were a prominent Italian noble family who held great power in medieval and renaissance Rome. The family rose to prominence in the late 12th Century with the election of Pope Celestine III whose real name was Giacinto Bobone. As I wrote earlier, Pepi Orsini is considered the current Grey Pope and king of the Holy Roman Bloodlines by some researchers.

THE HOUSE of Pallavicini

The Pallavicini family can be traced back to the early 11th Century making them an older house than the Orsini family. The family split into two branches (divide to rule) one based in Lombardy and the other in Genoa. These are two distinct regions in Northern Italy, the Lombardy region is a landlocked administrative region with its capital Milan. The Genoa region is a major port city. This is how you breakdown and divide yourself into factions so you can control both elements under the guise of two separate factions. These two factions can even be said to be 'at war' with each other when in reality it's simply the same old pincer movement, remember they divide to rule. They divide you to rule over you by getting you to war with each other, and they divide themselves (publicly) and pretend to war, whilst playing both sides in a pincer movement. The general public is then tricked into picking a 'side' such as Labour or Conservative when both 'sides' are controlled by the same central puppet masters. This same scam has been played over and over for thousands of years.

THE COLONNA FAMILY

The Colonna family are said to be part owners of the Vatican and rulers of the Knights of Columbus. They form part of the Papal Nobility and had one Pope, Pope Martin V. He was born Oddone Colonna and was Pope from 11th November 1417 until his death in February 1431. The Colonna Family were said to have had a bitter feud with the Orsini family over their influence in Rome. This was eventually settled by a Papal Bull (Saturn) Pax Romana by Pope Julius II in 1511. Today the Colonna family is headed by Don Prospero Colonna who was born in 1956. And you guys should see their gaff, if you think Donald Trump went overboard on gold in the Oval office recently their palace 'Palazzo Colonna' takes that decor and shoots it to the moon. The place even has several tombs scattered about its gardens, the mind boggles on what may have taken place in those over the years.

THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS are a large international Catholic fraternity founded in 1882 and the brochure says they are guided by the principles of charity, fraternity, unity and patriotism, which is fun. The knights mission is to provide a mutual benefit society for Catholic men, offer support to families, and promote Catholic values through service and action. We can see how powerful the Crown Corporations Vatican arm is in the US with the assassination of Charlie Kirk. Erika Kirk and Donald Trump are both Jesuit educated and connected to Knight factions such as The Knights of Malta and The Order of The Polar Star. Research suggests that the Colonna Family hold the position of Prince Assistant to The Papal Throne at the Vatican. They claim to be from the Julio-Claudian dynasty of ancient Rome. The Julio-Claudian family ruled Rome, which included the first five Roman Emperors Augustus, Tiberius, Caligula, Claudius and Nero. Augustus was also known as Octavian and his maternal great-uncle was Julius Caesar. Octavian was named in Caesars will as his adopted son and heir, inheriting his name, estate and the loyalty of his followers. The Colonna family use the column with a crown on top on their coat of arms which is a symbol of political power as well as one of the pillars of Solomons Temple, Jachin and Boaz. The Knights of Columbus are allegedly owned by the Colonna family and use the fasces (fascist) in their logo. The fasces is a symbol of how all of these seemingly separate secret societies such as the Knights of Columbus, Knights Templar and the Knights of Malta all connect into each other at the top. They are literally all bundled together to create part of the global corporate web of the crown.

THE BOURBON TWO-SICILIES

The House of Bourdon Two-Sicilies came onto my radar when Amy Hunter pointed out that they were knocking about with Donald Trump at his Mar-a-Lago pad in Palm Beach (59). The head of the family is Prince Carlo who Amy says oversees the New England crime family. Amy suggests that it is Prince Carlo who controls the Knights of Malta and I would be inclined to agree with her. She also says that Carlo oversees The Constantinian Order of Saint George the Royal Order of St Francis and is the "Top authority over the Jesuits and Pope Francis". With the assassination of political commentator Charlie Kirk nobody in the mainstream or the mainstream alternative media (MAM) would touch the fact that Erika Kirk was Jesuit educated. On a podcast episode that she hosted with her late husband, Erika is seen wearing the emblem of The Order of The Polar Star. Just 11 days after Charlies assassination Erika was joined on stage (after a bizarre entrance including fireworks) by US President Donald Trump. Both of these guys are Jesuit educated as I have mentioned before, which are one of the Triple Crown Corporations secret services fed through the Catholic Church. The founder of the Bavarian Illuminati Adam Weishaupt was also educated at a Jesuit school from the age of Seven. He went on to take on the position of Professor of Cannon Law, which was a position usually held by a Jesuit. Donald Trump hosted Prince Carlo and his wife and two daughters at Mar-a-Lago in March of 2018. It is my belief that these black nobility families are in control of the likes of Donald Trump and someone like Erika Kirk maybe connected also. I am not suggesting they had anything to do with the assassination of Charlie Kirk, but there are clearly avenues of investigation that are being ignored. I also believe Charlie and Erika's mate Candace Owen (Catholic) is ring fencing the publics own investigation by point the finger at Israel knowing this goes nowhere. More recently Erika and Candace have begun a very public Twitter/X war which reeks of WWE theatre to me. I believe this simply another case of the cult dividing themselves to rule, as well as a total distraction from the roll out of the artificial intelligence agenda.

AMY WRITES that the "Knights of Malta and the Sacred Military oversee international law that governs the Vatican otherwise known as the Holy See and has a permanent observer status at the United Nations". The Royal Order of Francis the First was founded in 1829 and is a merit awarded to members of the black nobility, you have to laugh don't you, here's a special badge for being special in the special club, This order was received by Prince Carlo, Duke of Castro as an award for services to charity. And because they are all wedged in the left brain of hierarchy, they need another badge on top of that badge, so Prince Carlo was awarded the title and right of Grand Master which means he is the master of all the other masters...If these bloodlines do indeed trace their lineage back through ancient Babylon, Mesopotamia, Egypt and perhaps Atlantis/Lumeria. And if they do believe themselves to be of a different stock than the rest of us, then what is it about their blood and DNA that makes them so "special". Why do they actually believe themselves to be gods "chosen ones"? Chosen to be the caretakers of the world while their Annunaki parents disappear into the shadows, somewhere over the rainbow, at least for the time being.

KABBALAH COUNTDOWN

The information in this chapter is perhaps one of the most important of the entire book and it could not have been put together without the ground breaking work of Christopher Jon Bjerknes and his book 'Beware The World To Come'. I would highly recommend that you head over to his website cjbbooks.com and check out his work.

IN 'BEWARE THE WORLD TO COME' Christopher outlines the narrative and chronological system that these Lurianic Kabbalist's are working with(60). Remember these guys hold the same beliefs as the Chabad Lubavitch sect who count Benjamin Netanyahu, Donald Trump and perhaps even Vladimir Putin among their ranks. From 1840 the study of the Kabbalah was opened to the public, this was all part of the narrative and a stage that was known as the 'Great Enlightenment' or the opening of the 'Fountains of Wisdom'. The Lurianic Kabbalah claims that Jewish people should perform for themselves the tasks and prophecies that were traditionally left to Yahweh. This is where the origins of the Zionist political movement came from, and is why we are seeing these so called "prophecies" being played out by the likes of Donald Trump and Benjamin Netanyahu. The cult would call this "faith in action" but the very act of making these things happen goes against Orthodox Judaism. I mentioned earlier that the cult believes we are currently in the year 5785 which means we are in the sixth millennium, Christopher estimates that this started around the year 1840 C:E. This can all be somewhat confusing which it is probably by design, but let me just state the basic system in terms of the days of the week. The days of creation in the Old Testament were spread across the seven days of the week. In this system each day consists of one thousand years. To the cult, the time of creation started with the genetic engineering of the first man Adam in 4000BC. We are now in the year 2025 AD, which is the 2025th year since the birth of Christ and 6025 years since the birth of Adam.

HERE ARE the rules of their game:

There are One Thousand years for each of the seven days of the week.
 There are Seven days of creation
 There are Seven days of the week
 Their week starts on Sunday and end's on Saturday
 They rest on the seventh day of the week which is Saturday (Sabbath)
 Humans as we know are to be deleted before the END of the sixth day
 The cult will live for One Thousands Years with their Messiah on the seventh day
 The end of the seventh day will bring about their
 New World Order Olam Haba

As I SAID, this can get very confusing and it requires a shift in your basic programming of the days of the week. So, they start their week on Sunday, and end it on the Saturday, which is their day of rest that they call the Sabbath. The entire week corresponds to the Biblical account of creation which happens over six days, with god resting on the seventh day (Sabbath). Each day corresponds to one thousands years, which started around the year 4000 BC with the creation of man (Adam).

HOPE YOU GOT THAT!...

I RECENTLY CAME ACROSS an image of Randy Fine wearing the Trump red MAGA hat that said 5785 on the front. Randy Fine is an American Political and former gambling industry executive. Randy was wearing this hat because Randy is a mentalist, but he is also likely a member of the Messianic cult that both Netanyahu and Donald Trump belong to. Author Christopher Jon Bjerknes writes in his excellent book "Beware The World To Come" that "The weekly Sabbath ritual has always symbolised the plan for the Jewish people to take over the world in the last 400 years of the sixth millennium from the creation of Adam" (60). To further confuse matters we have three different Calendars to take into account, I will try my best to simplify this:

Anno Lucis (Year of the light) followed by Kabbalists and Freemasons
Anno Mundi (Year of The World) Common Jews Hebrew
Anno Domini (Year of The Lord) Rest of the World Gregorian

HERE IS the standard understanding from a search engine:

Anno Lucis (A.L.) - "In the Year of Light"
Origin: Adopted by Ancient Craft (Symbolic) Masonry.
Calculation: Add 4000 to the current A.D. year (e.g 2025 A.D is 6025 A.L.)
Basis: Marks the beginning of light at creation, often linked to Bishop Ussher's 4004 BCE date.
Anno Mundi (A.M.) - "In the Year of the World"
Origin: Used in the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite.
Calculation: Add 3760 to the A.D. year, adjusting for the Hebrew year starting in September (e.g., 2025 A.D. becomes ~5785 A.M.)
Basis: Follows the Hebrew calendar's date for creation.

Key Difference

The primary difference is the starting point: A.L. uses a simplified "Year 4000" as creation, while A.M. uses the more complex Hebrew calculation, resulting in A.L. being about 240 years ahead of A.M. for the same historical event.

So WHAT WE need to understand is that we are all literally living on alternative timelines, which may be seen as different realities. You may have noticed that the search engine version of the difference between (A.L) and (A.M) calendars are attached to different orders of Freemasonry. One thing that is clear is that this is all supposed to be confusing and is a way of keeping the public in the dark as to what timelines they are working with. For example the year 5785 on the Anno Lucis calendar is 2025 on the Anno Domini Calendar. Since Kabbalist's and Ancient Craft Freemasons base their reality on the Anno Lucis calendar (Year of The Light) they believe they are in the year 5785. Again, this all gets very confusing. Whilst this lunatic plan cannot be attached to the entire Jewish faith, I do believe that a very secret and extreme orthodox faction are posing as "Jewish" who do believe in this system, these are known as Donmeh and Crypto. It is my belief is that these people are really Sabbatean Frankist and not "Jewish" in the traditional sense. These are inversions of the original Jewish beliefs, so I would question how far away from an original faiths beliefs does an off-shoot of that faith need to go, before its becomes a different faith entirely? in this way I don't think it is correct to call Sabbateanism or Frankism Jewish at all, they are inversions. These Lurianic Kabbalists have Satanically inverted the principles of the Jewish faith and then used them as a shield to hide behind. The Sabbateans then "converted" to Islam on mass, but in truth kept practicing their Heretical ways in secret. Then around one hundred years later the Frankist cult did the same but "converted" to Christianity, whilst practicing their Sabbatean Frankist ways in secret. This became the way that they operated, and still do today. In fact it seems that this cult hate those of the Jewish faith, and have no problem with using them as shield to hide behind. According to the website beyondthedalet.net run by a happy looking lady called Betty Hall, the year 5785 signifies a season for significant transitions and new beginnings. Betty says on her website:

"5785 symbolizes a spiritual gateway, where the work of the Holy Spirit opens pathways previously untraveled. As we move forward, Holy Spirit will be guiding us toward greater fulfilment of our covenant promises". (61)

To be clear Betty appears to be a Christian so she is coming at this from a Christian perspective as a believer in Jesus Christ. This is sad to see, because the Christians are being set up to be the scapegoats of this cult and Betty is probably a lovely lady. Donald Trump even told you this when his son Donald Trump Jr superimposed a goats head with a red tie onto a his dad's body, whilst he looked into a mirror. The entire image is symbolic of Donald Trump Snr playing the role of the scapegoat for the Messianic cult he is under the control of. This is the same Messianic cult his daughter is involved with, as well as her husband Jared Kushner. Also the use of the term GOAT for the Greatest Of All Time is a nod and a wink to the GOAT headed Baphomet character worshiped by Satanists world wide.

THIS WHAT WHAT the Wikipedia pages says about the year 6000:

"The Hebrew year 6000 marks according to classical Rabbinical Jewish sources, the latest time for the initiation of the Messianic Age. The Talmud, Midrash, Pirkei De-Rabbi Eliezer, and Zohar specify that the date by which the Messiah will appear is 6,000 years from creation. (62)

According to tradition, the Anno Mundi calendar started at the time of creation, placed at 3761 BCE. The current (2025/2026) Hebrew year is 5786. By this calculation, the start of the 6000th year would occur at nightfall of 29 September 2239 and the end would occur at nightfall of 16 September 2240 on the Gregorian calendar." (62)

ZIONISM IS in effect a Trojan stalking horse for the death cult or what the Kabbalists would call a Qliphoth sell. According to the Talmud "The world will be harow (ruined or desolate) during the seventh millennium, suggesting a less positive outcome". This lines up with the end times narrative of the biblical text and the seven year Tribulations. Remember this is not gods will, this is being brought about by practical means at the hands of a gaggle of human beings who have completely lost the plot, or created the plot in this case. This cult cannot be identified as simply "Jewish" or "Freemasonic" or even "Jesuit", it is a faction within all areas of society which includes some of these sects, but only at their top level. The vast majority of those in these various sectors of society, whether secret or public, have no idea what the dark occultist at the level of the black nobility have planned for them. Even sadder is the fact that most of those involved with have no idea what they are contributing to and would be horrified if they knew the truth. In 2025 alone we have had the assassination of Charlie Kirk, the ongoing genocide at the hands of the IDF in Gaza. Just three days ago as of this writing we had an attack at a Synagogue in Manchester where two Jewish people were murdered and another three were left in a serious condition. The terrorist has been named as Jihad al-Shamie, who the Guardian newspaper described as a son of a trauma surgeon and a normal family man. In recent times it appears that Mr Jahid Al-Shamie had gone bankrupt and had allegedly been accused of rape. We have Pro Palestine marches in London being labeled as Pro Hamas marches by the extreme right and we have Pro British marches being labeled as Islamophobic by the extreme woke left. This is all alchemy and is a process of creating chaos between two polarities in order to forge the new order of things. They take legitimate concerns on both "sides" of the argument such as the high level of immigration into Britain, whilst at the other end of the spectrum we have the woke teaching children about gender transformation and then they clash the two together. It is my view that the likes of Tommy Robinson (Stephen Yaxley Lennon) knows that his role is to be a kindling to fan the flames of what the cult call the "birth pangs of the Messiah". In accordance with the cults timeline that I have attempted to outline above, this would fit in to the start of the 6th day when humanity as we know it is scheduled to gradually disappear, in an inversion of the Biblical sixth day of creation when human beings were created by god. This will first come in the form of transhumanism and artificial intelligence and then progress to Human plus and Human Enhancement. The seventh day will be the thousands years of rest which corresponds with Donald Trumps "Golden Age" which is of course based on Saturn, and the eight day is code for the World To Come, to the New World Order.

THE LURIANIC KABBALAH

There are a number of different version of the Kabbala so it is easy to get mixed up in it all. This book isn't about giving you a detail breakdown of all the various belief systems, my main aim for this book is to take something that these lot have purposely made confusing and break it down in a way that we can all understand, and I include myself in this. Overall I just want you to finish this book knowing that this cult is very real and that they have an agenda that we can literally follow like movie script, which I have sketched out in this book. I have had to use analogies, narrative, humour and dry wit to get my head around this bollocks! and it is bollocks. But it's a crack head sack of bollocks that some very wealthy bloodiness and individuals absolutely believe in and are actively seeking to bring about. This will result in a world that none of us would want our children and grandchildren to have to grow up in. We can stop it, it is not too late but if my research is correct then things are heading into overtime. I guess when you have all the money in the world, stolen from the people, then what else is there to do but get shit faced on drugs and alcohol whilst causing chaos in the world!... its something to do I guess.

ONE VERSION of the Kabbalah is called the Lurianic Kabbalah, a somewhat skewed teaching of the original Platonic and Neo-Platonic teachings that came through the ancient mystery schools. There is nothing "evil" about this information or these teachings, they are neutral as is the case with all energies and information. Yet they have been weaponised, hidden and twisted by some perverted souls such as Isaac Luria, Sabbatia Zevi and Jacob Frank into what the death cult use as their "bible" today. Isaac Luria was known as the Ari, he was a leading Jewish mystic in the region of Ottoman Syria, which is now Israel. If you are reading this from the future and we dropped the ball, there was once a time when the entire world wasn't called Israel. The Lurianic Kabbalah was the work of his disciples that compiled his oral teachings into writing. He was born in Jerusalem in 1534 to an Ashkenazi father named Solomon (obviously) and a Sephardic mother. It is said in the Sefer HaKavanot U'Ma'aseh Nissim records that one day, his dad was in a synagogue alone (handy) when the prophet Elijah appear to him and said 'I have been sent to you by the Almighty to bring you tidings that your holy wife (was she holy?) shall conceive and bear a child, and that you must call him Yitzchak. He shall begin to deliver the believers from the qliphoth'. In the Zohar and Lurianic Kabbalah the qliphoth are shells that represent evil husks that conceal a divine spark within it. Christopher Jon Bjerknes suggests that these evil husks are seen as the Edomites who must be destroyed in order to free the divine spark trapped within. My own research suggest that this is why we find the Eternal Flame at the memorial sites of both Princess Diana and JFK. This symbol signifies that the cult was responsible for their assassinations, and that they are now "free" from the husk that trapped them in the shell that was Diana and JFK. I am writing this on the 4th of October 2025 and I would not be at all surprised to see an Eternal Flame of some sort placed as a memorial for Charlie Kirk, perhaps at the Utah University where he was assassinated.

AT THE AGE of 22 it is alleged that Luria became deeply engrossed in the Zohar (splendour or radiance) which is a book containing mystical commentaries on aspects of the Torah. The Zohar contains mysticism, mythological cosmogony and mystical philosophy. The Zohar had just been released to the public for the first time so a young Isaac Luria became a recluse, studying the Zohar in private. The mythology says that he retreated to the Nile for seven years, which of course is nonsense but makes it all fit nicely in with the number seven being completion in Kabbalah. The story goes that he visited his family only on Shabbat but whilst at home he would not utter a word, how very mysterious of him. Luria began to travel and start to spread his own Zohar inspired Kabbalistic teachings, gathering new followers and giving classes along the way. Although he did not write down his teachings his followers did, and by 1650 his concepts and ideas were known by Jews throughout Europe. The main teachings of Luria came through a complex (chaos) system of explaining creation and evil through the following three concepts:

1. Tzimtzum - The contraction of the god-head to make space for creation
2. Shevirat ha-Kelim - The shattering of the vessels (that contained god-head energy)
3. Tikkun - The rectification or repairing of the world through human actions.

THIS TRINITY of thought created the bedrock on which the likes of Chabad Lubavitch base their entire belief system. Remember these are the teachings that both Benjamin Netanyahu and Donald Trump follow. They actually believe by murdering 19,000 plus children in Gaza that they are repairing the world, because they are fucking insane and mentally deranged. People have absolutely no idea what these lunatics are up to, and that Trump and Netanyahu are simply branch managers for the Triple Crown Corporate Cult who are way down the list of importance.

TIKKUN OLAM (REPAIRING THE WORLD)

Tikkun Olam is the term used by Kabbalists for repairing the world from its fallen state after the Shevirat ha-Kelim. The vessels holding the divine light shattered and fell down the vibrational levels to created this 3D material world of matter. In Rabbinical literature the repairing of the world refers to laws and the preservation of social order (Orthodoxy). In the Aleinu (a Jewish prayer) it refers to the eradication of idolatry. In Kabbalah Tikkun Olam takes on a mystical form and refers to returning the sparks of Divine light to the Ein Sof, this is the term for the god head, also known as the infinite. The mainstream interpretation of Tikkun Olam is very positive as you would expect and I am sure to the vast majority of those of the Jewish faith it is. But can you really say that it is not a form of control if your version of "repairing" the world means that those who do not believe in your god and biblical text are sinners and idolators? It makes absolutely no sense that one considers the world repaired because everybody else has conceded that you are the "chosen ones" and are willing to live by your rules. In the legal language of the Talmud the verb 'Tikkun' takes on a more legal meaning as set of rules and regulations set by something called the 'Chazel'. The Chazel are a collective body of Jewish sages who compiled the Mishna and the Talmud, basically they set the rules for their masters of the bloodlines of the "elite", it's all such bollocks isn't it. These sages allegedly lived between the 3rd century BCE to the 7th Century CE, which is hilarious when you think that their rules and demands are still followed today. I wonder what they had to say about your internet usage and how long you should wear your Ear Pods for before Yahweh gets his knickers in a twist? The explanation of the Chazel says they even have something to say about global warming, which is funny because global warming is a scam dreamt up by the Round Table and Club of Rome. But I guess that makes perfect sense since it's all just one big eugenics death cult anyway.

THE CHABAD LUBAVITCH website Chabad.org describes Tikkun Olam as "any activity that improves the world, bringing it closer to the harmonious state for which it was created"(63). The article on the Chabad website goes on to say that "All human activities are opportunities to fulfil this mission, and every human being can be involved in tikkun olam —child or adult, student or entrepreneur, industrialist or artist, caregiver or salesperson, political activist or environmentalist, or just another one of us struggling to keep afloat" (63). This all sounds very lovely, but there's always a catch isn't there, so read the small print. The Chabad website also attempts to "expose" that the creators of this world are the sales people, those that make the money that make the world go around. All of this sounds good enough but what do they view as a repaired world?. Put it this way, if you are a Christian but you are forced to comply with the 7 Noahide Laws which prohibit you from worshipping your own version of god, then are you a Christian any longer? If you are forced to worshiping a god other than your own out of fear, then you are living in a tyranny not a repaired world. The reality of the situation is that although you may be a Christian at heart, you are being forced through compliance to worship the god you don't believe in.

There will come a time, writes Maimonides, when "the occupation of the entire world will be only to know G-d." Meaning, we will have occupations. We will be builders. Importers. Exporters. Manufacturers. Professionals. And why will we occupy ourselves with these things? Because these are the ways to know the One who spoke and brought all things into being. And so they are, as well, today. - Chabad.org (64)

MY QUESTION IS WHAT "GOD" are they talking about? I would say that they are referring to the god of the Old Testament, the vengeful, spiteful, envious and cowardly blueprint that expresses itself through characters such as Yahweh, The Demiurge, Cronus, Saturn, Satan and Yaldabaoth. This is what I have termed in this book the 'Evil Creator God' and this energy is utterly obvious when applied to the Old Testament God. This is the blueprint of the god that they are terrified of meeting in the next life. This is also why they are on an eternal journey to search for the keys to immortality in this world, It's all a bit mental isn't it.

THE STAIRWAY TO Hell

One of the most frequent questions that I am asked about all of this lunacy is what actions we should look out for as red flags that they are moving forward with their agenda. It's a great question and is really the sole purpose of doing this work, to warn others of what they plan to do in order for us to stop them. The likes of David Icke, Jordan Maxwell, Max Igan, Henry Makow and many others not only paved the way for the likes of myself but have been proven correct in their predictions. They were able to predict the various stages of this agenda because they knew what the end game was, and still is today. As the sand trickles through the hour glass, the death cult are running out of time, so they are now speeding things up to such a degree that they are waking the general public up to the obvious fact that there is a global conspiracy taking place. Of course most people have never heard of a messianic agenda, Lurianic Kabbalah, Temple of Solomon or Olam Haba, but they can feel something is very off right now. Donald Trump is such a cluster fuck of a human being that he is the perfect choice right now to cause the required chaos, whilst pushing the agenda forward in such an overt way that most people refuse to believe he could be that deranged, yet he is. Trump is insane but he is not stupid and there is a crucial difference between the two. So let's have a look at some of the steps that these lunatics are going to take in the near future. These are some of the broad moves of the cult, but how they might be brought about will depend on the situation at hand when the move needs to be made.

1. REDEMPTION OF THE "JEWISH" people from their exile (gathering the sparks)
2. The Building of the the Third Temple on Temple Mount
3. All Nations will recognise Israel's god as the true god and gather on Mount Zion
4. God will resurrect the dead (either all or a select few) to be judged
5. All souls will be judged for their actions during their lifetimes. The morally good will receive eternal life in Olam Haba (a physical place on earth)
6. The Messiah will return as a physical human being, leading his followers through the Golden Gate. He will be from the line of David.

WHAT WILL OLAM Haba be like?

- A perfect world and the new Golden Age of Saturn. This will be established after the Messiah has come and god has cast his judgment on man.
- The righteous will enjoy Shekhinah's divine presence instead of physical needs (Avatar transhuman existence).
- Gentiles will live under the 7 Noahide Laws
- All Jews will live under the 613 mitzvot (Commandments).

WE CAN ALREADY SEE a problem with Noahide Law number one. What if you fancy worshipping a god of your own choosing, or no god at all? Or you want to make your higher power your dog. Let's face it, this is a global cult and global communism or socialism or even Nazism. All these "isms" turn out to be the same in the end, they all require you as a sovereign free spirit (free energy) to give your power away to something else and to do as you are told. The greatest thing that WE have in common, no matter your creed, colour, size, background, faith, language or location is that they HATE US ALL EQUALLY. As of 2025 the world population is 8.2 Billion, and they hate us all except for a tiny faction of wealthy Black Nobility Trillionaires. It appears that these lunatics believe themselves to be the descendants of the Anunnaki. This means that they have to convince billions of people to go along with this nonsense. This is great news because they simply cannot get the job done, it is impossible. It is likely that they will attempt some great culling of the world population and perhaps the Covid scam and mRNA jabs were about laying the technological ground work for that, but there are still billions of us who will not fall in line. The more people that they have to wake up by letting them in on certain secrets so that they can perform their role in the agenda, the more the tide turns on them. The biggest problem the cult has is that the more they prove us right by doing exactly what we say they will, the more they actually build up the resistance to their agenda. They simply do not have the numbers to win the game. In fact they have already lost, but they are too stupid and arrogant to except it. No matter how much money they accumulate, how many drugs they shove up their nostrils, how many litres of wine they consume and how many human beings the sacrifice and traffic, they cannot win this one, not on our watch!

WHAT THE HEX

Recently I finally got some time to research the ring of Solomon. The entire mythological concept of this sexy piece of jewellery is based around its alleged ability to summon and control entities from another worlds. The Ring of Solomon, also known as the Seal of Solomon is a legendary signet ring attributed to King Solomon who was believed to be of the line of David. This lineage is said to include Abraham, Noah and the original man Adam. As we have established, I do not believe that these people actually existed, but I do believe the themes held within these stories hold a lot of truth to them. In fact I believe that these allegories and mythologies hold the coded secret to what this reality and our existence is all about. The ring is often depicted in the shape of either a Hexagram or a Pentagram. Both of these shapes are used in black magic rituals as a space to invite beings into, as well as a weapon used to control other people in this reality. In mystic law the ring is said to give King Solomon, or whoever wears it, the ability to control the supernatural. This same premise can be found in the Lord of The Rings movies, and the Lord of The Rings is Saturn. The ring gave Solomon the power to control negative beings such as Djinn or Shedim, as well as more positive entities and energies. This is why we say that someone has put a "hex" on you when something bad happens. They are literally saying that someone has placed the energetic grid of the hexagon around you which has allowed them to control you. Another way of thinking about this concept would be to picture a hexagon shaped stage, on which a puppet master can control the entities every move. Once the entity is invited onto the stage through a portal then its powers can be used by the magician who has allowed them in. We see this same concept within black magic rituals, leading to the blood contract between the human magician and the entity. The sad part is that once the magicians human life is over, they then become the puppet of the entity, and sometimes even after an elapsed amount of time such as 7 years, depending on the contract. With this in mind, this is why we have so many rich and famous people seemingly passed in this world. They have become literal possession of the entity they used to gain that fortune and fame.

THE MOST FAMOUS use of the Seal of Solomon (Star of David) is on the flag of modern day Israel, which was built on land signed over to the Rothschild's as part of the Balfour Declaration. The flag features the six point star in blue placed between two blue stripes, which some researchers believe represent the Euphrates and the Nile. Others believe that the two blue stripes represent the waters above and the waters below. Still others say that the two blue stripes represent the Talit, which is a Jewish prayer. It really all depends on what faction you are talking about and your level of occult knowledge within that faction. In Jewish mysticism the colour blue symbolises the protection of their mother goddess Shekhinah, who is the female aspect of Yahweh with whom she shared the Tabernacle in Solomons Temple. The colour blue is the negative energy to the colour red which represents the positive energy in accordance with the movement of visible light. Light becomes more blue when it comes towards you and becomes more red when it moves away. These dark occultists know this, so they used the Rothschilds "Red-Shield" and red star of David to push the Jews, who were horrifically abused during the Holocaust, towards modern day Israel (repel them). Whilst at the same time the flag of Israel was given a blue Star of David which energetically pulled them towards modern day Israel. This is all alchemical black magic, and the Sabbatean Rothschilds will absolutely know how this stuff works, and it does work. Once the survivors of Hitler's horrific holocaust were in the modern day land of Israel, they had stepped into the hexagram at the centre of the Star of David where a "Hex" was cast upon them. The satanic occultists then brainwashed those who had already been abused and tortured into believing that the rest of the world hated them, which is simply not true at all. In response to this alchemical spell, we now see the psychopathic and psychotic behaviour of the IDF, under the control of the cults Zionists government of Israel. The hexagon, hexagram and cube act as portals for entities from another dimension, perhaps the 4D astral, that sits just outside of our visible light spectrum. These entities can be either negative or positive depending on who calls upon them and for what reason. But with thousands of Palestinians now dead at the hands of the IDF, I am hedging my bets that these dark occultist at the top are doing the bidding of some distorted and disturbed energies. These entities are invited into our reality and can be seen for a short amount of time by those participating in the ritual. They can't stay for long, and cannot move beyond the outline of the hexagram/pentagram but they can stay long enough to deliver their demands and frighten the living shit out of the cult members in attendance. Therefore, it is my belief that the choice of the Star of David as a symbol for the Zionist state of Israel is all part of an alchemical black magic ritual, which is being weaponised to bring about their Messianic agenda for a new world order. Remember this is not the Jewish people, these are Sabbatean Satanists using everyone else (included Jews) as a shield to hide behind.

WHAT I FIND REALLY interesting is the Dome of The Rock, which currently sits on Temple Mount in Jerusalem where the cult want to build their new temple, actually sits on an Octagon. The Octagon is an eight sided shape similar to the Hexagon but with more sides. The Power Octagon is a basic tool in the repertoire of the Order of the Gnostic Star the generates a double prismatic vortex which allows contact with "elementals" which are a spiritual beings that represent one of the elements of fire, water, air or earth. This is basic alchemy with the fifth element being either or plasma. Essentially the Octagon and the Hexagon do the same thing, but perhaps they connect in with different manifestations of spirit? According to a blog written by Frater Barrabbas, fraterbarrabbas.blogspot.com, the Power Octagon has the pentagram at its centre (65). When the pentagram is inverted it becomes a Satanic representation of Baphomet. All of this is incredibly interesting and I would suggest the Ring of Solomon with its six pointed star is used by Israel because it can invoke both positive and negative energies, and even invert them. The six pointed star features two triangles layered over each other. The triangle pointing up represents fire, and the triangle pointing down represents Water. This symbol is also connected to the saying "so above as below" which relates back to the holographic universe. The global death cults use of these principles are black magic spells, and an inversion of the old hermetic understandings that have been passed down through secret societies since the time of Atlantis and Lumeria. Over time these understandings were hidden from all except the "elite" who became drunk on power, as Gollum did in the Lord of The Rings movies. Gollum shares many of its characteristics with the Homunculus. This is a subject that we will come to later on in the book, as it provides the roots for the concepts of the Qliphoth shells, Transhumanism, human cloning, Rosemarys Baby and Aleister Crowley's Moonchild. Now that we have established the basic beliefs and agenda of the global death cult, it is time to get into how they plan to bring this insanity about, and we have not even got to the Anti-Christ stuff yet!

ROSEMARY AND THE MOON

Now we have put down the foundation of the death cults beliefs, let's get into some really weird shit shall we? We know the cult want's to build a Third Temple on Temple Mount in Jerusalem, and we know they want it to be a broadcasting system to the entire world. Chabad even told us so on their own website chabad.org. We also know that they likely want to broadcast the 7 Noahide Laws from the temple straight into the minds of the masses via some sort of brain chip or mRNA nano technology. I have also outline how they want to connect human 2.0, and Human Enhanced to the internet of all things through at least 20,000 satellites already orbiting our skies. This includes 8,000 of Elon Musk's Starlink satellites. This would then provide the data that world be fed into an everything app, just as Elon plans for his X Ap. This data would then be organised and weaponised by the likes of cult asset Peter Theil and his Palantir company.

I BELIEVE that all of this will be fed into Solomons Temple. This newly built temple will be a temple to temple (Ai mind to human mind) I/O input output system. Meaning that humans will become part of the global cybernetic loop, which is essentially another Ouroboros. This global grid will track everything you say and do, and perhaps even think (though I don't believe that barrier can be really broken). Our great grand children may be born plugged in to this beast system, and may not even realise it. An argument can be made that we already have been. The Gnostic concept of our world described this very scenario, as seen in the Matrix movies. Though I would like to add, even if we have been born "plugged in" we can still choose what to do with our time here and how we conduct ourselves. Regardless of the nature of this reality we can still have a positive effect on this place being the powerful magi that we all are. As the character Andy Dufresne says in the Shawshank Redemption "there's something inside... that they can't get to, that they can't touch" and it is that something that they fear us reconnecting with? To redirect this natural connected from its course they want to connect us into the temple, which will be fed from the Astral which will run the artificial intelligence quantum computer. If the Temple is running on A.I, there still needs to be a bloodline King of the World, if only for perceptions sake. This bloodline king is alleged to be of the bloodline of David who may be an allegory of a hybrid being. So who will be 'chosen' as their Messiah of their world to come? Who will sit at the controls of the artificial intelligence beast system having a chat with these alleged gods? What is clear to me is that those of the Christian faith are waiting for the messiah and saviour to come down from the clouds on the Mount of Olives. At the same time those of the Jewish faith will be on that hill, waiting for their saviour to come skipping over the hill tops to lead them through the golden gates, and yes the Golden Arches of McDonalds do symbolise the Golden Arches of the end times, also known as the Eastern Gate. The Freemasons at the very apex of the Grand Lodge known this Eastern Gate or Easter Star as Sirius or The Blazing Star. The Magi did not travel to the east to see Christ, they traveled to the west from the east following the star. This is a common scam to lure Christians into Freemasonry, but the fact is they are going in opposite directions to each other. In true Satanic inversion, Christians in Masonry believe they are following the God Star when they are actually following the Dog Star.

THE MOONCHILD

There are a couple of version of this concept that we will explore in this chapter. The first concept takes us to the work or "workings" of Aleister Crowley. Crowley was an English occult author, as well as a likely intelligence agent. Born in 1875 as Edward Alexander Crowley, he became perhaps the world's most famous occultist and took on the moniker of 'The Beast' whose number is 666. Crowley bounced around from England to New York and loved a good old walk up a mountain, but he also conjured up some serious drug problems along the way. One of the more famous rituals that was created from his work was something called the 'Babalon Working' ritual. This ritual came out of Crowley's concept of the Whore of Babylon also known as The Scarlet Women and The Mother of Abominations, which is lovely. In the Netflix TV Series Orphan Black, the clones are known as abominations, which will give you some sort of idea as to what this is all leading to in the real world. The Scarlet Women can be found in films like the Matrix movies, often appearing as a beautiful woman in a red dress who distracts one of the main characters. Crowley had established his Thelema cult in 1904 with the writing of the 'Book of The Law'. The spelling of the name 'Babalon' was revealed to Crowley in the 'Vision and The Voice'. He believed that it was this Scarlet Women who would give birth to the Anti-Christ. The human body of the child would act as a vessel, shell or homunculus to house the living energy of the Anti-Christ. This body would provide this demonic entity with a way of navigating our reality just as we do. The Homunculus is the result of an ancient alchemical process, and functions as a sort of artificial human body. My thoughts are that a homunculus acts as an empty vessel made by artificial means, that waits to be filled by the energies of a spirit. The Scarlet Women would conceive the infant's physical body as a vessel for the Anti-Christ energy. During a black magic ritual this Anti-Christ energy would jump into the body instead of the spirit that it was intended for. As ridiculous as this sounds it is my belief, and there is plenty of evidence to support it, that this was at least part of the atomic bomb testing at the Trinity site in New Mexico. This is what the Babalon Working ritual was all about, and it was performed by some very famous names in the occult, science and space technology worlds.

ALEISTER CROWLEY USED this concept in his fictional book 'Moonchild' which to me is an earlier version of what later became the book and film 'Rosemary's Baby'. Moonchild was written in 1917, and is bit of a creepy read. The book centres around a young lady who finds herself invited to some secret gatherings at a place called the butterflies nest, which will connect in with the Epstein scandal when we come to it in the next chapter. The story revolves around a war between the white magicians led by a guy called Simon Iff, and the black magicians, as they fight over an unborn child. This concept was picked up years later by two followers of Crowley, rocket scientist and inventor of jet propulsion Jack Parsons and L Ron Hubbard, yes that L Ron Hubbard who would go on to found Scientology. This will also link in with the Epstein scandal when we cover the underground facilities in New Mexico. Epstein Survivor Juliette Bryant, revealed to me that she had woken up paralysed and naked on a laboratory table on my show Classified on Iconic.com, released on 13th September 2023. Myself and Juliette have spent the past two years researching all of this, and we have connected it to the work of George Church and his work on genetics, Dulce Base, Los Alamos National Laboratory, Trinity Site, and Scientologies Trementina Vaults in New Mexico which come under Scientologies 'Church of Spiritual Technology'. Unfortunately a book was written that took much of our research, though I have written many articles and made numerous videos about all of this so the evidence that we put this all together originally is there for all to see. What that book doesn't cover are the true deep reasons why any of these underground bases might be relevant to each other beyond merely being located in New Mexico. Jack Parsons and L Ron Hubbard aimed to fertilise a magical child (moon child/Rosemary's Baby) through immaculate conception because if Mary, Isis and Semiramis can do it then why can't they?! Parsons said that this would usher in the Thelema Age of Horus. Allegedly Crowley was bewildered by Parsons attempted at the ritual but there was not much he could do about it. Parson's had joined the OTO's Agape Lodge in 1941 and had quickly proven to Crowley that he was a devoted follower. The OTO was the 'Ordo Templi Orientis' and although Crowley did not start the order, he eventually assumed control of it. Remember this could have all been happening whilst he was secretly feeding back information to his handlers in the City of London as an intelligence asset and spy.

THE BABALON WORKING ritual was design to attract an 'elemental' who would agree to participate in sex magic that would produce the homunculus vessel for the child that would house the Anti-Christ. The ritual was deemed a success, as soon Parsons was joined by the green-eyed red haired Marjorie Cameron who to me looked strikingly like Marilyn Munroe. Parsons and Cameron entered into a relationship and were married in 1946, the relationship was often strained but they were all magicians messing about with black magic so I guess it's understandable. The rituals they performed draw largely on the work of Crowley who died in 1947. This year is the same year when loads of strange things happened, including the establishment of modern day Israel, who use the six pointed star on their flag. As I described earlier, this six pointed star could be found on the Ring of Solomon, said to have been given to him by the Archangel Michael. This ring gave him the power to conjure up spirits and allow them into our world. Crowley, who would die a year later in 1948, was corresponding with Parsons as he performed these rituals, although he was also deriding him behind his back! but he is the beast after all, so what did Parsons expect? The Babalon Working ritual failed to produce a baby, although there are some accounts that believe Marjorie Cameron had become pregnant. This was a pregnancy that was timed by the correct celestial alignment. Researchers say that the baby was then terminated and the child's body was placed inside a 12ft glass bottle, which was present at the Trinity Site at the time of the first atomic bomb test. This was the Manhattan Project that Jack Parsons was working on. It is alleged that Parsons believed that the immense power of splitting the atom would invite a divine force into the fetus and reanimate it. This was of course Crowley's Moonchild. I am not saying that I believe this actually took place at the Trinity Site, but who really knows the limits of these guys? We know they certainly believed in this stuff and we know that multiple lines of investigation show that there is something very dark and occult going on underneath New Mexico.

MY RESEARCH into this subject also led me to Columbia University which is where they once housed a particle accelerator that was eventually used in the Manhattan Project. The site of Columbia University used to be an asylum for the mentally ill. In fact one of the buildings that was part of the insane asylum still stands today. It is called Buell Hall, and it is the last standing dormitory building of The Bloomingdale Insane Asylum from the 19th century, and was once called Mary Villa. The mind boggles at the fact that this is where they once stored a particle accelerator that was used in the Manhattan Project and was also the site of an insane asylum. Add to this that the Manhattan Project was a project that occultist Jack Parson was working on, who was also attempting to bring the Anti-Christ into this world where he would house it in his unborn child! there's a hell of a day at work for you! Columbia scientist played key roles in the Manhattan Project, which I believe is connected to the Phoenix Project which involves time travel, the Montauk Project, The Philadelphia Experiment (Rainbow Project) and MK Ultra. It is my belief that all of these secret intelligence black budget projects have a messianic element to them. This messianic agenda involves playing out biblical "prophecies" and opening up portals into other realities. This could be because those at the top of these projects are answering to beings from the 4th Dimension who seek to trade places with human beings and live in our world? Whatever the agenda is, there is absolutely something very dark and deranged going on in New Mexico and it connects to Columbia University and black budget projects.

ROSEMARYS Baby

This one has always fascinated me, ever since I found out the John Lennon was assassinated on the doorstep of the hotel where some of the scenes from the Rosemary's Baby movie were filmed. Beatles singer and songwriter John Lennon was shot as he left the Dakota Hotel on December 8th 1990. He was shot by David Chapman who was later found holding a copy of the book 'Catcher In The Rye' in which he had written the note 'this is my statement'. Many researchers believe this book to be one of the training text used during mind control programming rituals. It is believed that some of the words or lines act as passwords or triggers that switch the mind control victim over into a compartmentalised section of the brain, this section stores an entirely different personality called an "alter". On the night of Lennon's shooting his wife Yoko Ono was escorted to the hotel by Dave Geffen who is one of the leading names in Hollywood today, and allegedly part of something called the Purple or Pink Mafia. At the time John Lennon was signed to Geffen Records and he and Yoko were about to release an album together called 'Double Fantasy'. This was John's final studio album, obviously, and it was a huge success for Geffen's record label. Of course it was always going to be now that John had been assassinated. Dave Geffen is an ardent Zionist, and named his Yacht the 'Rising Sun' which is a nod to Horus, the virgin sun of Osiris and Isis in Egyptian mythology. Dave Geffen became an enemy of Michael Jackson in the late 1980's, who I believe started to realise the type of people he had surrounded himself with by the then. The likes of Steven Spielberg and George Lucas come to mind who clearly have a wealth of occult knowledge between them. I personally have doubts that Spielberg and Lucas are even their real names, with Spielberg meaning big lie and Lucas being associated with Lucifer the light bearer. Lucifer is associated with the planet Venus which comes before Vulcan and in Rosicrucian Cosmo-Conception.

THE MOVIE ROSEMARYS Baby was based on the 1967 horror novel by American writer Ira Levin. The book follows a young couple who move into an apartment in New York (always New York) who then befriend an older couple in a neighbouring apartment. The older couple become increasingly involved when the young lady falls pregnant. Before Rosemary falls pregnant she dreams of a rough sexual encounter with an 'inhuman creature with yellow eyes'. This will become extremely important when we come to the crimes of Jeffery Epstein and what Juliette Bryant told me she saw during one encounter with him. After the dream, Rosemary discovers that she is pregnant and then begins to fall ill. Her intense pain and weight loss are ignored by others and put down to hysteria. Rosemary develops an intense craving for raw meat, which may symbolise an element of vampirism. She is then told that one of the characters in the film, Roman Castevet is a leader of a Satanic Cult. Now what are the chances that the movie version of this story would be directed by Roman Polanski who is well known for his interest in young girls? Polanski's wife Sharon Tate was brutally murdered by the Manson family when she was eight months pregnant. The writer of the book 'The Family: Charles Manson's Dune Buggy Attack Battalion' Ed Sanders said that 'At least five separate sources informed him that Manson was involved with the Solar Temple lodge'. The Solar Temple Lodge was a magic organisation in Californian that was established in 1965. The lodge was based on ideas from the curriculum of A.A. This was an order that was established by Aleister Crowley. Crowley was the author of the prototype ritual to conjure up a 'Rosemarys Baby'. The entire concept of a Rosemarys Baby can be found in Crowley's book The Moonchild. In the real world this all corresponds with the Babalon Working Ritual performed by Jack Parsons and L. Ron Hubbard that I covered earlier. These are all the same thing, they are all about creating a vessel to house a demonic entity from beyond the veil. Did Manson convince his cult followers that Tate was carrying a Moonchild? It is an interesting take that I don't believe has ever been asked and makes far more sense than a robbery gone wrong.

WHAT MAKES this even more creepy is that the apartment building that Rosemary and her young husband move into is called 'The Bramford'. This fictional building was inspired by The Dakota in Manhattan, the very building where Polanski filmed his scenes for the movie version and where John Lennon was assassinated by an alleged MK Ultra assassin. But that is not the most bizarre part of the Rosemarys Baby saga, this came when Princess Diana wore what appears to be the Rosemarys baby dress when she revealed Prince Harry to the world, standing next to the now King of England Charles II. She is standing there on a step next to the future King of England dressed in a Rosemarys Baby costume holding a new born Prince Harry. Okay, so this could just have been a coincidence I get that, but fast forward to 2018 and out comes Kate Middleton, standing proudly next to her husband and first born son of Princess Diana, Prince William. And what is she wearing, an exact replica of the Rosemarys baby dress whilst holding their third child Louis Arthur Charles in her arms. Now, you can argue many of the points in this book but in no way is that an accident, not in a million years. The Royals are a ritualistic bloodline who's own weddings show you how much planning and time goes into the charade of it all. I am not suggesting Kate wanted to wear the dress, and the same goes for Diana, but I do believe they are being used for something dark and disturbing behind the scenes. Remember, the British Royals put the sigil of Saturn on their Balmoral crest. In David Icke's book The Biggest Secret, he covers some information shared with him in the 90's from a lady called Arizona Wilder, whose real name is Jennifer Greene. Arizona claimed to have been a victim of MK Ultra Mind Control programming and said she held the title of "Mother Goddess" during occult rituals. One of these rituals was called "The Awakening of The Bride", which she says took place at Clarence House, the Queen Mother's former home near Buckingham Palace. David writes that "The ritual took place in the first seven days of July 1981" which was a few weeks before Diana and Charles were married on the 29th July 1981. The awakening of the bride ritual happens to all brides of the 13 bloodlines, who are to be placed in prominent positions of influence alongside the alleged hybrid bloodlines of the elite. Arizona said that Diana was brought into the room where members of the British Royal Family were gathered, including Charles, the Queen and Diana's father Earl Spencer. Diana was wearing a white gown and appeared to have been drugged. Diana was then told that she should "Consider her union with Prince Charles as only a means to produce heirs and nothing else". Arizona said both Prince Phillip and the Queen Mother both shape-shifted into reptiles to show Diana who they really are were. Diana was then told that "All ears would be listening to everything she said and all eyes would be forever watching her". This ritual is said to be connected to the mythologies of ISIS and the penis of Osiris, which produced the child Horus. I would also suggest that this ritual was performed at the Mothers of Darkness Castle in Belgium, officially known as the Chateau Des Amerois. This castle is owned today by the Solvay family and was previously owned by a member of the House of Saxe-Coburg And Gotha, who are currently known as the Windsors.

ALTHOUGH THESE ACCOUNTS sound fantastical and way beyond the realms of most peoples understanding of what could be possible, we do know that these families love occult symbolism such as the sigil of Saturn on the Balmoral Crest and that Diana and Kate Middleton both wore the Rosemarys baby dress. I have no problem believing that these rituals took place and that both Diana and Kate are victims of these things, but I am still trying to piece together how they correlate to the birth of Prince Harry and Prince Louis. My gut feeling is that it has something to do with reincarnation of a specific soul down the bloodlines, or a purity of blood type. I am in no way suggesting that these poor kids are anyway evil or demonic, they are kids and should be given the privacy and respect they deserve like the rest of us. But I do believe these rituals take place and that very wealthy families believe in this stuff even if we don't. At the end of the day, if any of this is true then these bloodlines and families members are victims as well. It is no good us pointing fingers and blaming everyone in the cult, many of which will have been born into it, we need to figure out how we got into this mess in the first place and therefore how to start living in a better more loving way. Whenever I see pictures of the British Royal Family none of them look like they are having a good time, in fact they look haunted. I doubt many of them want to live this way either, but maybe they have been brainwashed into thinking it's too late, and that they are property of entities from beyond the veil? Could it be that they have been raised to believe that the black magic contracts signed in their ancestors blood must be fulfilled by them? Was a sad and horrific way to brainwash your children if so.

THE QUEEN WAS A DRUID

It may surprise some to find out that the former head of the Church of England the late Queen Elizabeth II (what was she late for?) was actually a druid. In 1946, a young Liz was invested as an honorary bard at the National Eisteddfod of Wales. Liz was just twenty years old at the time when she attended the ceremony at Mountain Ash. The ancient druids were considered Celtic pagans and modern day druids are also considered Pagan. I know people will say that she wasn't queen at the time, but come on now, what was the future Queen of England doing being inducted into a druid sect? Liz went on to be the Supreme Governor of The Church of England, which is really the other pincer prong to the Catholic Church and not separate as most have been duped into believing. According to an article in on the BBC website published on the 13th September 2022, her Bard name was "Elizabeth o Windsor" and her "experience at the traditional ceremony spark a long interest in Welsh language and culture". Of course this is the BBC, so they had to downplay it as something she just happened upon and took a liking to, like knitting. It doesn't take genius to work out there there is much more to this than just something to do on a spare Sunday afternoon at the Palace. The Welsh druids believe in the interconnectedness of nature, and the "immortality of the soul through reincarnation". What is clear to me is that all of this Church of England I believe in baby Jesus stuff is for show. They have the sigil of Saturn on their most famous castle, a massive stone pyramid in the garden and the Queen was a druid who belied in reincarnation. The druids revered the natural world, which is the same natural world that the Gnostics would say was an unnatural world. Remember that the Messianic sect seek to live forever on this earth, and that the entire agenda is about bringing heaven down to earth. The trick appears to be that they have convinced the Christians and Muslims that their salvation is in the afterlife, whilst they have every intention of dodging their god Cronus and staying alive forever. In terms of immortality the druids believe that the soul was indestructible and passed from one body to another after death. This correlates with what Arizona Wilder told David Icke in the biggest Secret, saying that Queen Victoria and the Queen Mother were the same person. The bards specialised as diviners, whose job it was to interpret sacrifices (including human) to foretell what the future holds...nice work if you can get it! Their places of worship were said to be isolated wooden groves and near sacred pools or lakes. This would match the information about Diana's Mirror in Rome, the basis for the modern day Hollywood ritual and the Bohemian Grove ritual in California where some of the biggest names in politics and banking perform a 'mock' ritual to a huge statue of an Owl, believed to be a representation of Moloch.

MOLOCH WAS a deity condemned by the Hebrew bible that some associate with Baal. The term Baal is a title such as lord, so this maybe correct in that Moloch could have been referred to as Lord Moloch, therefore Baal Moloch. In the Hebrew bible Baal is considered the false god or idol. So why would the British Royal Family use the term Baal in the name for their home in Scotland, which is written underneath the Sigil of Saturn on its crest? Although there are differences between Moloch, Baal, Yahweh and Cronus, I believe that they are all versions of the same evil creator god blueprint, thus they invoke and broadcast the same energetic pattern out into the world. Interestingly Baal is seen as a rival god to Yahweh in the Hebrew bible, which would automatically disqualify Yahweh from being the original and one true god because there are clearly others to be envious of. Most people today will know that Yahweh was one of a pantheon of Canaanite gods, thus he was a jealous god, and attributes of other gods such as Baal were incorporated into the one god of the Old Testament Yahweh. This is exactly the same process that those who wrote the New Testament went through when they combined many of the Roman gods with Egyptian, Mesopotamian and Babylonian mythologies to give the very human character of Jesus his super powers as the son of God. In fact it is my belief that the Old Testament god was the positive red polarity to the negative blue polarity of the New Testament god represented by Jesus. Remember that the terms "negative" and "positive" do not mean bad or good in this instance, they refer to passive and aggressive. The god of the Old Testament Yahweh was aggressive (Positive) and the god of the New Testament represented by his son Jesus Christ was passive (negative). This is a classic example of how the cult satanically invert the meaning of words to confuse and cause chaos. This is all ancient alchemy, they needed the new god of the New Testament to be played off against the old god of the Old Testament, that's how alchemy works. You need the duality of polarities to provide the arena to cast your spell within. Once you have those two fixed coordinates you can play the energies off against each other without billions of people waking up to the fact that they are being used and abused.

ANCIENT DRUID PRACTICES did include sacrifices, but they did love the tree's and nature so it's a bit of a mixed bag. In fact the word pagan actually means rural or country dweller in Latin. If we put the Rosemary's baby/Moonchild concept into the druid belief system then the entire meaning of Kate and Diana wearing the Rosemary's baby dress takes on a vivid and alarming image. Druids not only believed that the soul transferred from one body to another after death, they also believed that reincarnation was a form of metempsychosis which is the transmigration of a soul into a new body of the same or different species. Is it too much to believe that these lunatics could be using some sort of mRNA DNA technology to do this? Even if they have not managed to create that technology yet, we know they store human bodies through the process of cryonics which is what I believe they are doing at the Church of Spiritual Technologies Trementina base in New Mexico. The Church of Spiritual Technology comes under the umbrella of L.Ron Hubbard's Scientology. To be fair to the druids they believed that the process of reincarnation or transmigration made the individual stronger because they no longer feared death. The dark occults that we are exposing here are still terrified of death, which is why they continue to seek immortality. It seems to me that this is all still going on today, but with the added bonus of a bit of Silicon Valley, Pentagon, Military grade technology to aid their quest. Today we see the likes of Elon Musk and Ray Kurzweil banging the drum for Transhumanism, which is just the most recent attempt to create the philosophers stone, otherwise known as immortality. Someone you might not expect to connect in with all of this is the long time friend of the British Royals and convicted child trafficker Jeffery Epstein. I began looking into this information two years ago when Epstein survivor Juliette Bryant revealed on my Classified show that she had woken up paralysed and naked on a laboratory table whilst at Epstein's Zorro Ranch in New Mexico. She also claimed that during a night of sexual abuse by Epstein she had seen him shift into something alien like. It was not fully reptilian, but it corresponds with many of the descriptions of reptilians. What was Jeffery Epstein really up to underneath Little St James Island and Zorro Ranch? Was he involved with a process connected to Rosemary's Baby, The Moonchild and the Babalon Working Ritual? I think there is plenty of evidence that he may well have been.

AN ADDITIONAL NOTE to this chapter is that in the bundle of Epstein files released late January 2026, at least one was an email from Jeffery Epstein to a Bryan Bishop. This email had the subject line "Designer Babies (use of funds)" and was dated the 5th August 2018. The email shows that Epstein was deeply involved in the funding of genetic and biological experimental projects. In the email Epstein states this his money will help "get us out of our self-funded 'garage biology' phase to the first live birth of a human designer baby, and possibly a human clone within 5 years". Epstein goes on to say that "everything changes and the world will never be the same again, much less the future of the human species". I wish I was making this stuff up but I am not, the email was included in a huge release of over 3 million Epstein files in early 2026, but at least 3 million more are being held back for security reasons. In another email between Bryan Bishop and Jeffery Epstein, Jeffery speaks about his need to keep his involvement secret and private, to which Mr Bishop suggests that the project be done under his "designer baby project" because "the other desirable is similar and shares so man of the same procedures and lab requirements". I wonder what that "other desirable" could be? perhaps they were talking about the Homunculus shell for their Anti-Christ? Whatever the case, the reality of Epstein harvesting the eggs of his female victims is a reality that we cannot remove from the table.
